

Safe Deposit Boxes

One of our most important functions is providing certain protection for things too valuable to be left in your home.

A safe deposit box in our vaults is thoroughly protected. These boxes cost only a small rental, and will relieve you of a great deal of danger and worry. Come in and inspect them.

Have You a Liberty Bond?

If you have, you should have a safe deposit box for its safe keeping. Coupon bonds are just as good, if lost, to the finder as to the purchaser. If your coupon bond should be stolen, you would simply be out the amount you invested. The loss of registered bonds, even, would be a great inconvenience.

You will find it an exceedingly wise investment to rent one of our strong safe deposit boxes. Give your bonds ABSOLUTE protection from fire, rodents, theft and anything else.

We will be very glad to give you any additional information about safe deposit boxes you may desire.

Lasswell of the Colville Loan and Trust company left Wednesday to attend the convention. Hugh Waddell, vice president of the association for Washington, was not sure whether he could get away to the meeting or not, being busy with preparations for the War Savings drive which culminates June 28.

Officers to be elected at the meeting include a member of the executive council of the national association to succeed E. T. Coman of Spokane, a vice president to succeed Mr. Waddell, a member of the nominating committee, a trust company section vice president for the state to succeed R. L. Rutter of Spokane, and vice presidents for the savings bank, national bank and state bank sections of the national association.

COLVILLE PEOPLE ATTEND WALLA WALLA MEETINGS

Mrs. Lee, a past president, was given the degree of chivalry, the highest honor. Miss Gates was the official representative of the local lodge. She was appointed district deputy. Mrs. Shaver was named on the board of examiners at the assembly.

Mrs. Shaver and Mrs. Rice accepted an invitation to attend the Inland Empire pioneer association and historical society meeting in session there. Mrs. Shaver is secretary of the Stevens County Pioneer Association and she and her sister Mrs. Rice are members of the Hofstetter family, Stevens county pioneers.

Miss Gates drove her car to Walla Walla and was accompanied by her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gates and by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Lockie, who attended the state grange meeting. They returned via Lewiston. Mrs. Lee reported that on her return journey they did not have sleeper accommodations between Walla Walla and Spokane because of the transportation of troops.

Frank Ham was the representative to the grand lodge from the local Odd Fellows lodge, and with his wife made the trip in their auto.

The Rice lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were represented by R. T. Downie and Mrs. Marie Jamieson. The Kettle Falls lodges were represented by Gust Weigelt and Mrs. Edgren. Mr. and Mrs. John Ingstrom represented Gifford.

FOREST FIRES BURN SOME GOOD TIMBER AT ALADDIN

Forest fires have been rioting in the hills in the Aladdin country this week, and the situation there has been critical. Several square miles of the country surrounding the Deep creek basin have been burned over and many thousands of dollars worth of timber destroyed. The winds of Sunday fanned the smoldering embers from the previously burned slashings, and in the lowlands withering sheets of flame leaped to the dry slopes and were soon out of control of the many fire fighters who were called to the rescue of the half dozen sawmills in the valleys.

Farms suffered from loss of fencing and incidentally from the ravages of invading herds of stock driven by the fires. Other fires were reported to be threatening the Dominion mountain districts.

Some of the Aladdin places attacked by the fires were the Johnson ranch, P. F. Bowns who lost $1000 in timber, the McKee ranch owned by Mrs. Stevens, Carl Binger, Mr. Crowder, E. F. Storer, two Draper places, Nelson, Baird, and both sides of the road on the Davis place. Not much state land was threatened. The Nelson place alone held $14,000 worth of white pine and cedar, and several other places had valuable stands of timber.

RAIN MIGHT INTEREST THE SIX-YEAR-OLD BOY

Some one asked a farmer during the severe dry spell "How would you like to see it rain?" "Wal," drawled the man, "I don't care so much about it myself, but my boy, six years old, would like to see a rain once."

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly, and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price $1.25.

COLVILLE WILL CELEBRATE ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

Fourth of July will be celebrated in Colville with a big old-fashioned all-day picnic at the city park, where young and old will join in the fun. There will be band concerts, a program, contests and races, which will make the affair one of the biggest Fourth of July celebrations ever held in Colville. The Chamber of Commerce is beginning early to plan for the day, and advises every one to watch for the big posters telling of Colville's Fourth of July picnic.

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD NOW OFFERED

A reward of $200 is being offered for information leading to the conviction of the party putting out dog poison in Colville. File your information with the prosecuting attorney. Every one is asked to help find this guilty party and help rid the community of him.

COLVILLE LOCAL BOARD IN NEED OF HELP NOW

Voluntary help is requested by the government and the local board is badly in need of some patriotic people to give an hour or so a day for clerical work. With registration coming on, John B. Slater says he must have help and can get it if those who wish to help win the war will give a little of their time. He said that some of the young girls of the town have proved very capable in this sort of work and here is an opportunity to be of great service. Perhaps the business houses can spare a clerk for an hour or two occasionally.

COLVILLE WOMEN REQUEST WHEATLESS DEMONSTRATION

To demonstrate the canning and preserving of fruits, meats and vegetables to the women of the county, Miss Mary Anderson from the state college will spend two days in each of six towns, beginning at Springdale July 17. Miss Anderson is one of fifteen girls who are spending the month of June in demonstration work in Washington.

Requests for special demonstrations which the women of a community would like to make may be made to E. C. Durdle, county agricultural agent. It has been suggested to Mr. Durdle that the women of Colville and vicinity would be interested in a demonstration of wheatless recipes and if possible this demonstration will be obtained.

The tentative program for the demonstrations includes the canning of fruit and vegetables for the afternoon of the first day, a demonstration of the canning of meats on the forenoon of the second day and on the afternoon of the second day a discussion of the drying of fruits and vegetables. The schedule for the demonstration trip is Springdale, June 17 and 18; Chewelah, June 19 and 20; Colville, June 21 and 22; Northport, June 24 and 25; Kettle Falls, June 26 and 27; and Hunters, June 28 and 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dexter were in Colville last week end visiting friends. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. L. C. Jesseph and daughter Georgia went to Spokane Saturday where they attended the matinee performance of Sarah Bernhardt. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Spicer and Miss Alvina Storm left Tuesday for the east to spend the summer visiting friends and relatives in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Henry Vilvoeck of Davenport is assisting for a time in the Colville Loan and Trust office. Mrs. Vilvoeck, who held a position with the company for three years before her marriage, motored to Colville with Mr. Vilvoeck Saturday. During her stay here she will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rothlisberger.

S. B. Kohlstedt, who became a resident of the Colville valley a month ago, has purchased the 160 acre ranch of M. H. C. Allen northeast of Colville, and 400 acres of sidehill pasture from Irving D. Sill. He intends to stock the place with Shorthorns. The Kohlstedt family is now living at 436 North Maple, but will take possession of the ranch Aug. 1. He is a brother of E. G. Kohlstedt, living west of the city, the well known breeder of purebred Percherons.

THIS MEANS THAT YOU ARE GOING SURE

A photograph as a remembrance is unsurpassable. It will mean more to you than anything you could offer. "She" wants a picture of you—wants it badly, but maybe she doesn't like to urge it. It's the least you can do. It's a little act of kindness and it's something you'll never regret. There can only be one motive that causes you to neglect it and that is selfishness. Do it at once. Today.

The Colville Examiner Offer

Any man who is to enter the service of the United States, who either intends to enlist or believes he may be drafted, may, by going to SMITH'S PHOTO STUDIO, NORTH OF FIRST NATIONAL BANK, COLVILLE, have a sitting made at no expense to himself and putting him under no obligations.
