The Examiner has for years made a specialty of high class job work, and in this department does all classes of commercial printing, society printing, color work, engraving, embossing, punching, ruling, perforating, loose leaf work and carries a stock of loose leaf binders and fillers for same. This office sells all classes of cuts, notarial and corporation seals, corporation books, stock certificates, bonds and warrants. Mail orders are promptly answered.

The pocket loose leaf billing and statement system is the latest in use in Colville. Bills and statements and memoranda can be carried in an indexed pocket book, thus saving much time, worry and calculation. It is also used for a petty ledger, or by houses which do a cash business with an occasional credit carried for a few days. The Examiner furnishes these books and fillers, and samples can be sent by mail.

Dr. D. C. Brown and Mrs. Brown of Duluth, Minnesota, arrived in Colville Saturday evening and have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spedden. They left yesterday for Chicago, where they are going to make their home.

E. M. Hodgson, night foreman on the Northwest magnesite plant at Chewelah, spent the day in Colville Sunday. Mr. Hodgson reports that a nephew from Babylon, Long Island, was killed in action on the French front in May, the first of several relatives in service to fall a victim to the ravages of war.

B. C. Gregory, once engaged in the meat market business in Colville, was back in the city, the first time in 13 years. Mr. Gregory remarked on the very generous advancement made by the city during his absence, almost the entire business district of Main street having been reconstructed in brick buildings, and the residence district having been extended far out to the hills. "You have one of the best towns in the Inland Empire," said Mr. Gregory, "and it looks like the men who have stayed with it have made good." He is now located at Quincy, Washington, but expects soon to go to Wyoming to engage in buying cattle for war contractors.

Dr. I. S. Clark returned Sunday to Colville after a trip to Camp Lewis and to Seattle. In Camp Lewis, with other examiners of men going into the service, Dr. Clark received more explicit instructions concerning such examinations. The physicians were called to the camp for this instruction because of the number of cases where defects were found after the men were across the water or in training. The methods of making examinations were demonstrated there. At Seattle Dr. Clark attended a tri-state meeting of the physicians.

Wednesday Curtis Clinton and Miss Winnie Dudley motored down to Okanogan and were married. The groom is the popular young mechanic who has been with the Kohrtd garage since the first of the year. His home is in Colville. The happy bride is well known in and around Chesaw and Molson, being a sister of Mrs. Chas. Petty, and has been employed in Molson much of last year. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton will spend a short honeymoon at Mr. Clinton's old home in Colville.—The Molson Leader.

A picnic supper and camp fire near Douglas Falls was enjoyed Sunday evening following the ball game by the following: Miss Bertha Gates, Miss Bernice Lee, Miss Nellie Artman, Miss Marie DeGrief, Miss Rose Scherfenburg, Miss Pauline Sloan, Miss Saluda Kildow, Miss Twila Craft, Miss Frances Robinson, Roy DeGrief, Emory Tremblay, Wesley Beaton, Earle Gates, Sergt. John May, Glenn Snoddy, John McKeown, Mark Sullivan, Edward Tremblay.

A. L. Ham has been wearing a black eye this week as a result of a piece of steel striking his left eye last Sunday. Dr. Henderson examined the wound and found that the steel had not penetrated the eye to any extent, but had bruised it under the lid.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Hobbs returned Sunday from a week's visit at the home of their son L. G. Hobbs at Rice.

C. T. Houtchens, who now resides on a ranch south of Deer Park, was a Colville visitor the first of the week.

The familiar face of James Hill is seen again in Colville after an absence of several months spent with his family touring the west in their car. They spent a few weeks in Seattle. Convinced that Colville is the best place yet, they are looking for a house here in which to make their home.

Bryant Stanton was an over-night guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. King the first of the week, his car having been disabled near Meyers Falls while he was on his way from Northport. He returned to his home at Chewelah by train, leaving the car at a local garage for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sill, Misses Minnie and Florence Sill were included in a party which went out to Pend Oreille lakes this week to spend a few days.

Sergeant John May, who has been home on a furlough, left Thursday for Junction City, where he is stationed.

A large crowd of Colville young people attended the dance given at the White Mud grange hall Saturday night for the benefit of a Belgian Relief fund. Auctioneer Duggy auctioned a number of miscellaneous articles, ice cream and soft drinks were sold during the evening, and a supper was served in the dining room, the proceeds going into the relief fund.

Subscribers to the Examiner should note the credit on their address, as showing when their subscriptions expire. In case of error, this office should be notified immediately. A notice of expiration will be sent to each subscriber either before the time is up or in the last issue, and renewals should be prompt in order not to miss any issues. All subscriptions expire with the date shown in connection with the address, and the Examiner follows the practice of all reputable publications in stopping at expiration.

