

WANTED

Notices of For Sale and of the Wants of the Community. Bargains in Everything From Tin Pans to High-Class Dairy Ranches

A Continued Story About Advertising

FOR SALE—Logan Berries plants $5 per 100 at Gibbs' bulb garden Clearbrook. Choice Apple trees, Wagner, Banana, Delicious varieties. A few Anjou Pear Trees all 15 cents each. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—Good Hay, $9 per ton in the barn. Wm. Visser. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—An almost new piano will sell or trade for a horse and buggy. John Hoffman, Everson R. 3. Phone Nooksack 3314. 2-27-14

FOR DRINKING founts, feed trough and brooder lances—The Farmers Mercantile Co. 2-27-14

FREIGHTING DONE—Our freight wagons are now running both ways daily to and from Bellingham. Prompt, careful and rapid transit guaranteed. McSorley & Sons proprietors. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—A few choice, uncalced Fruit Trees, at one-half original price. J. E. McSorley, 7th and Grover Sts., Lynden. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—1 210-egg "Trusty" incubator, good as new; also 2 brooders. D. W. Bender. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—Straw: $1.00 a load in barn. Two colts coming 2-year weigh 1100 each. E. P. Gurnes. Phone 1668. Lynden. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—One horse, about 1200; J. W. Ten Dolle, Lynden. 2-27-14

Leghorn cockerels at $1 each if taken at once. Luella M. Smith Lynden. 2-27-14

FOR SALE—6 thoroughbred white 2-27-14

FOR SALE—Six months tuition at the Bellingham Business College will make some reduction as I have to leave town. Address Vernon E. Schacht, Dahlquist Block Bellingham, Wash. 2-20-31

FOR SALE—A nine months' old turkey gobbler. Inquire Tribune office. 2-20-14

THE AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC washer is now going into every good man's home. You should have one. See the Bauman Implement Co. about this latest invention. 2-13-14

FOR SALE—Storm King Oats and Blue Bell Peas for seed. Nels Jacobson, Route 1, Lynden, Phone 713. 2-13-14

FOR RENT—Ranch; stock for sale. Inquire Tribune office. 2-13-14

FOR SALE—1 complete Advance threshing outfit. Will sell right to the right party if sold at once. A. P. Axlund & Sons. 2-6-31

GOOD PAYING Restaurant for sale on easy terms. Owner wants to leave town on account of health. Wm. McDonnell, Lynden, Wash. 2-13-14

LET ZYLSTRA write your fire insurance. Agency for the Northwestern Mutual and some other board companies. 2-13-14

IF YOU LOVE your wife go to the Bauman Implement Co. and see about IT. Only 2 cents an hour. They'll tell you.

TO TRADE—I have a modern cottage, well located on carline and close to school, in Bellingham, worth about $1600; will trade for property in or adjacent to Lynden. Mrs. R. E. Hawley. 2-6-14

FOR SALE OR TRADE—We still have one good farm near Everson to sell or trade. Will take Lynden or Bellingham property as part payment. Good trade if made before time to rent for the season. A. Strandell, Phone X411, Lynden. 2-6-14

FOR SALE—If you are in need of any kind of stove WOOD, call on J. Schuylerman, or leave orders at Taylor & Riddle's Real Estate office. x 2-6-14

FOR SALE—Genuine Blue Bell Peas, cleaned for seed. Shady Lane Climax Seed Oats and Buff Orpington Eggs. B. C. Crabtree Lynden. 2-13-14

LESS THAN TWO CENTS an hour. What do you think of that? See the Bauman Implement Co. about it.

WANTED—1000 old hens. A. Boslund, Phone 2309, Lynden. 1-8-14

FOR SALE—Pen of 30 pedigreed Buff Orpington Chickens. J. D. Serlinger, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Lynden, Phone 4714. 2-13-14

FOR SALE—Buff Orpington eggs for hatching. J. D. Serlinger. 2-20-14

Dr. McLeod, Lynden's popular dentist is again on hand to attend the needs of his patrons. Office over Bank.

WANTED—A few table boarders. Corner Fourth and Grover streets. 1-23-14

Farm Sale at Auction.

On Tuesday, March 4, J. M. Sloper will sell at public auction all of his live stock, farm implements and household goods, at his farm two miles north and a half mile east of Laurel. He will also sell the land, it being described as the north 30 acres of NE 1/4, SW 1/4 of Sec. 18, Twp 39 nr. 3 E. A small payment of $500 will be accepted on the land. On the stock, implements etc., the usual terms will prevail. Auctioneer Bostwick will officiate.

FOR SALE—1 heifer; 4 Indian runner ducks; 1 drake; 1 Round Oak range; household goods and 1/2 gallon fruit jars. C. A. Hanson, 1 block west, 1 block north of Waples mill. 2-27-14

THE FARMERS Mercantile Co has a carload of fertilizer in transit which will be unloaded next week. We will be glad to quote you prices.

