Kettle Falls News

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Greenwald, formerly of Kettle Falls, will be interested to learn that they are now in Los Angeles, Cal. The doctor was in the service three years, part of the time at Camp Lewis and later at Fort Apache, Ariz. He received his discharge in August and immediately after they motored to Col., where they visited Mrs. Greenwald's sister Mrs. J. V. McKeever of McKeever Springs, Col. Upon leaving there they continued through the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone park and from there to California, where the doctor expects to locate.

Clyde Ferguson spent the week end with Dwight Smith of Davenport.

Both Mr. and Mrs. D. Covington and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Francis are receiving congratulations on the birth of baby boys, born about two weeks ago.

H. G. Root of Spokane was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Heath last week.

Fred Sengfelder and A. Stutsman of Spokane were Kettle Falls visitors this week.

Ralph Lesh moved from the bench to his house in town Wednesday.

The bridge club met with Mrs. E. K. Jacobs Wednesday afternoon.

The social committee of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church invited their friends to a Halloween party last Friday evening. They met at the church and after that it was follow your leader through mysterious paths, over stepping stones through watery ways, up ladders, through barns and fields and back yards till they finally found themselves in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lamoreux in Bonneville where they were entertained with music and games, doughnuts and cider until a late hour.

S. L. Savage is driving his new Reo Six.

The ladies of the bridge club entertained their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Robertson entertained three tables of the Masons Widows Wednesday evening. Prize winners were Mrs. E. J. Kelley and Mrs. A. W. Smith. Ice cream and cake were served.

St. Peter's Church—Bishop Herman Page will hold services at Meyers Falls on Sunday afternoon, November 14, at 3:30. Services will also be held in the Masonic hall at Kettle Falls at 7:30 p. m. on Sunday, November 14. All are most cordially invited.—G. W. Severance, Dean.

For sale, cider press, two cross-cut saws, Iron Age cultivator, and wheel hoe. Address Mrs. A. M. Livermore, Kettle Falls.

Mrs. Karen Fogh has a complete line of fall and winter millinery made of all the latest materials and newest styles.

How Thoughtful

Little Edna (seeing mother's new evening dress, just arrived)—"Oh, mamma, how lovely! Will you wear it tonight?"

Mother—"No, dear, not tonight. This is for when ladies and gentlemen come to dinner."

Edna—"Oh, mamma, let's pretend just for once that papa's a gentleman"

Kettle Falls News

L. M. Smith crated and delivered at Meyers Falls this week the fixtures from McKoy's store for the Spokane Merchant's Association.

Bryan Summers of Tella is visiting his brother C. S. Summers.

Chas. Holford is delivering rural mail while C. S. Summers is taking his vacation.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday school with a number of friends, on last Friday evening motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Stewart Sr. and held their business meeting. After all business had been transacted the hostess served a delicious luncheon. Everyone enjoyed the evening and are hoping that our superintendent can plan a few more trips like this one.

Clyde Mumau and family of Pene-wawa are visitors at the home of their parents Rev. Mumau and wife.

West Side, Addy

Frank and Louis Hoegerl returned Thursday from a trip to Spokane.

Glenn Singer has come home from Molson, where he spent part of the summer.

Muiss Schmitt has traded his farm just west of Addy for a $17,000 farm near Medical Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Willis attended the Halloween party in Addy Friday evening.

A large crowd attended the community social at the school house on Saturday evening. Visitors were present from Summit Valley, Addy, Marble Valley and Sunnyside. The rooms were decorated with festoons of black and yellow crepe paper, and swarms of black cats. An excellent Halloween program consisting of songs, drills, recitations, dialogues and various stunts was prepared by the teacher Mrs. Harry Noble. The pie eating contest was won by Louis Hoegerl in forty seconds. The cracker relay race was won by Adelbert Toepel, Louis Hoegerl and Will Zbinden. This was one of the funniest events of the evening. There were three contestants on each side and each one was given a graham cracker. When the first one on each side had eaten it he whistled and not till then could the second one start. When the second one ate his cracker and whistled, the third one could start. If you think it was easy, just try it. The prize for the most popular young lady was awarded to Miss Leona McMurry and the men's contest was won by E. F. Kemmerer with Al Weatherman a close second. The proceeds of the evening amounted to thirty-one dollars and will be used for the benefit of the school.

