

The Daisy Enterprise
A Chronicle of Events by our Local Correspondent

The annual roll call of the American Red Cross is near, beginning Nov. 2 to 11; you are earnestly urged by local chairman to renew your membership, which is $1. If not a member, become one. Remember the Red Cross belongs to all people.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hamilton will leave this week for California, where they expect to remain until spring.

Miss May Stalder of near Addy was the guest of Miss Walston on Saturday.

Mr. Lawson, Indian agent, stationed at Inchelium, is moving his family to Daisy. They will occupy the house which was formerly the home of Mr. Webb.

The weather still continues cold, any amount of apples and garden truck are still out, and unless milder weather favors us, the loss will be very severe.

The advanced grades of our public school are preparing a Halloween program for Friday afternoon.

Rev. Mumau and family, who have been living near Summit since coming to this circuit, are moving this week to the Free Methodist parsonage in Daisy.

In spite of the cold weather there was a big increase in attendance at Sunday school on International "Go to Sunday school" day. 70 were reported in attendance.

Clarence Kilgore left recently for Spokane seeking employment for winter.

WATERLOO AND MOUNTAIN VIEW NEWS ITEMS

Fred Green was up from Spokane last week looking after his corn crop on the Ford and Cahill ranches.

Mrs. S. Hofstetter went to Spokane last week Friday and returned home Wednesday.

The Chas. Countryman children have been having the chickenpox the past week.

Dr. Brandy sold his car to Geo. Koontz of Gifford.

Mr. Lewis moved his household goods to Addy Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will go to Oregon for the winter.

Tom Holford made a business trip to Colville Tuesday.

Mrs. Parks, sister-in-law of Mrs. Parks of Fruitland, is here visiting them.

Lloyd Lens and Miss Mamie Shaw of Colville were visitors at the V. Richie home Sunday.

The W. Gould family moved onto the Lewis ranch this week.

W. Compton has sold his ranch near Daisy to U. Eslick. Mr. and Mrs. Compton are going to California to live.

Miss Lillian Parks is very sick with tonsillitis at present writing.

Mrs. Chas. Countryman went to Colville Wednesday to see her sister Mrs. Lulu Huffman, who underwent an operation that day.

Summit Valley News
Miss Nathalie Noble, Representative

August Pearson has traded his Saxon Six for a Ford, which he thinks is the best car for this section after trying several others.

Ray Brooks took a load of sheep to Chewelah Wednesday.

The local telephone line is being moved to the state road and otherwise put in condition for winter. Messrs. Bone, Holford, Raber, Dennis and Wynne Wilson donated their work Tuesday and others are going to work Wednesday.

For Spirrella corsets and brassiers and World's Star Klean Knit underwear and hosiery, call by phone or mail or in person, on Amanda H. Growdon, Kettle Falls. Calls given prompt attention.

APPLES! APPLES! APPLES!

Orchard run Jonathan, Rome Beauty, 25c per box. Bring your boxes and fill them yourselves.—P. H. Briscoe, Meyers Falls, Wn.

SLAGLE'S DRUG STORE
Kettle Falls
Modern in all respects. Photographic supplies, soda fountain, and other side lines commonly found in drug stores.
J. E. SLAGLE, Proprietor

Columbia Valley Fruit and Produce Co.
CASH PAID FOR FRUITS OF ALL KINDS. CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY
Telephone KETTLE FALLS, WASH.

F. O. Lamoreaux, Pres. E. J. Kelley, Sec.-Treas S. L. Savage, Manager

George and Fred Pearson went to Chewelah Tuesday.

Leslie Smith autoed to Colville Monday on business.

Nicholas and Joseph Schmid have returned from Ward, where they have been working on the Mission farm for several months.

W. W. Bone has built a new house on his west eighty and will move into it this week.

A party of eight hunters chased a big cinnamon bear for four days, Charles Frisvold finally killing it Monday near Ole Johnson's farm.

F. B. Schmid went to town Tuesday with a load of cabbage.

George Pearson took his mother and sisters Esther and Lillian over to Inchelium Sunday to visit the family of his sister, Mrs. Skeels.

