

HONORS FOR RYAN

Archbishop May Be Made a Cardinal

AT PUBLIC CONSISTORY TODAY

Is a Personal Friend of Pope Pius and His Appointment Is Sure to Be Made.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—In Roman Catholic circles here much interest is felt in the public consistory in Rome today, the first since the elevation of Pius X. to the chair of St. Peter.

At the same time there is reason to believe that the elevation of Archbishop Ryan will not be long delayed.

If, as has been reported, Archbishop Ryan is now a cardinal in petto his appointment would necessarily be publicly announced at the consistory today.

CARTER AND DOLE CLASH.

Retiring Governor Charged With Unseemly Haste.

HONOLULU.—Retiring Governor Dole today had a conference with the heads of departments, Secretary Carter, whose appointment to succeed Governor Dole has been announced from Washington, has raised objection to the consummation of large land exchanges and signing of contracts for future public works by Superintendent Cooper of the department of public works, who has resigned owing to the change in governorship.

A heated discussion took place at the conference and Secretary Carter charged Governor Dole and Superintendent Cooper with acting in unseemly haste and showing a lack of confidence in the new administration.

Action in the matter in view of Secretary Carter's protest was postponed. The commissions appointing Secretary Carter as governor of Hawaii and Governor Dole as United States district judge are expected to arrive here November 13.

BRIDE DROPS DEAD OF GRIEF

News of Her Husband's Arrest Kills a New York Woman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Fifteen minutes after receiving a letter announcing the arrest of her husband today on the charge of stealing a watch, Mrs. Anna Sorenson, a pretty young bride, who lived in Hicks street, Brooklyn, dropped dead.

Mrs. Sorenson was visiting her friend, Mrs. John May, of Hicks street, a few doors from her own home, and was about to leave the house when the postman passed. With a pleasant comment he handed her a big official-looking envelope, bearing a New Jersey postmark.

"What? Going out again tonight?" began Mrs. Nagg. "Oh, no, just this once," replied her husband, with aggravating cheerfulness, "it will be too late when I get back to go out again."

"It looks to me as if some of these trust magnates felt themselves superior to the government."

A LINGERING COUGH

The cough that holds on in spite of all remedies needs energetic and above all thorough treatment. A mere cough mixture won't do. Root out the cold that causes the cough.

How? Scott's Emulsion. Why Scott's Emulsion?

Because it stops the irritation, soothes the tissues and heals the affected membranes.

When? Right away. Scott's Emulsion begins to help with the first dose.

People who have used Scott's Emulsion will not be satisfied with any of the numerous substitutes that are offered in the form of wines, extracts, cordials, etc. When life and health are at stake it is unwise to experiment with unknown and untried preparations.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

UNCLE SAM'S PRINT SHOP.

Secretary Cortelyou's Report As to It and Miller Is In Teddy's Hands.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—Secretary Cortelyou has turned over to the president his reports covering a general investigation of affairs in the government printing office, and of the Miller case, but the president has not had time to take them up, owing to a press of business in connection with the early opening of congress.

The printing office report is very exhaustive and it may form the basis of several long needed reforms. Possibly Public Printer Palmer may retire for the report will be indirectly rather, a severe criticism of his administration.

It is understood that the report says that the cost of work in the printing office is excessive, that the office is governed by labor unions and congressional influence, and that it is sadly deficient in system and modern business methods.

No inkling has been given as to what the report will recommend as to Miller. The president, by the aggressive action of the union has been placed in a peculiar position as to Miller. If he dismisses him it will be looked upon as a backing down from the position taken by him early in the discussion.

If the charges of immoral conduct made against Miller are found to be substantiated, the president may feel like dismissing him, and yet he will approach that conclusion reluctantly because of the way the issue has been made. Both reports ought to reach the public shortly.

LAW IS HELD VALID.

Judge Carland of Federal Court Sustains the Anti-Compact Act.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 12.—Judge Carland of the United States court yesterday afternoon handed down a decision in the case instituted by the Hartford Fire Insurance company, the Phoenix Insurance company of Brooklyn, the Royal Insurance company of Liverpool, the German-American Fire Insurance company and the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance company against John C. Perkins, state commissioner of insurance, in which he sustains the demurrer of the state to the complaint of the insurance companies, thus holding, in effect, that the anti-compact law enacted by the last legislature is constitutional.

The insurance companies sought to have the law declared unconstitutional as being in conflict with both state and federal constitutions. The defendant demurred to the bill for want of equity.

Judge Carland's decision, which covers the case thoroughly, says in part: "Clearly these complaints have the option either to cease business in the state of South Dakota or to comply with the law in question. They have no constitutional rights that are infringed by it, and if they have they cannot be heard to say that other corporations have."

Katie E. Bowen, widow of Frank Bowen, has instituted a suit in the United States court in this city against the Illinois Central railroad company for damages of $20,000.

The husband of the plaintiff was shot and killed Feb. 27 last by Henry A. Steagald, agent of the Illinois Central at Ben Clare.

"What? Going out again tonight?" began Mrs. Nagg. "Oh, no, just this once," replied her husband, with aggravating cheerfulness, "it will be too late when I get back to go out again."

"It looks to me as if some of these trust magnates felt themselves superior to the government."

SUES BUTTE PAPER

Mayor Mullin Has a Serious Grievance

ASKS FOR $50,000 DAMAGES

Claims Paper Made False and Malicious Statements About Him.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 12.—A $50,000 damage suit has been begun in the district court by Mayor Patrick Mullins against the Inter-Mountain Publishing company. The action is founded upon an article printed in the Inter-Mountain in its issue of last Wednesday. It is claimed by plaintiff Mullins that the article in question contained false and malicious accusations against him. The headlines of the article objected to are quoted in the complaint as follows:

"A Public Letter to His Honor, the Mayor, Bourgeois Says His Honor Has Failed to Fulfill Promises to the Public. Mayor Mullins Is Not the 'Whole Thing' at All. He Has Allowed Himself to Be Ruled by the Ring. Instances in Which the Mayor Has Done What He Said He Would Not Do."