Summit Valley News

Miss Nathalie Noble, Representative

Stanley Brickett has gone to Spokane to attend high school.

Isaac Goff shoemaker in Addy, came out Saturday to visit his son Arthur.

The masquerade ball at the Gifford hall Saturday evening attracted a large crowd from Spokane, Addy, and other nearby places.

Miss Kathryn Timmel has returned from Davenport.

John Hoegerl of West Side motored out to Schmid's and Garthe's Sunday.

Frank Riese Jr. and Ben Cottman helped George Hague dig potatoes last week. On Friday they dug inne tons, using a potato digger, of course.

Mrs. Carmichael and Miss Davis entertained their pupils at a Halloween social Friday evening at Summit school.

Mr. Christopher entertained a number of friends at a Halloween party in celebration of his seventeenth birthday anniversary.

H. J. Noble and his daughter Nathalie attended the Halloween social at West Side school Saturday evening.

Mrs. Catherine Cottman is visiting her daughter Mrs. Allie DeGross in Bovill, Idaho.

Nels Hoel and Miss Vernice Rounds were married in Colville last Wednesday evening. On Saturday evening a crowd of ex-soldiers and other friends assembled and gave them a charivari.

Percy Ball and his son Mead took a load of potatoes to town Saturday.

John Eichstadt of Kiona visited friends here last week.

The Gabalots club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Noble Sunday for dinner. Covers were laid for twenty-one.

Frank Riese junior and Will Cottman are helping Mr. Hague dig potatoes.

Mrs. Bjerke and son Walter of Arden are working for Mr. Duffy.

Mrs. A. L. Swanson, Representative

Meyers Falls Congregational Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Vern Swartout for a social and business meeting last Thursday. It was a fine day and there was a very good attendance. After the business meeting was over the rest of the afternoon was spent in chatting and fancy work. A little after four Mesdames Spencer, Thomas and Swartout served the ladies with sugared doughnuts and fine coffee. The ladies will meet at the home of the president Mrs. A. L. Swanson for an all day session Nov. 18. There will be a pitch-in dinner at noon. The afternoon will be spent in marking and looking at the things we have prepared for our Christmas sale.

The Halloween social given by Greenwood grange last Saturday was a success in every way. The program was fine. The fortune teller ran out of fortunes too soon. The fortune cakes almost lasted the evening. Had fine apple cider which Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright had made, and pumpkin pies, all the ginger bread we could eat. We had plenty of time to rub elbows with our neighbors and friends. We need more of these socials so we can get acquainted with the people who live in the community. Don't see why our rural districts can't have as much fun as city people. If we want to try we can succeed.

Miss Mildred Fish was up to the Halloween social and spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Stephenson's. Miss Florence came up to spend Sunday.

Sunday school as usual at 10:30. You had better go next Sunday they need you.

Don't forget the grange dance at the grange hall in Meyers Falls Nov. 6. Marcus music.

Mrs. Ada Brown and daughter were dinner guests at Riverview farm Saturday evening. Then after supper they went to Meyers Falls to the social. Mrs. Brown is mighty happy for she is soon going to take a journey to her old home state, Kentucky. In the spring she and her daughter plan to return to the Greenwood home again. Her many friends will miss her sunny disposition.

Don't forget that Nov. 14 G. W. Severance, dean, and Bishop Herman Page of Spokane will hold services at Meyers Falls Congregational church at 3:30. Don't forget to come.

South Basin News

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kimball and Emery Connors and family were week end guests of former neighbors and friends. They motored up from Valley, where they have recently located.

The P. I. Club gave a surprise party Saturday evening at the home of N. J. Pearson. It was in honor of E. B. Christian and family, in the event of their leaving soon for their ranch east of Colville. The occasion was livened by a Halloween form of entertainment, decorations and amusing games. Spooks and witches roamed through the spacious rooms working their wiles on unsuspecting guests, and dimly lighted candles lent their solemn glow. The long porches were hung with the jolly pumpkin lanterns. An appropriate centerpiece for the dining table was a young "roast pig" decorated with an apple in its mouth and surrounded with baked apples, little cottage cheeses, onions, etc., bordered with green parsley and Oregon grapes. It was the culinary art of Mrs. Ralph Young. After refreshments were served the old friends and associates spent an enjoyable hour at the piano, singing together once more the old time songs. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames Lew Wilson and family, Ralph Young and daughter May, Orser, Ray Hall and family, O. M. McDonald and family, Brainian, C. Kimball, Jno. Larson and family, E. Connors and family, N. J. Pearson and family, Geo. Noah, E. B. Christian, Mrs. Jno. Griesmeyer, and Messrs Ray Williams, Myron Williams, Forrest Orser, Wm. Griesmeyer, Horton Christian, Victor Pearson, Wesley McDonald, Ivan Little, Jno. Williams, Sidney Pearson, Melvin Pearson. The next meeting of the club will be held at Mrs. Jno. Norton's Wednesday, Nov. 10. It will be specially a Red Cross meeting. All are especially requested to be present and renew your Red Cross membership as the roll call this year is Nov. 11. Bring your dollar and help out the soliciting committee.