SENDING OUT goods, with no cash payment down, ordinarily reduces a stock, but that of C. W. Waldron, on Elk Street, Bellingham, is weekly replenished with fine floor coverings from the eastern manufacturing centers, and those in need of Rugs, for the Spring, can have a large selection of patterns and sizes to choose from and have the same delivered now, and commence their monthly payments in April on the same, and all at the most attractive prices. Every month he does an increased business and now occupies three large store rooms under the Laube and Windsor Hotels.

HOUSEWORK wanted by girl of 15 years old. Phone 1813, Lynden.

FOR SALE—Shadeland Climax seed Oats, Re-cleaned. Henry Shagren Phone 417, Lynden. 1-23-14

FOR SALE—HAY, on the German place, 2 1/2 miles west of Lynden. $10 per ton. Ed Hoekstra. 2-20-14

FOR SALE—One cow, 1 heifer, 4 doz. 1-year old Chickens; 1 pair Indian Runner ducks, 1 drake, 4 ducks, 1 Round Oak cook range; household goods, and fruit jars. C. A. Hanson, 1 block west, 1 block north of Waples' mill, Lynden. 2-20-14

FOR SALE—Nice young driving team—mares, and a good heavy wagon. See Grnat Mulka, Lynden. 2-20-14

FOR SALE—S. C. WHITE LEG-HORNS, Eggs and Baby chicks. Pen No. 1, headed by Buster, a cockerel winning first and sweepstakes at Bellingham; first Snohomish, and first Seattle Mead-hens; mated to fifteen beautiful hens and pullets; Eggs $3.50 per 15; $8 per 30; $10 per 50; $15 per 100. Chicks $25 per 100. Pen No. 2, headed by a cock bird winning 3rd Snohomish, 1911. mated to fourteen good pullets; Eggs $3.00 per 15; $5.00 per 30; $8.00 per 50; $10.00 per 100. Chicks $20 a 100. Three other pens, all grand birds, some of them prize winners. Eggs 2.00 per 15; $8.00 per 100. Chicks $15.00 per 100. Alex Campbell Everson, Wash. 2-20-14

FOR SALE—Choice Jersey Bul Calves. B. C. Crabtree.

DO NOT forget to list your property with ZYLSTRA. He works strictly on commission. 2-13-14

ANYBODY'S lumber is good enough for you if you are neither proud nor particular, but if you are, see Jeffers' mill, six miles west of Lynden before you PLACE your next order

ZYLSTRA HAS 2 farms for rent. See him about it. 2-13-14

THE BAUMAN IMPLEMENT CO. has the latest labor saving machine made. LYon can't afford to be without one

FOR SALE—8-horse power Bolle and Engine, Hay Cutter, Grain Mill, Belting, etc. Half Price. Address J. M. Warinner, South Bellingham, Wash. 8-1-14

FOR SALE—Five room bungalow barn and three lots. P. O. Box 317, Lynden or Phone X662 de714

ORDER YOUR Berry Plants from the LYNDEN FRUIT GROWERS ASSOCIATION. -6-14

FOR SALE—EGGS for hatching: Pekin and Runner Ducks, C. W. Orpington chicken. E. E. Wolf, Lynden, phone 419. 11-14-14

Dr. McLeod, the dentist, is again doing work at his office over the bank.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items from the many flourishing towns in the county by our own correspondents

EVERSON

Mrs. Ed Kale is at home from the hospital in Bellingham where several weeks' treatment has resulted in restoring her to almost complete health.

Mr. Wm. Plest visited last week with his daughter, Mrs. Agnes Scheibe and Mrs. Paul Schrader, at their homes in Portland.

Miss Gertha Vinzer was the weekend guest of Miss Hannah Spedding at her home on Route One. Miss Morris, of Lynden was also a guest at the Spedding home.

C. Grell fell on a slippery walk a few days ago and broke the third finger of his left hand, and gave one ankle a severe bruise.

Saturday, March 1st, is school election day in Everson. There is one officer to be elected and several Richmonds in the field.

Mrs. James Beernink of Lynden spent several days at the bedside of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lydia Beernink.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Thompson visited their relatives in Sedro-Woolley on Saturday and Sunday.

Misses May and Nettie Hoover spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoover. Chester Trowbridge celebrated his fourteenth anniversary Saturday evening, February 22, by entertaining twenty-one friends at his home. Mrs. Ira Trowbridge was hostess, and the evening was pleasantly passed in games. A nice supper was served.

The Rev. John Reid, Jr. visited in Bellingham Thursday and Friday and on Friday morning addressed the Normal in regular assembly on patriotic birthdays occurring in February, Washington, Lincoln and McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. DeMuth were business visitors in Everson from Bellingham the first of the week and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grell.

Miss Gertrude Mahlein came home from Lynden on Monday, having been attending her sister, Mrs. D. J. Milan, who is ill.

The seventh annual ball of the I. O. O. F. Friday night was a grand success both in point of attendance and financially.