Ward Hunt, eldest son of Col. and Mrs. Clair Hunt, and a former county stenographer who has recently been serving as a secretary to Senator W. L. Jones in Washington city, has enlisted in the 81st division and expects to be in France in a short time. He reported to Camp Upton July 16. Ever since the United States entered the war he has tried to enlist, but a broken wrist kept him out a long time. He finally passed the examination and received permission for immediate induction as a private in the 81st.

Judge J. Stanley Webster gave a patriotic address Monday evening at the courtroom, more than a hundred people being present to hear his magnificent address on Americanism and the war. Although Judge Webster is campaigning for the republican nomination for congressman, and was accompanied by his campaign manager C. C. Hart, he gave no hint in his address that he was looking for votes, and his able presentation of the war problems present and future thoroughly entitled him to an audience of all Colville. For years he has been noted as a fluent speaker, and has given several addresses in Colville where he has a host of friends, personal as well as political, but his efforts Monday evening exceeded anything he has previously given here.

The Colville Steam Laundry and the Chewelah Laundry Co. have combined their plants and will hereafter operate at Chewelah, all work for Colville and other towns of the county being handled through local agencies, or by parcel post in the case of smaller places. T. H. Palmer of the Colville laundry and A. L. Spray, who has been operating the Chewelah laundry will use the firm name of Palmer & Spray, and the plant name will be the Chewelah Laundry Co. The Colville machinery has been shipped to Chewelah this week, and the new plant will comprise a $10,000 outfit, in a building 50x100, with engine and boiler room in addition. It is believed that a better grade of work can be done with the soft water at Chewelah, and in a more economical manner by the consolidation of plants and business. An auto truck will be used to some extent in delivering work to Colville.

Archer R. Squire and Judge N. B. Wheeler of Kettle Falls drove over last Sunday to witness the ball game between Colville and Inchelium and made a detour of the country through Echo valley on their return home.

There will be no Red Cross work excepting on Monday afternoons until further notice, as the work has not arrived.

Roy Coon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Coon, left Thursday for Spokane to enlist in some branch of the service. Until a few days before this he was employed at Valley. He has been visiting his parents and his sister, Mrs. L. H. Rothlisberger, for several days.

Miss Ina McCaslin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCaslin, left Monday for Coeur d'Alene, where she has accepted a position.

Roland Dupuis enlisted in the coast artillery and left Colville Tuesday, July 16, for Fort Wright. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dupuis and was a student at the Colville high school.

Jack Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, left Colville Thursday for Seattle to enlist, expecting to enter the naval service.

Dan Fretwell of Meyers Falls was in town on business Tuesday.

Boyd McKern and Lou Wernli, two popular Colville boys, left Wednesday for Spokane to enlist in the navy.

Virginia, Martha and Alberta Dingle are the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. P. B. Dingle, at the Hotel Colville. Mr. and Mrs. William Dingle of Newport, are expected to arrive in a few days.

Miss Rose Scherfenburg, who has been employed in the Stevens county Abstract office, left for Spokane Thursday to be gone for an indefinite time.

TWO RUNAWAYS CAUSE SERIOUS INJURY MONDAY

Miss Cora Hunter, well known in Colville where she has taught school for some time, was thrown from the buggy and knocked unconscious when the horses she was driving ran away Monday afternoon. The accident occurred near the J. F. Golder place where she is staying.

Miss Hunter was driving home from the depot and the horses refused to be driven through the gate at Golder's, but ran on by. Miss Hunter was thrown out and was unconscious for about an hour and a half. Dr. Henderson was called and said that concussion of the brain had resulted. She is recovering nicely at present, although somewhat bruised from her fall.

Mrs. B. F. Reed was dragged for a considerable distance and suffered internal injuries and bruises, while Robert Hoffman, an employe of the Reed ranch, was also badly hurt, when the horses they were driving became frightened and ran away with them Monday evening. The mishap occurred about fifteen miles north of Colville on the Clugston creek road. This was the second run-away accident in the Colville vicinity that day.

It is thought that the horse became frightened by a cow. Huffman was thrown violently against a tree or some obstacle which struck his chest. Mrs. Reed was entangled in the buggy and trappings so that she was dragged a distance of probably 100 feet. Besides internal injuries and bruises, she suffered a cut which tore open about four by six inches on one leg. Huffman almost collapsed from heart failure during the trip to the hospital. Dr. Clark was called and the victims of the run-away were taken to the Colville General Hospital.