Waterloo — Mountain View

F. Braden took a truck load of hogs to Spokane last Friday.

Mrs. Pauline Potts left for Idaho last Wednesday where she expects to spend the winter.

Ernie Perry was in the Waterloo neighborhood last Saturday.

W. Hofstetter and Al Potts went hunting on Dunn mountain Sunday.

Mrs. Bruce Tucker of Spokane is visiting this week at the I. Laser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Countryman are visiting at the home of his mother Mrs. Chas. Countryman.

Chas. Holford is carrying the mail for Mr. Summers.

The ranchers of Waterloo have purchased a threshing machine and threshing is in full swing in our vicinity now.

The News of Greenwood

Ada M. Brown, Representative

Greenwood was well represented at Meyers Falls Saturday evening when the grange gave their Halloween entertainment. It was a most enjoyable affair. The grange ladies worked long and late to decorate the hall and get the booths in order. We understand it was a success financially as well.

Miss Catherine Cottman and her pupils have been holding a miniature agricultural fair at Greenwood school house, the vegetables being brought from the various homes represented at school. The average weight of the potatoes brought was two pounds. Marjorie Rose brought the largest one which weighed three and three fourths pounds. From Evergreen ranch Alice and Susan Wright brought squash, turnips and rutabaga weighing respectively seventeen, five and four pounds. Harvey Jones brought the largest pumpkin, nineteen pounds, and the largest sunflower, measuring sixteen inches in diameter. Clark Lynn brought the largest carrot, three pounds. The best field corn was brought by Oscar Nelson, the best red corn by Ernest Zurbrugg and the best popcorn by Alice Wright.

A number of the children had gardens of their own. Among these were Alice Wright, who raised the largest cabbage and the best tomatoes; Harvey Jones the best carrots and onions; Patrick and William Powers, who raised some two pound potatoes; and Howard Goede, who had an apple from his own apple tree.

The new pupils in school from the Cress family who have lately moved to Woodland-Meadows are Irene, Beatrice, Harry and Earl.

Nearly all the pupils received certificates of award for perfect attendance. The percentage of attendance for the last month was 98.2.

The highest average in spelling for last month was obtained again by Letty Jones.

Marguerite Brown obtained the highest mark in the speaking contest given last Friday by the pupils of the school.

"The surest thing." All Greenwood went over to Meyers Falls Tuesday and voted.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Walston, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Leithead of Colville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon and Frank Jr. of Bellavista ranch and Miss Lottie Walston of Cresco ranch were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Walston at Pleasantview ranch Sunday.

The Bender well which Alex Thomas of Colville sunk last week now has thirty feet of water in it and at that a place where "everybody" said you could not get water at all. If thirty-five or six feet of water is not enough for anybody just tell us what is.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bender motored to Colville Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Brown.

G. C. Walston was in Colville on business Wednesday.

Miss Pansy McLaughy, who is attending the Kettle Falls high school, spends the week end with her father and brothers at The Elms.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zurbrugg and son Harold of Hillyard motored up Sunday to spend the week with Mr. Zurbrugg's parents at Wildrose ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walston, Mr. Walston's mother and brother motored down to Kettle falls Sunday and after a view of the falls went for a visit with the Lameroux family.

Mrs. Edward Zurbrugg motored over to Meyers Falls for a visit with Mrs. M. D. Spencer Tuesday.

A few more attended Sunday school last Sunday; but we did not see you there. Come Sunday and help swell the crowd.

The Tale of a Shirt.

