NEWS IN COLVILLE

Any person who will do the city council a favor who will report the name (so it can be proved) of any one dumping tin cans or rubbish on city streets or anywhere within the city limits.

Osee Noble Jr. left Thursday afternoon for Wenatchee, where he will make apple boxes. He drove down in his Ford "bug."

Claude and Jesse Casey will leave tomorrow for Seattle, where they will attend the merchants convention.

O. N. Bell and County Supt. of Schools W. O. Cummings made a trip to Chewelah Thursday.

Ed. Hobbs of East Beach avenue has begun the repairing of his home which was partially destroyed by fire July 4.

Miss Lillian Boyce, former teacher in the Colville schools, died last Saturday at the Sacred Heart hospital in Spokane, aged 32. Her home was at Lind. The body was cremated in Spokane on Monday.

The excavation for the Old Dominion creamery building which is being constructed just north of the one used at present is progressing rapidly and erection of the building will soon commence.

Ted Emery arrived in Colville Sunday to spend his vacation. He has been attending the dental college in Portland and has two more years there before he will graduate. He spent the first few weeks of his vacation in the officers training camp at Camp Lewis.

Jesse Casey is building a home on North Elm street, between his father's residence and the Congregational parsonage. The house will be 26x36 feet, being the same length as his father's house. A half basement 12x36 is being built under the back part of the house. The carpenter work will all be handled under contract, Jesse furnishing the material. He will also have the cement poured by day labor.

C. J. Rider, evangelist in the work of the Adventist church, is here with a possibility of staying this summer. He and Mr. Freemantle built the Adventist church in Colville in 1904, after holding a tent effort. There were originally 5 Adventist members in Colville, and 12 came to the work as a result of the tent meetings. After the church was built, Mr. Rider went to Spokane and British Columbia and has done evangelistic work throughout the northwest.

Culver & Richardson have had a crew of men busy most of the week putting up awnings in front of their garage, and hanging electric signs over the sidewalk. One of the signs is the large type "garage" sign with the illumination coming from the inside. The other is an enormous electric sign with colored lights advertising the Kelly-Springfield truck tires, for which they are the local agents. There are only three of these signs in Washington, one in Seattle, one in Spokane, and the other in Colville. The sign, it is said, costs $500 at the factory.

A party of the Colville young folks left Colville Saturday evening and motored to Metaline Falls. Sunday was spent in hiking and enjoying the cool atmosphere far from the blistering streets of Colville. The evening the party arrived, two cub bears were caught, and the third member of the family was captured early next morning, but they saw nothing of the old bear. Those who made the trip are of the belief that it would be an ideal place for those people who cannot sleep during a warm night to spend the summer. As a matter of fact the night was so cold that none of them were able to sleep. Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Sid E. Barnes, Misses Grace Barnes, Betty Barnes, Dorothy Dexter, Molly Graham, Bertha Gates, Bernice Lee, Beatrice Lee, Twila Craft, Bertha Williams, Messrs. Earl Gates, Glen Snoddy, Dewey Sill, Walter Myers.

To Lose Two Trains

Beginning Friday morning the Great Northern cut the passenger train service to one train a day each way. The morning and evening train are taken off. The northbound is due at 12:10, and the south bound at 1:50. It is not known how long this condition will remain. D. H. Parsons added another stage to his line the same morning to take care of the excess number of passengers.

The G. N. afternoon southbound will stop at all sidings and cream stations to pick up express and passengers.

Death of Mrs. Noe

Mrs. Carrie (Keller) Noe died early yesterday morning, at the age of 70 years. She was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, and came to Colville three years ago after the death of her mother in Ohio. She leaves two daughters, Miss Edna Noe, former Colville teacher, now teaching at Seattle; Mrs. Sidney Faulkner, whose husband is spending the summer at Cheney before coming to Addy to take charge of the Addy schools; Walter Noe, of Cincinnati; Charles Noe, with the Keller Hardware Co. of Colville for a number of years. Deceased leaves three brothers, G. A. Keller of Dekatur, Illinois; J. C. Keller of Spokane; L. E. Keller, who is spending much of his time with his sons Robert at Addy and Louis G. and Wm. C. at Colville. Funeral arrangements have not been made, but the body will probably be interred in the family lot in Cincinnati.

Mrs. E. C. Conner remains seriously ill at her home, with little change in her condition.

Hugh McMillan, who was visiting here for a few days last week, left last Friday for Seaside, Louisiana, where he is superintendent of construction for the Humble Refining Co.

Mrs. Mabel Tucker is in the Mt. Carmel hospital convalescing from an operation recently performed.

Culver & Richardson made delivery of a Dodge car with a wire screen mercantile body, Monday. The car is to be used on the stage line near Daisy.