The ground here has been covered with about four inches of snow since last Wednesday, with freezing weather part of the time. Many apples are frozen on the trees and spoiled and only a few farmers had their potatoes dug.

A brother of J. O. Black has come to spend the winter with him.

John Raber and family have moved to the place he bought from Casperson, so as to be nearer school.

Not to be outdone by the hunters south of them, a party consisting of C. J. Honea, Creed Jennings, Fred Alley, Lonnie and R. E. Boyd, and A. E. Persson chased another big cinnamon bear over hill and dale Sunday and Monday and after firing eleven shots at it, killed it in the swamp southwest of Persson's house. It weighed 250 pounds.

J. O. Black and his brother were digging potatoes in the snow Monday.

John Forslund is helping J. J. Wyene dig ditches through his swamp this week.

Isaac Goff has opened a shoe repairing shop at his son's place and will do repair work of all kinds.

Items from Mingo

B. J. Markham and family left Tuesday for Portland, Oregon. They are making the trip overland in their Ford car.

Willie Waltenberg of Colville was visiting a few days this week with Volney Morton.

Aulmont Tye came up from Kettle Falls Friday to visit home folks.

J. M. Lohr is moving onto the B. J. Markham ranch, having leased it for a term of years.

One of our prominent bachelors has been purchasing quite a stock of household furniture. Get your bells and tin pans ready boys.

On Tuesday evening many friends and neighbors of Alex. McDonald gathered at his home to give him a farewell. At 10 o'clock a delicious lunch, consisting of cake, pie, sandwiches and coffee, was served, after which all departed feeling the evening had been well spent. Mr. McDonald is held in high esteem by his neighbors and all are sorry to have him go from among us.

Despite the unfavorable weather a large crowd attended the A. A. McDonald sale and everything sold for a good price.

W. Sellers and Fred Cooper are hauling straw from Marcus flat.

Mrs. Isabelle Cooper is home again after having spent some weeks visiting friends at Marcus.

Mrs. J. L. Taylor visited at Meyers Falls over Sunday with her daughters, Mesdames Will and George Miller.

Marcus Happenings
Reporting the Events of this Thriving Town

Mrs. J. H. Yarwood returned from Spokane Friday night where she had been called by the death of her mother.

A. Bergdahl has sold his ranch in Marcus and will go to Minnesota to reside indefinitely. All are sorry to lose good neighbors.

Mr. Sopha's new concrete building is nearing completion. It will be a fine building and add much to the appearance of the street.

Mrs. E. A. Holstein returned from the east, having been called there by the death of her mother.

A meeting was called by the school board and commercial club to consider the matter of building a gymnasium for the school. It proved to be a very enthusiastic meeting. It was decided to build a building that can be used for a hall when needed, and for any purpose for the good of the public. The building is to be commenced as soon as financial arrangements are made.

It is rumored that the railroad dispatchers who were sent away this fall are to be sent back in the near future.

Fine autumn weather. On Friday night a snowfall to the depth of two inches, which soon disappeared.

The new Marcus State Bank will open for business the coming week, Mr. Moore of Orient having arrived to manage the business.

The mill across the Columbia river owned by the Pine Lumber Co. of Spokane, and operated by McGinnis of Marcus, has shut down for the winter.

Mrs. A. W. Eastman and Mrs. N. P. Loveley made a business trip to Colville Saturday by train.

Miss Beatrice Applequist, of Marcus, enrolled at the Northwestern Business College, Spokane, October 28. Miss Applequist entered the stenographic department.

Addy Correspondence

Mrs. James Penny was called to Spokane recently owing to the serious illness of her brother-in-law Rev. Osborne.

The aid, owing to sickness in the Bone family, met at the church parlors and had a pleasant and profitable session. The guests for the day were the Rev. G. B. Harbison, Mrs. Williams and daughter from Chewelah, who had been in attendance at the Kettle Falls Sunday school convention and stopped on their way home.

