BRIEF LOCAL NEWS OF TODAY

W. T. Ford and family of Waitsburg are guests at the State today.

C. M. Taylor of Waitsburg is among visitors today from that city.

H. H. Jones of Prescott is among out-of-town visitors in Walla Walla today.

Edward Payne of the Chicago store is recovering from a severe illness of several weeks' duration.

Mrs. Joseph Fenn, of Seattle, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. M. S. Foor, in East Rose street.

F. C. Simpson and wife of Athena, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to visit friends for a few days.

Smith Argo, a former Walla Walla boy, arrived in the city last night for a short visit with friends and relatives. He is now employed in a Seattle clothing store.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson of Centralia arrived in the city last night on the Tacoma-Seattle excursion and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bridges of the Chicago store. Mr. Nelson was formerly salesman in McKean's and is now engaged in the hardware business at Centralia.

Albert Schafer is in Walla Walla for a few days from his Franklin county ranch. The prospects for a big crop next year are very bright he says. He is seeding 400 acres this year.

Hon. Will H. Fouts, ex-prosecuting attorney of Columbia county, arrived in the city last night to take in the races for a couple of days. A bouncing baby boy arrived at the Fouts home a couple of weeks ago.

Frank Macey, who accompanied Charles Clark and William De Voe into Thunder Mountain last spring, is expected home this evening or tomorrow. He came out with Messrs. De Voe and Clark, but stopped off at the Seven Devils country to prospect some. The return trip is being made overland with pack animals.

THAT sounds like we were pretty confident of satisfying you with a mattress, doesn't it? You just read what we have to say in detail about our PERFECTION ELASTIC FELT MATTRESS, then come in and get one—have it sent up home, sleep on it for 60 days—two whole months—and if it doesn't suit come in and get your money back. We have one "at home," so we feel pretty sure that we know what we are talking about.

The filling is of a very elastic quality of felt, which is made of selected long fibre cotton especially treated. A slab of this felt, 48 inches thick, is compressed into the required thickness for a 50-pound mattress and then enclosed in extra quality satin finished or art ticks. Roll edges are stitched all round on top and bottom. The center comes either tufted or plain. They are extremely soft and handsome, retain their shape indefinitely and never grow hard or lumpy. No expense has been spared to make this the best mattress that it is possible to produce. Price each . . . $15.00

Eighteen Arrived at Penitentiary Yesterday

ARE MOSTLY FROM THE WEST SIDE

Swelled Penitentiary Population to 650—Some Hard Criminals in the Bunch.

One of the biggest consignments of prisoners to be received at the state penitentiary for several months arrived at the prison yesterday afternoon. Eighteen prisoners in charge of four sheriffs and 16 guards were turned over to Superintendent Dryden, swelling the population at the prison to 650. With one exception all the men received yesterday came from the west side and were brought across the state in a specially chartered car.

King county's quota as usual was the largest, Sheriff Cuddehe and 11 guards bringing over 11 prisoners. Included in the bunch are some of the worst criminals on the coast. Four highway robbers who terrorized citizens of Seattle for several weeks will serve sentences aggregating 50 years. The King county delegation follows: Edna Forrest, grand larceny, one year.

William McLaughlin, attempted sodomy, eight years.

William Hall, exhibiting obscene photographs, one year.

Frank Shea, petty larceny, one year.

Charles Bearboind, burglary, three years.

John Kelly, robbery, ten years.

Thomas J. Murphy, robbery, 15 years.

James Kelly, robbery, 14 years.

James Daniels, robbery, five years.

George Van Hurst, robbery, 20 years.

James E. Baine, robbery, three years.

Lincoln county—Sheriff Inkster and one guard.

David Thompson, burglary, two years.

Okonogan county—Sheriff G. W. Timball and two guards.

Lewis Hailey, cattle stealing, one year.

George Fluett, manslaughter, one year.

Snohomish county—Sheriff Frank Brewer and three guards.

John Leonard, robbery, 20 years.

John Fagerty, robbery, four years.

Ernest Jameson, rape five years.

AMUSEMENTS.

A decided success, a great big hit, the Rasmus Star theater, fine house, splendid performance, is the verdict of the people. You are going tonight and see the new bill to be given by the Bronson & Chenoweth "Funny Folks". You can't afford to miss it, your friends will be there, so you would better get the habit. Remember Saturday afternoon matinee commencing at 2:15, admission 10 and 20c to any part of the house. See the beautiful dolls to be given away to the lucky children now on display at Tallman's drug store. Sunday night will be the farewell performance of "Funny Folks". New specialties will be introduced and a jolly time is in store for all.

WILL MAKE FIGHT.

Town of Stanwood at Odds With the County Commissioners.

Everett, Wash., Oct. 22.—The lately incorporated town of Stanwood and the board of county commissioners are about to cross swords over a franchise for water works granted by the board two days before the town was legally incorporated. The Stanwood officials are incensed thereat, and declare the board exceeded its authority, in view of the fact that it had issued a call for the incorporation election and notices of the same had been posted long before the franchise was granted.

chises were granted. At the first session of the Stanwood council after the newly elected members had qualified, Mayor Pearson reviewed the action of the commissioners in the franchise matter in energetic and somewhat sarcastic style. He instructed the council that when the grantees of the electric light and water franchise should prepare to install their plants the council will say under what terms the deal is made, notwithstanding the rights granted by the commissioners.

The outcome of the case is awaited with no little interest, as it is expected to bring out a decision that will effectually define the extent to which county commissioners may go in granting trolley, water and light franchises. It is said to be the first test of the law under which the commissioners claim they were acting.

NOVEMBER GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

Good Housekeeping for November has a charming Thanksgiving, cover design in blue and orange, and opens with the first installment of a serial story, Paying Guests, by Mary Stewart Cutting, the author of Little Stories of Married Life. This is illustrated by Karl Anderson. Boys, their ways and needs are sympathetically treated in a symposium whose chief contributors are William Allen White and Judge Shute, the author of The Real Diary of a Real Boy. The court of justice at the George Junior Republic is described by John A. Parker with the aid of a spirited illustration. Other leading features of a rich number are: Thanksgiving Day on the Road, by Josiah Flynt, illustrated; Places for Books, by F. Chouteau Brown, illustrated; The White Women and the Negro, by Ellen Barret Ligon, M. D. Hospitality, Old and New, by Edwin Markham; A Bachelor's Thanksgiving Dinner, by Hester Price, illustrated; The Home of the Chrysanthemum, by Florence Peltier, illustrated; Oysters, by W. B. Thornton, illustrated. The array of autumnal cookery is a notable one. Ten cents a copy, one dollar a year. The Phelps Publishing Co., Springfield, Mass., New York, Chicago, San Francisco.