A torn shirt was produced as evidence in a case which came up in the police court not very long ago, when an American judge whose native tongue is English heard the tale of the shirt from a Filipino brand of American whose native tongue is Spanish, through an interpreter whose native tongue is also Spanish, but who understands English well enough to explain that his countryman's shirt was torn in a "pillkier over one pants" and had disappeared from his laundry. The defendant was a Chinese laundryman who claimed through an interpreter whose native tongue is also Chinese, but who understands English sufficiently to explain that the Filipino had accepted the laundry on Sunday only to return on Monday to pick a fight over the alleged disappearance of his "one pants." The laundryman was defended by a lawyer of Chinese blood who speaks English like a native of the states.—Pacific Commercial Advertiser, Honolulu.

Highest Type of Joy.

There's no joy superior to that of rising above what the community predicts for you. Yet every man has it in him to be infinitely above what others think possible. Hidden deep in every man are the unseen personalities waiting for the touch of occasion to call them forth. They respond as a matter of growth and then only to answer a recognized need. As the mind is urged to finer discriminations it learns to weigh more subtle arguments. As the heart is taught to feel the cry of another's sorrow it develops larger capacity to enter into the finer feelings of the human soul. It is all a matter of human and divine laws. He who permits himself to develop his best becomes the man of the hour in time of need. He rises on the strength of his trained personality. —Exchange.

NOTICE OF WATER RIGHT APPLICATION

State of Washington, office of hydraulic engineer, Olympia. Notice is hereby given that Edward Feulner of Leadpoint, county of Stevens, state of Washington, under date of July 1, 1920, filed with the state hydraulic engineer, Olympia, Washington, an application for a permit to divert the public waters of Silver creek, tributary of Deep lake, in an amount of one second foot, subject to existing rights, continuously each year for the purpose of domestic, irrigation and power.

The approximate point of diversion is located in NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of section 11, township 39 north, range 41 E. W. 34. A map showing the location and dimensions of said canal, and the place of the proposed diversion and use is on file in the office of the state hydraulic engineer, Olympia, Washington, together with such other information as is required by law.

Any person, firm or corporation whose right will be injuriously affected by the said application may file with the state hydraulic engineer, at Olympia, Washington, such objections or representations, in writing, as he may desire to make, within thirty (30) days after date of publication.

Witness my hand and official seal this 14th day of October, A. D., 1920.

MARVIN CHASE,
State Hydraulic Engineer.

ORDINANCE NO. 145.

An Ordinance Relating to Streets and Highways in the City of Colville, Providing for the Protection and Preservation Thereof, and Regulating the Operation of Vehicles Thereon, and the Load and Speed Thereof, Providing Penalties, and Keeping All Ordinances and Parts of Ordinances in Conflict Herewith.

The city council of the city of Colville, Washington, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate upon any of the paved streets of the city of Colville any vehicle, whether horse drawn or motor driven, if the combined weight of such vehicle and its load shall be in excess of eight (8) tons; provided, however, that if a trailer be attached to any such vehicle, no additional weight shall be permitted for such trailer and its load.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate any horse drawn or motor driven vehicle upon any of the paved streets of the city of Colville at a speed in excess of that herein designated, to-wit:

When the combined weight of the vehicle and its load exceeds five (5) tons, six (6) miles per hour.

When the combined weight of the vehicle and its load exceeds three and one-half (3 1/2) tons, and under five (5) tons, eight (8) miles per hour.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate upon any of the paved streets of the city of Colville any vehicle or object, which, with or without its load, shall be of such weight, or shall have any shape, or be so constructed, formed or shaped, or so equipped with spikes, cleats, lugs, or chains or other attachments or projections, as to destroy, or tend to destroy, or injure, any such street, or the surface, foundation or other part thereof.

Section 4. Every person in charge of any horse drawn or motor driven vehicle upon any paved street or highway of the city of Colville shall, upon demand of any police officer of the city, forthwith convey such vehicle, together with the load thereon, to some weighing scales of proper capacity, as near as practicable to the place where such ascertainment of the gross weight thereof, and failure to comply with such demand shall be prima facie evidence that said vehicle with its load is in excess of the weight permitted by section 1 of this ordinance, and shall further be prima facie evidence that said vehicle and its load exceeded the weight and speed per hour permitted by section 2 of this ordinance.

Section 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 7. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Passed first reading the 19th day of October, 1920.