Frank Frazier, a stock buyer, spent a night at the Ned Griffith home last week.

A moving picture show of good repute held forth at our Addy hall the greater part of the week, and had a good-house in general. A few days prior to this we had a couple of nights of vaudeville and ventriloquism for attractions which was good, but a separate show from the other.

Mrs. Winnie Sheets, who with her two children has been stopping a few days with relatives here, departed for her home in Marcus Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. H. Bell has sold his little ranch home on the eastern outskirts of Addy to Numa Jeanneret for a home, and report says they are going to the coast in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory have gotten nicely settled in their new home on Clay hill.

Every available dwelling house in Addy of any kind is at present occupied by some one who wishes to get in out of the cold during the winter months.

Rev. M. J. Perdue, the M. E. Sunday school conference superintendent, came up from his headquarters at Spokane to be present at the S. S. session, and visited each separate class giving kindly counsel and instruction and advanced some methods of interest along the line of teaching little ones.

Miss Frankie Willett came over from the Staunton school, where she is engaged in teaching, to spend over Sunday with the home folks.

Glen Marks of Bluecreek spent the Sabbath with friends in Addy.

Bill Wilson after spending the week end with the folks at home, returned to his school work in the Y. M. C. A. at Spokane.

Mrs. Keoner's boy Willie, came from Deer Park where he is employed by the lumber company, to spend the day with his mother.

The latter part of the week Mrs. Bone and little Dorothea went to Chewelah to visit with Mr. Bone, who is engaged in work there.

Frank Wines was an Addy guest for a day recently.

Young Mr. Browder killed a deer, so they say, on Sunday last.

Last week the children were lamenting because their teacher Miss Krause was going to resign her position in the public school here, but as Miss Pogue, the professor's sister, came to the rescue Sunday afternoon, the tumult soon quieted down. Miss Pogue is now installed in Miss Krause's place with entire satisfaction.

Mrs. Roy Wright and little ones visited at Arden Sunday.

Al Weatherman's brother-in-law, Mr. Dyer, has opened up a harness and shoe repairing shop in the old Skeels building opposite the post-office.

Jim Ricker and wife boarded the south bound train last Friday for Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. Frazier and three other cattle men spent Monday night at Ned Griffith's. Mr. Frazier shipped a car load of cattle from this point Tuesday afternoon to the Spokane market.

The residents of Addy were startled last week to hear that Fredrick Emde, aged 58, unmarried, living two miles out of town, had suddenly been called by death at his little ranch home, October 22. Fred Emde was born in Ohio and had been a resident of Stevens county about fourteen years. He leaves to mourn his loss a mother and one brother of Elgin, Nebraska, Mrs. Augusta Emde and Henry, four sisters Mrs. Bertha Seams of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Sophia Halstead of Albion, Nebraska; and Mrs. Mathilda

Hubert of near Addy. One sister and husband have arrived from the east and the funeral will be held from the M. E. church at Addy Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The remains are to be shipped to Elgin, Nebraska, for interment. He was an honest and upright citizen and as such will be missed in the community.

On Monday, Oct. 27, Willie, only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Harbison, until recent years residents of Addy, died of diabetes at the age of fourteen years. Funeral at Colville Friday.

On the afternoon of October 28, the stork came sailing o'er the town, and a little lad came fluttering down, weighing exactly seven pounds, and claims to be little Jack Dudley, and hopes we're not surprised at all because he's made his little call.

Meyers Falls Chronicle
Reporting the events about town

Mrs. A. L. Swanson, Representative

Last week we really and truly had a touch of winter, first a big wind and dust storm, then it changed to a beautiful white cover and has lasted this week. It makes one think "what have I done with my summer wages" and look in the trunks to see if there is anything left over from last year.

Last Thursday the men folks from Meyers Falls attended the sale at Mr. A. A. McDonald's. It was too wet for the women. Those who went said he had a fine crowd and things went for a good price.

Last Friday evening Greenwood had its regular meeting. There was a small attendance, but those present didn't forget to do their part. The lecturer had a program. Mrs. P. C. Page, master Mount Corbin grange and also manager of the grange warehouse. She is on the job in the little house next to the town hall. Grangers don't forget the place.

