

The Lynden Tribune

JULY 4

JULY 4

Consolidation of The Pacific Pilot and The Lynden Sun

LYNDEN, WASH., THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 9, 1910

No. 50

TIME ON JULY 4TH

Plans for Celebration Are Nearly Complete

Great Baseball Game

Lynden is going to have one of the Cracknest Fourth of Julys ever had about.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

There are going to be two big bands the best in the county.

VAN ZANDT WILL TRY FOR ANOTHER TERM

Sheriff Van Zandt was in Lynden Tuesday, calling on old and new friends.

"I shall stand upon my record," he said. "I may have made mistakes but my record will bear inspection."

The Tribune gives this statement not at the request of the sheriff, but because it feels it owes him an opportunity for a hearing.

Deming has a hired southpaw pitcher, and though the Lynden Insurgents found him, they say he is a second Cannon.

There were several sensational plays and the seventh inning was especially spectacular.

Lynden had a good delegation of rooters along and they were all in the game.

There will be a game, and a good one, if Jack Gale has to go to Seattle and make a date with Dugdale's Siwash.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

There are going to be a lot of side shows, merry-go-rounds and maybe a circus or two.

Graduates Get Diplomas

Three Able Addresses

Last Thursday night in Jamieson's opera house the first Lynden High School graduates received their diplomas.

The Board had hoped to construct a permanent high school building during the present year.

The Board therefore have considered the advisability of first, and this year, to acquire school grounds.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

Remember that an institution's character like that of an individual is what we are not what we seem to be.

courage and inspiration, yet only by dispassionate, intelligent insight into existing conditions for the purpose of wiping out error and strengthening the weak places is there an earnest or real progress.

When the divine architect fashioned the universe, he made it possible for those people who shall one day become citizens of this great state to enjoy the wonderful works of nature he has so bounteously bestowed.

Our growth and our greatness rest among the tens of thousands of her people. But, as from them proceed the issues of life for the state, so also among them must we look for blighting influences which may retard our growth.

In a republic like ours, it is not in the power of leaders alone, even if they be giants among men, either to destroy the body of our statehood or blight its growth.

The superstructure of our growth and prosperity rests upon the pillars builded by hardships and suffering, the valor and the labor of the common people and to them and to their children we owe a never ending debt.

True in a republic, every man is a prince but many must be fitted for the royal state and princely calling.

History paints portraits of individuals and hangs them in her picture galleries through the type of a people, their virtues and imperfections.

This great portrait painter seems to make a composite picture as truly as though each one in the nation had posed before her.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

Washington owes to her children the best home life possible.

BAPTIST CONVENTION THIS WEEK

One Hundred or More Guests Will be in Lynden

Must Be Entertained

Lynden must not forget that it is to be host to a large number of important guests within a few weeks.

It is expected that 100 or more Baptist ministers and delegates will be present at this convention.

The district comprises the counties of North-western Washington.

These delegates are of the best citizens of our neighboring towns and counties and we of Lynden want them to see our town and our country and to like us and them.

While they are here to do church work they will probably have time to accept some courtesies from Lynden citizens, and, The Tribune suggests that the Commercial Club should meet and make plans for some entertainment.

The program for the meeting is as follows:

TUESDAY EVENING 8:00 P. M. Song service R. I. Case 8:30 Annual Sermon D. W. Myer

WEDNESDAY MORNING 9:00 Bible Study J. C. Sterling 9:45 Reading Messages from the Churches

10:15 Sunday School Round Table J. F. Day and J. D. Sprinston 11:15 Sermon Myron Cooley

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON 2:00 Bible Study W. M. Jennings 2:45 Home Mission Study A. M. Petty 3:30 Woman's Work in the Home Missions

4:30 B. Y. P. U. Arthur D. Carpenter WEDNESDAY EVENING 8:00 S. S. Service Flanigan 8:30 Sermon

THURSDAY MORNING 9:00 Bible Study Adam Fawcett 9:45 Convention Missions Hour L. W. Terry

10:45 Echoes from Our Own Field J. C. Patey, R. D. Hinson, H. D. Welch and others

11:15 Sermon E. B. Pace THURSDAY AFTERNOON 2:00 Bible Study E. M. Stigers 2:45 Election of Officers and other business

3:15 Foreign Mission Study A. W. Rider 4:15 Women's Work in Foreign Missions

THURSDAY EVENING 8:00 S. S. Service J. M. Clos 8:30 Sermon A. Sterling Barner

LETTER FROM FERGUSON Ashcroft, B. C. May 27th Editor of The Tribune: Before I left for Fort George country a good many people asked me to write them and tell what I saw on the road.

As most every one there reads your paper I will write you.

We arrived at Ashcroft on the 27th and started on the trail next morning with 12 horses and one light wagon.

We could get horses to pack and ride here at from $40 to $75, as there are some coming back on this trip.

There is some feed on the road and here are places where one can buy hay.

We made 19 miles Friday, when we got to the first divide our horses balked after we got half way up and then we hooked two of our saddle ponies in front, tied ropes to the horn of the saddle, but before we got up they were tired out and we met an Indian and gave him $1 to pull one light wagon.

(Continued on Page 2)