Passed second reading and placed upon final passage and duly passed, the 24 day of November, 1920.

Approved by the mayor the 24 day of November, 1920.

W. G. HARTWELL, Mayor.

Attest:
J. H. KING, City Clerk.

First publications,
November 4-6, 1920.

Can There Be Thought Without Brain?

Most of the scientists agree that there can be no thought without a living brain, yet some of the best scholars argue that before the appearance of man, nature was far more intelligent than we are at the present day, and from a logical standpoint it seems reasonable to suppose they are right. No machinery created by man ever worked half so perfectly as the planets of our solar system as they rush over their orbits around the sun. In the forests of our globe nature has achieved the most marvelous inventions in the way of plants, animals and insects. The laws of gravitation, attraction and repulsion, and the phenomena of life and death are beyond the comprehension of man, yet they are manifestations of an intelligence far superior to the workings of any human brain. The creation of man and the workings of his brain should, alone, be sufficient evidence of pre-existent thought.

Ancient Nuremberg Token.

Crushed and battered, a rare coin has been discovered in a garden at Llanvair, a village near the Roman city of Caerwent, midway between Chepstow and Newport. It has proved, after careful examination, to be a Nuremberg token, and was minted in 1540 by Christopher Schutz (who was born at Annaberg), at Tintern, where a few years previously the monks had been driven out. Schutz found the mill ponds and fish ponds left by the monks ready to his hand; from the forest of Dean he obtained bar iron and wood for charcoal from the forest of Westford, which is in the neighborhood of Llanvair. Cases are on record of Nuremberg coins having been discovered in London, and as far north as Lincoln, but this is the first instance of such a coin token being found in the western counties or in south Wales.—London Times.

"March Dust" and "King Ransom."

"March dust," for which farmers have vainly plied amid the recent bleak rain, snow and sleet, is a most coveted commodity, of which in different countries a "peck" or a "bushel" is said to be "worth a king's ransom," writes a correspondent from England. The proverbial dates, I am assured, from Saxon days, when murders could be expiated by fines on a sliding scale, which in the case of a king might vary from $100 to $300—huge indemnities for that period! But the saying probably enshrines some dim, subconscious memory of the crushing taxation imposed on the English people to pay the heavy ransom for Richard Coeur de Lion, who had been "interred" on his way home from the Crusades by the medieval predecessors of our late enemies.

Easy Road Seidem.

Not one in a thousand can stand the pain of a thorough preparation for the sort of career he would like. Nearly all take the easy road which the multitude travel, writes Orison Swett Marden in the Chicago Daily News. But most people prefer the smaller, the inferior thing that is right in sight and can be had with little or no preparation, to the bigger, grander thing that can be reached only by hard work and a lot of self-sacrifice. And in middle life, when they find themselves plodding along in mediocrity or galling poverty, many of those men and women who would not in youth pay the price for the bigger thing which they would like to have, grumble at their hard luck and cannot understand how other people can have so much more than they have!

The First Playing Cards.

Early playing cards were called tarots or tarocchi. They differed a good deal in various localities. Packs closely resembling them are found today in parts of Germany and Switzerland which are not much frequented by travelers. In cards of this kind the emblem of death is numbered 13. The notion of bad luck attached to that number is of oriental origin. A tradition relates that a Venetian, perhaps Marco Polo, or his father Niccolo, first brought cards from China to his native city, Venice, Italy, which is the first place in Europe where they were known.

Hare Makes Intelligent Pet.

Mr. Edgar Wright, living at Sutton Bridge, Lincolnshire, England, has a hare which he has tamed and taught to play a tambourine and turn a wheel. He caught it on a farm when only two days old, and fed it with a spoon until it was able to feed itself. Its queer antics about the house led to its being trained, and it will now tap the tambourine with its forepaws as often as it is asked. It stands on its hind legs to turn the wheel. After it has done its "turn" it returns to Mr. Wright, and either nestles down to rest or climbs about him, after the manner of a kitten.

Polishing Powder for Glass.

A polishing powder for glass may be made by rubbing down calcined magnesia with pure benzine until a mass is formed sufficiently soft to allow drops to be pressed out of it. The mixture should be kept in closely stoppered glass bottles to retain the very volatile benzine. A little should be placed on a pad of wadding or cotton and the glass rubbed with it.

The Usual Result.

The main reason why