Mrs. S. T. Higginbotham and son Glen came up Friday night from Chewelah and stayed until Monday noon. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dowell, her mother and father.

Harry Norton is home now after working at Marcus all summer.

Frank Fedder has been here these cold days looking after his old place. Mr. Duncan isn't able to get his business settled and has been detained longer than he expected to be.

Ed. Swanson, brother of A. L. Swanson of Meyers Falls, has been here visiting for a few days before he goes to Nebraska to visit his mother and another brother. He returned to Spokane Tuesday afternoon.

Last week Miss Ida Curry, superintendent of the Congregational Sunday school; Mrs. Wm. Miller, teacher of the boys' class, Mrs. John Biddle and several others attended the Sunday school convention at Kettle Falls. All came home with many good points and hope to be able to use them in their next year's work.

Mrs. C. H. Gerking has a crew of men loading apples at Marcus.

Mrs. Anthony Schaff is at the General Hospital, where she was operated for appendicitis by Dr. Goetter. At last reports she was getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Lotting received the sad news of the death of a little grand-daughter in Butte, Montana.

The Meyers Falls school will give a program on the night before Thanksgiving. Don't forget to come for refreshments will be served and a small sum will be charged for same.

This has been a week of sadness at Meyers Falls. Monday Grandma Swartout died. Tuesday morning William Richardson passed away and at noon Jack Doyle departed to his creator. The community as a whole is sad.

Mary Rosalia Stanley was born Jan. 12, 1854. She was married in 1879 to Edwin A. Swartout and to this union two children were born, Clifford H. and Verne S., both now residents of Meyers Falls. Her husband was laid to rest 18 years ago. She had always been a devout Christian, active in Christian work, being a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for 25 years. She passed into the Great Beyond on Oct. 27, 1919, being 65 years, 9 months and 15 days old. Rev. Lamereaux of Kettle Falls officiated at the funeral. Mrs. F. Mark, Mrs. Chas. Keller and Rev. Lamereaux sang her favorite song. The pallbearers were: A. Branigan, H. Norton, A. W. Smith, Frd Abbott, J. B. Miller and A. L. Swanson. The Swartout families have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

John Doyle, a bachelor, aged 66, who has resided in Meyers Falls and vicinity since 1897, died of Bright's disease Wednesday at St. Luke's hospital, Spokane. Funeral will be at the Mission Sunday at 2. The deceased was a blacksmith by trade.

W. D. Richardson, electrician for a number of years at the United Copper mine, died at his home at Meyers Falls October 29, of cirrhosis of the liver. He was born at Ox-

Colville Theatre
H. D. Williams, Manager
Continous from 7:15 to 11

SUNDAY, Nov. 2—Triangle night featuring Roy Stewart in "Wolves of the Border." Irrigation, exasperation and guns. You remember Roy in the "Red Haired Cupid" well he is just as good in "Wolves of the Border." Also a two reel Keystone comedy "Great Vacuum Robbery" featuring Chas. Murray. Admission 15c & 25c.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, NOV. 3-4—Corle E. Carlton's super aerial photo drama "A ROMANCE OF THE AIR," featuring Lieut. Bert Hall and Edith Day. The story was inspired by the thrilling adventures of Lieut. Hall during his three years in service as a member of the famous Lafayette escadrille on and above three battle fronts. We will also show Pathe News and a 2-reel L-Ko comedy "All Jazzed Up." 15c and 30c.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5—Paramount night featuring Jack Pickford in "His Majesty, Bunker Bean." Napoleon was pretty raw in the eyes of the clerk who imagined himself a descendent of the Egyptian Pharaohs. He had a good idea though. It got him the money. Better see this picture. We will also show Pathe Review and Topics of the Day and a Luke comedy. 15c and 25c.

THURSDAY, Nov. 6—Metro night featuring HALE HAMILTON in "THE FOUR FLUSHER," a wonderful comedy drama, one you will all enjoy. Also Pathe Review and Topics of the Day and a 1-reel Luke comedy. Admission 15c and 25c.

