Colville's first electric sign board made its appearance on Main street last week, having been installed by the Colville theatre for its own use. Electrically lighted signboards now form a most extensive means of advertising throughout the country, rental prices per space per month running from $125 up according to value of location, and many a modest home has given up its view in exchange for a monthly revenue from advertising agencies for use of sign space.

Raymond S. Scott visited Colville over Sunday, his first visit here since he left in his boyhood days in 1903. He is the son of James R. Scott, who made his home here in 1902-3 while contracting the Red Mountain road north from Northport. Raymond came up to Colville after attending the second annual convention of the American Legion in Spokane last week. He was in service 21 months, and spent 16 months in France.

The funeral of Mrs. Austruss Little Hendricks, aged 86 years, who died Sept. 3 at her home on 2nd and Maple, was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was in charge of Rev. Guy Denney at the Quinn W. McCord undertaking parlors. Interment was in Highland cemetery. Mrs. Hendricks has resided in Stevens county for eleven years and is survived by six sons and one daughter: James Hendricks, Wm. L. Hendricks and R. M. Hendricks, all of Colville; Chas. Hendricks, Deatur, Michigan; K. J. Hendricks, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; M. Hendricks, Antioch, California, and Mrs. Emma Winslow, Portland, Oregon.

A novel shower was given Miss Irene Seal last week Friday night by Mrs. Lloyd Dodson and Mrs. Earl J. Strong. An old wooden well covered with vines was featured in one corner of the dining room. The well was all there, including the pulley and the rope. The bride-to-be, instead of drawing up a bucket of water at the end of the rope, drew up a lovely piece of aluminum ware or some other article useful in culinary preparations, which had been picked out for her future use by thirty-five of her friends who were present. Some of her friends composed a song which they took much pleasure in singing for her.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Van Buren returned last Saturday from a few days trip to Spokane where they visited a sister from Montana who is now in Spokane.

Miss Edna Johnson left last Saturday for Spokane where she will enter the Northwestern Business College.

Mrs. Evelyn Andrews of Castle, B. C., arrived here last Friday for a short visit.

Colville has the pleasure of entertaining a distinguished visitor in the person of R. C. Lee, a brother of A. J. Lee, who arrived last Saturday for an extended visit. Last year for the first time in over thirty years he visited his brother here and liked the country so well that now inside of a year's time, he is returning for a longer visit in which it is expected that he will not only get better acquainted with his brother but also with the surrounding community. Mr. Lee has been head detective for the M. K. & T. railroad for a number of years, with headquarters in Kansas, but operating in Oklahoma much of the time.

Glady Rhodes and Esther Edmund left last Saturday for a ten days trip to Spokane, Cheney and Coeur d'Alene.

A shortage of water and not of gas was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Meyer of the Colville Piano House on their recent automobile trip to the coast. They were led to believe that there would be a shortage of gas, but between Spokane and Ellensburg they found gas stations in abundance, but many of the wells dry. After they reached the summit between Ellensburg and the coast, they stated that they were unable to make more than forty miles in a day due to the abundance of huckleberries, raspberries and other small fruit. They had a record trip as far as tire trouble is concerned, reporting only one puncture on a trip of nearly 2000 miles.

A jolly party of Colville young folks left by automobile last Saturday afternoon for Spokane and Liberty Lake for an outing. The following were members of the party: Ruth and Mary Mantz, Mildred Campbell, Helen Aston, Leo Schroeder, Clarence Dobson, Harry Jessop. Miss Mary Mantz, although accompanying the party from Colville, was bound for a house party at Newman lake.

Arthur W. Brownlow, who has been a job compositor in the Examiner office, left Wednesday for Moscow, Idaho, to work for the Moscow Publishing Co. Since about the first of the year he has been in Colville, but previous to 1917, he and his father W. H. Brownlow were connected with the Chewelah Independent.