John Smith, a farmer from Ferry county, died at the Mt. Carmel hospital Monday morning as a result of appendicitis. Mr. Smith was 22 years old, and was born in Colville, having spent his entire life in Stevens and Ferry counties. He has been engaged in farming near Meteor for several years. Burial was in Inchelium Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rioth, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dupuis, Theron Lynch, Ethel Kelley of Kettle Falls, Velma Foster and Charles Montgomery motored to Lake Christina Saturday evening. They attended a dance there Saturday night, and Theron Lynch and Miss Kelley assisted with the music. Boating and bathing were enjoyed to the fullest extent Sunday. The party returned Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Giberson of Rice are the proud parents of a daughter, Ollie Jean, born July 10. Mrs. Giberson is a daughter of George W. Bryant of Rice.

Mrs. H. L. Hatch of Orient brought her little son Raymond to Colville for a throat operation this week.

Mrs. M. R. Strong entertained a few ladies at her home Wednesday evening. Bridge was played at three tables, prizes going to Mrs. Grover Graham and Mrs. L. E. Jesseph. Light refreshments were served.

George Seal, C. F. Corbett, J. H. Loucks and Mr. Jones of New York, made a trip to the Daisy mine Wednesday.

The Knights of Pythias picnic at the park on the Little Pend Oreille near Arden on Thursday drew more than 200 Knights and members of their families. The picnic dinner was served cafeteria style at 6:30, in charge of Chancellor Commander W. W. Campbell, Dr. P. H. Johnson, B. W. Emery, A. C. Douglass, Mrs. Lillian Rice and Mrs. W. H. Jackson. Lemonade, ice cream and coffee were there in abundance. Many people enjoyed the swimming above the dam, the water being about 70 degrees temperature. Dancing in the new pavilion was enjoyed in the evening, interspersed with short program numbers.

Milo Shipley, who occupies the third chair in the Scherette barber shop, suffered a severe injury to the knee Sunday when Eddie, another barber, ran over his leg with his car. Mr. Shipley attempted to "jump" the car while it was in motion, but missing, slipped under the rear wheel.

Fresh Vegetables In

Colville's first cucumbers this season were reported from the garden of Mrs. Paul LaPlant.

The Colville markets are being supplied with home grown cauliflower and cabbage by L. M. McFarland from his ranch on Marcus flat.

Harvey Skeels Hurt

Harvey Skeels, popular Jersey breeder in Marble Valley, suffered severe bruises from one of his purebred Jersey bulls last week, and is slowly recovering. An X-ray plate taken in Colville this week shows that one of the parts of the second vertebra of the neck is fractured in such a way that it causes trouble only in producing a very tender neck.

Wind Lifts Shed Roof

Last week W. R. Phillips residing 8 1/2 miles south of Colville noticed a large whirlwind approaching his property at a rapid rate, which for a few seconds appeared to be a young cyclone. A shed, 20 by 35 feet was relieved of its roof, which was lifted bodily for about 4 feet straight up into the air, held there for a second then dropped to the ground. The wind then passed further, tearing up strawstacks and fences. The roof just mentioned above weighs approximately two tons.

E. E. Latson, an employee of the Robbins Lumber company, has been nursing a badly infected finger as a result of getting it bruised while working.

John Lind of near Colville is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis performed recently in the Mt. Carmel hospital.

Jack Pond is convalescing at his mother's residence on South Main from an operation for removal of tonsils the 19th.

O. N. Bell of the Colville Land Co. has been in Spokane on business this week.

Mrs. Hattie Clinton left Tuesday for Fellows, California.

Gust Johnson and Mrs. Emily Johnson both of Northport, were united in marriage at the Congregational parsonage Monday morning. The couple called at the parsonage before Rev. J. M. Huggins had finished his breakfast, and the ceremony was performed immediately.

Mrs. W. U. McNeil of Bossburg was in Colville a couple of days this week to have an operation on her nose and throat.

Mrs. Henry Grinnell of Summit Valley one day last week momentarily assisted with having operations and had a finger of her right hand caught in a pulley containing a large wire cable. The finger was badly lacerated almost to the degree necessary for its removal. At the present time it is sure that the finger will be saved.

Local bankers have received notice that beginning August 1, the government of the Dominion of Canada will place a tax on all checks and drafts payable within three days or on sight. It is in the form of a stamp tax at the rate of two cents on every fifty dollars or fraction thereof up to $5,000, the maximum tax being $2. Therefore it will be necessary for them to deduct the amount of the tax from all checks and drafts of this nature.

T. Wood, on Route 1, suffered a painful accident while alighting from a hack. The thumb of his right hand caught in the iron brace at the end of the seat in such a way that as he stepped to the ground he was hanging by the thumb, which was partly torn from the hand and the bone badly broken. A successful effort is being made to save the injured member.

Mrs. Geo. W. Peddycoord, who is visiting her daughter at Pueblo, Colorado, writes that she had her tonsils removed Wednesday and that she is getting along fine. She reports that the thermometer registers from 110 to 120 in the shade at Pueblo. She expects to start for her home next week.