FRIDAY, Nov. 7—Paramount night featuring dainty MARGUERITE CLARK in "OUT of a CLEAR SKY." Don't know how a Belgian treats a Hun? All right, don't believe it if you don't want to. Seeing is believing tho! Come and see for yourself. Also Pathe News and a 2-reel Big V Comedy. Admission 15c and 25c.

SATURDAY, Nov. 8—Metro night featuring VIOLA DANA in "SOME BRIDE." This is going to be some Komed night too, a comedy drama and 4 reels of comedy. Larry Seamon in "Dull Care" in 2 reels and a Mac Sennett comedy "The Crook." Admission, Matinee 5c and 20, night 15c and 30.

This is the footwear that saves you money

"BALL BAND"

We can show you how—and why. We have a large stock for you to choose from—everything from rubber boots and arctic to the famous "Ball-Band" Coon Tail Knit Boot, a boot that is actually knit, and not made of felt, thus insuring longer, warmer wear and service.

Look for the Red Ball

Then you're sure of getting "Ball-Band" quality. It pays to get the best quality in rubber footwear, because good quality gives more comfort and more days of wear. That is why we carry "Ball-Band." Come in and let us show you what this quality is.

Look for the Red Ball. You will find it on all "Ball-Band" footwear.

BARMANS, Inc. COLVILLE
Shoe Department Phone No. 395

ford, Nebraska, May 14, 1878. Besides his widow, he is survived by a son and daughter, Emanuel and Dorothy, both minors; by his parents; and by three brothers, George Richardson, of Wallace, Idaho; DeSoto Richardson, Riverside, Idaho; James E. Richardson, Kettle Falls. He had been a resident of Stevens county for 20 years. The funeral took place at Meyers Falls Thursday afternoon.

STANDARD LUMBER CAMP NORTHPORT

The ladies of the camp met at the home of Mrs. Freeborn Thursday afternoon and organized a needlework club. A delicious lunch was served. Those present were: Mrs. Swan, Mrs. Freeborn, Mary Snider, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Frank Swan of Spokane, and Mrs. McCormick.

Mrs. Frank Swan and son of Spokane, who have been visiting Mr. Swan's parents, returned to their home in Spokane Wednesday.

Mrs. Suiter has taken charge of the camp mail much to the satisfaction of the patrons.

Mary Snider was called home Monday by the death of her little sister Anna.

Mr. McCormick is building an addition to his house.

The nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Snider died Monday of pneumonia. Funeral services were held at Northport Thursday.

Miss Francis Flank visited at the home of Mrs. Chas. Lots Monday. Mrs. Freeborn spent Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Swan.

Mrs. Suiter and sons Dwain and Darrel visited Mrs. Thew Sunday evening.

Peter Flank was the guest of Donald and Leslie Thew Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Freeborn and Mrs. Thew spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sherman.

Mrs. L. S. Dillon is at the hospital in Colville, where she underwent a very delicate operation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Phipp transacted business in Northport Wednesday.

Mr. Shoot of Deer Park, owner of the lumber mill here, will spend a few days in camp with his son William.

Leonard and Stewart Brown of Meyers Falls visited at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Brown.

A. C. Harvey of Spokane is staying at the home of H. E. Phipps while cruising timber for Senator Phipps.

Mrs. Freeborn and Mrs. Thew were Sunday visitors at the Sherman home.

Mrs. Zema and Mrs. Suiter visited with Mrs. Anderson Wednesday.

School Notes

Lulu Phipps was on the sick list Tuesday.

Harold Nelson returned to his school duties Monday after an absence of five days.

There are seventeen pupils enrolled at Dist. 80.

Those who have been neither absent nor tardy the last month are: George and Claude Lotz, John Phipps, Glen Phipps, Lulu Phipps, Ila Phipps, Donald Thew, Leslie Thew, Myrtle Aleahire, Beygit Sundheim, Ramona Freeborn, John Lindsay.