It is claimed by plaintiff Mullins "that by the article the plaintiff in order to protect the Butte poolroom ring or gang designated in the article, and in order that the 'ring' might secure all of the money that was being produced by a few persons who were employed in the mines after the shutdown, and in order to assist said poolroom ring in securing all the money that was being produced by the tollers, caused all other gambling houses, slot machines and houses of prostitution to be closed and prevented from running in the city of Butte, and that the plaintiff caused such an order to be issued for the purpose of corruptly and willfully aiding the said poolroom as against any and all other classes that might be engaged in gambling or running slot machines or maintaining any house of ill fame or prostitution."

PERPETUAL LIGHT.

May Be Obtained by Soaking Sulphate of Zinc in Radium Solution.

If an active product of radium is shut up in a closed space with other substances and they are left together a certain time, it will be found that such substances have acquired an activity analogous to that of radium itself, and the smaller the space in which they are shut up the greater the activity.

For example: Take two glass bulbs connected by a horizontal tube. Into one of the bulbs pour a solution of chloride of radium; in the other phosphorescent sulphate of zinc. Close the bulbs completely, so as to exclude the air from them. When this combination is kept in the dark it will be found sooner or later, that the sulphate of zinc has become luminous, as well as all the glass in the apparatus. If the two bulbs are separated the sulphate of zinc will continue luminous for some time—perhaps a month—but gradually becoming weaker. If the atmosphere be admitted to the bulb the light disappears within a few hours.

$50,000 FOR A CARNATION.

One Prettier Than the "Fiancee" Is Worth That Sum.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 12.—The Fiancee, dainty pink carnation that is the pride of the Higginbotham gardens, was declared the winner of the gold medal in the carnation contest at the flower show here.

After the announcement of the award the Chicago Carnation company, Mr. Higginbotham's concern, offered $50,000 for any carnation plant that will exceed in beauty the Fiancee.

MRS. HELENA BLAU, Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

When thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'worn out' women's best friend and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

TWO THUGS TIE UP WATCHMAN

Alfred Christianson Bound Hand and Foot At Spokane.

SPOKANE.—Two masked thugs, tied Alfred Christianson, watchman for the Morrison Feed company, corner Sheridan street and Front avenue hand and foot early in the morning robbed him of $9 and made good their escape. Christianson was sleeping soundly in bed in a rear room in the store, when he was awakened by a resounding crash and the noise of breaking glass. Starting up he saw in the dim light two men forcing their way through a window with a sledge hammer.

Before he had time to think, one of the men covered Christianson with a revolver and ordered him to lay down on the bed. He obeyed the order, and one of the robbers, producing apparently from his pocket, a piece of rope, tied Christianson's feet together first, and then his hands.

Cut the Telephone Wires.

Then with a knife one of the robbers proceeded to cut the telephone wires. They then fumbled around in the darkness and found Christianson's trousers, from which they extracted $5 in gold and $4 in silver.

"Is there any money in the safe?" demanded one of the men.

Christianson assured them that there was not, and they made no effort to find out for themselves. Meanwhile they had neglected to cover Christianson up, and he complained that he was cold. One of the men threw a quilt over him, and while the men were looking around for more plunder their victim succeeded in working his feet loose under the quilt. In a few moments, without making any more remarks, the thieves took their departure. They took with them a pair of trousers which Christianson had in the room.

Leave Tools Behind.

They had no sooner left than Christianson jumped out of bed. It was the work of several moments to get his hands untied. He did so, however, and turned on the lights, dressed himself and started for a policeman. He found Officer O'Leary, and the two of them went back to the room. There they found that the burglars had left their sledge hammer and a miner's drill. They also found a piece of flour sacking, which looked to Christianson like a mask which one of the men wore.

Christianson thinks that one or more men were left outside while the two thugs went into his room. He says he heard voices on the outside. It was dark during all the time the men were in the room. Christianson thinks he would recognize both men if he saw them again, but he is unable to give a detailed description of them.

May be From Montana.

The police are inclined to believe that the two men are from Butte, Spokane is beginning to fill up with some of the Butte surplus population, and the police are looking for more of them, owing to the shutdown of Butte's mines and smelters. Fred Foster, Frank Macy and John Boyle, hoboes from Butte, were arrested last night by Sergeant John Sullivan. While they are not actually suspected of holding up Christianson, the police think that they are better off in jail than out, and they will be brought before Judge Hinkle on vagrancy charges today.

The Morrison Feed company is conducted by Peter Morrison and W. H. Wiscombe. Christianson, the robbers' victim, is about 30 years of age.

USHER INSULTS A CONGRESSMAN

Official Ohio Theater Employee Takes Prince Cupid for a Negro.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 11.—J. K. Kalaninaole, delegate to the coming session of congress from the Territory of Hawaii, and affectionately known by the people of his native land as Prince Cupid, met with a humiliating experience during his stay here. Prince and Princess Cupid were occupants of a box at the Southern theatre, and were thoroughly enjoying the surroundings when the prince was suddenly tapped upon the shoulder by an attaché and requested to "bring the woman," so the story goes.

The prince thought at first that some mistake had been made, but was invited again to leave, the attaché believing him to be a negro. The management after learning of the blunder sent special emissaries to the luxurious apartments of the prince to make due amends, but he scorned them and left for the east.