O. P. Wiltermood, who completed the subcontract on the Inland Empire highway south of Colville, and who left here May 11 for Spokane and Coulee City, arrived in Colville Tuesday. While at Coulee City his eyes were injured and he was taken to a Spokane hospital June 15, and has been there under the care of a physician until Monday. His sight is still impaired. Mr. Wiltermood expects to be here for a few weeks, and will return to his work at Coulee City.

Mrs. D. P. Westad of near Northport underwent a complicated operation at Mt. Carmel hospital the 18th, and is doing nicely.

Funds of Senior Class Used for School Pictures

Some of the money which was left to the high school by the senior class this spring is being used to frame the pictures at the high school, which have not previously been framed. The money is used to purchase picture glass, old lumber at the manual training building is being used for the frames, and H. A. Scarborough is doing the work.

It has been the custom for each graduating class to leave a legacy to the school in the form of some permanent useful or ornamental article. The class two years ago presented the high school with a statue and a picture in relief. Last year the class left a large size picture of the entire class, and about $40 to be applied on the motion picture debt. But because of several bills which the class had overlooked at the last minute the entire amount was consumed and none of the fund was applied toward the machine.

This year the class left its total assets to the high school in a lump sum, giving the students the privilege of doing whatever they thought best with it, but requesting that a part of the sum be used to frame some of the pictures, which is being done. As no debts were left by the class a neat sum will be in the student treasury next fall to begin the year with.

Institute New Plan for Athletic Equipment

The Colville high school is getting considerable new athletic equipment this year. New football suits, head-gears, shoulder pads, etc. are ordered and will be delivered in the fall. Two new basket balls have already arrived.

A new system of keeping track of the athletic equipment will be tried this year. When the suits are issued to the players at the beginning of the season, each player will sign an agreement to return the same amount of equipment at the end of the season. In case any article is not returned, the one to whom it was issued will be held responsible and required to pay for it. The value of the different things will be figured in the following manner. If it originally cost $6 and under ordinary circumstances would last three years, it is figured to depreciate $2 in value each year. That is, if it is new when issued to the player, he will be charged $6 in case he fails to return it. If it is a year old the charge would be $4 and if two years old $2. After the normal length of time such article should last, if it is still in use, a standard nominal charge will be made. It is believed that this plan will cause the students to be more careful and that equipment will last longer in this way.

Another plan which was adopted last year, and will be enforced this year, is the replacement system of buying athletic equipment. When one article is no longer fit to use, another will be bought to take its place, instead of waiting until all equipment needs to be replaced and buying it all at once. This happened last year. About $270 worth of athletic goods had to be bought in the fall, besides that which was replaced during the winter, and this placed an unusual burden upon the school.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. Four Weeks Auto Tour Enjoyed in the Northwest

Mrs. L. Dannheiser and children and Howard Casey returned Monday from a four weeks tour, including in their trip parts of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. They left Colville the 18th of June and motored to Spokane that day. From Spokane they drove to Ellensburg, where the second night was spent. The third day saw them in Seattle. Mrs. Dannheiser visited with friends and relatives in Seattle, while Howard attended the Congress of Boys at the Moran school for boys on Bainbridge island.

About sixty boys attended the congress, coming from all parts of the state. Leaders were elected for the different groups of boys, and contests and games were played between the different groups. A regular routine of activities was planned by those in charge, and followed by the boys. This included the call for breakfast, breakfast, two lectures a day, lunch, dinner, instructions and time for recreation.

The congress was started three years ago, and over 200 boys were present, but it was found that the number was too small to be practical, so the number who can come has been cut down the last two years, until there is at present a limit of 75. All of the expenses of the boys are paid while they are there, and the railroad fare is pooled, so it does not overburden any particular one. This year each one attending the congress was assessed $7 for railroad fare, the amount pooled, and each one paid his fare in full out of the fund thus created. Even those attending who had but a few miles to go were assessed the same as the others. In this way the representative from Colville can attend without being especially burdened with railroad fare, for of the $29.50 fare $22.50 was refunded.

From Seattle they went to Portland, where Mrs. Dannheiser visited with relatives. They found Portland unusually hot and dry, and motored to Seaside on the Fourth of July to obtain relief, but found themselves surrounded by cars. Four thousand cars were at Seaside that day and 25,000 people were seeking relief from the heat of the city, yet Seaside is a little larger than Colville. Three people were drowned during the day. One of the bodies was recovered just before the Colville party arrived at the beach, and the two others floated in three days afterwards. In Portland they were stopped for speeding, but by displaying talent in arguing, they persuaded the policeman to let them have another trial. While in Portland Howard met Jim Winslow, a former student of the Colville high school. He is now driving a Cadillac for Mrs. Dannheiser's aunt Mrs. Clara Kauffman.

From Portland they drove over the Columbia river highway to Pendleton and from Pendleton to Lewiston, going by way of the famous Lewiston grade. They returned to Colville by way of Pullman and Cofax.

They report a good trip and an excellent time. Extremely hot weather was experienced between Portland and Pendleton, but the roads were good and they passed over them quickly. No trouble was experienced with the car—not even necessary to clean a spark plug or remove a tire.
