Superfluous.

Copy Reader—How will it do to head this story "A Growing Scandal?" City Editor—Cut out the "growing." That's redundant. A scandal always grows.

—Chicago Tribune.

The Employer (coldly)—Why are you so late? The Suburbanite (guiltily)—There were two wrecks on the track this morning, and— The Employer (testily)—Who was the other one?

"Talk about foresight!"

"Well?"

"Old Gotrox text a thousand tons of coal in trust, not to be touched until the youngest child is of age."—Kansas City Journal.

The religious editor was struggling with the query, "Is it a sin to play poker?" After much prayerful consideration he wrote the following reply: "Yes; the way some people play it."—Philadelphia Press.

Passenger—What makes this boat pitch so? Sailor—That's a nautical secret, ma'am, that we don't like to give away; but, seein' it's you, I don't mind tellin' you that it's the waves.—San Francisco Call.

AN ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE

Is given with every "Palmer Garment" that we sell. We know the garment is good, and you know it, and sometimes we forget to give you the guarantee ticket. In such cases we wish you would ask for it, as the makers especially request that we give this ticket with every garment.