Mrs. Lydia Beernink passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Jamieson, in Everson at 8 p. m. Friday, February 21, in her seventy-ninth year. She had been ill but a few days with a heavy cold. Death resulted from this and her advanced years in addition to the shock of a fall sustained a few days before. Her husband passed away twelve years ago, at the home in Wisconsin. Surviving the deceased are seven children, nine grand children, and a brother and sister these last and two sons and two daughters living in Wisconsin. Two sons, James, of Lynden, and Henry of Everson, and her daughter, Mrs. Jamieson, were with her mother at the time of her death.

Mrs. Beernink had lived more than the allotted span, and all of her life had been a devoted Christian. The family is bereaved, but should we not rather rejoice that one so ready to respond to the Master's call has passed into rest?

Mrs. Beernink came to Lynden from Wisconsin eight years ago and for the past six years has made her home with Mrs. Jamieson.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Reid officiating with the solemn and beautiful ritual of the Presbyterian church. Many friends from Everson, Lynden, and vicinity were in attendance. The floral offerings were beautiful. Interment was in the Nooksack-Everson cemetery.

CUSTER

Miss Myrtle Brown, primary teacher in Custer school, left Thursday evening for Olympia, where she was met by her sister, Iva, and brother, Herbert. They spent Saturday with their father, Senator Brown, returning to their schools Sunday.

Floyd Vaughn and family, who have been visiting relatives and friends about Custer the past few weeks, returned Friday to their work near Sumas.

E. Whalen is working at the Phillips mill at Woodland.

Several of the young people attended church service at Haynie Sunday night. Rev. Rinehart is holding revival services at that place.

Mrs. Dessie Stoops of Haynie is spending a few weeks at the home of C. I. Rogers.

Mrs. Weisman and son, Carl, were callers at the Nace home Sunday.

A pleasant time was had Saturday evening when the neighbors gathered at the home of H. A. Shell to help him celebrate his sixty-fifth birthday. The evening was spent in conversation, games, and music. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Whalen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dowling, Bert, Anna and Nina Dowling, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nace Bert and Fannie Litonious.

George Fassett and family were in the neighborhood Sunday looking for a residence to rent.

Mrs. Fred Rogers is suffering from an attack of the grippe.

J. B. Litonious and Jim Nace are hauling hay from the Craine ranch on the river bottom.

Avado Rogers is at home for a few days but will soon return to his work near Lynden.

WOODLAND

Miss Louise Harter was at home from Thursday until Sunday.

Mr. Jeffcoat sawed wood with his engine at Lund's Saturday.

Mrs. Hagos called on Mrs. Merritt Friday afternoon.

Mr. Lund has been ill for a few days.

Mrs. Jeffcoat's sister, Frances, visited her for two or three days. Seeca Smith attended the Dickerson's New Store Open.

son dance at Glendale. Jennie Jea is going to Alaska for about five months.

LOCAL NEWS

Snow is falling today and it looks as if March would come in like the proverbial lion.

Meadames Jamieson and Master Ivan visited the D. H. Jamieson family in Everson Wednesday.

Mr. B. W. Loring and Ed Kelley made a business trip to Sedro-Woolley the latter part of the week.

Mr. Ed Gifford, of Iowa, arrived Tuesday evening for a visit at the home of his cousin, Mrs. E. N. Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy True and baby sons, of Everett, came up Friday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George True.

The Royal Neighbors' Needle Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Angus Young Thursday afternoon, March 6.

Miss Mamie Wellhouse has been compelled to miss several days teaching at her school in the Fairview district on account of illness.

Miss Evelyn Serlinger sustained slight injury while returning home from Lynden Monday, when the horse which she was driving became frightened and tried to climb a fence.

An election is to be held next Saturday to elect a trustee of the local school board. Mr. E. K. Knapp is the retiring member of the board but it is expected that he will succeed himself.

The Mack Swain Theatre Co. is billed for a two-night engagement at the Electric Theatre. They appear Friday and Saturday nights at this week in comedy and drama intermingled with vaudeville. It is reported to be a good company and crowded houses are looked for at this, its first appearance here. Popular prices of admission will prevail.

A music club was organized last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wright. The object of the organization is to study the music of various composers, and occasionally to give an evening devoted to the rendition of the music of one of the masters whose compositions are being studied. The first meeting will be held this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beach.

The Patrons-Teachers Association will have a meeting at the school building next Tuesday evening. Mrs. P. M. Serrurier has the program in hand and an interesting and helpful evening is assured. Refreshments will be served by the girls of the school, and general discussion on the subject of the proposed high school building will be engaged in. This is a matter of interest to every resident of the district and there should be a good attendance at this meeting.

The second annual declamatory contest of the Junior class of the Lynden high school was held at the school house yesterday evening. There were seven contestants and each one did so well that it was difficult for the judges to decide who deserved the honors. Miss Li-ona Stone won first place and Howard Worthen second. Miss Stone's subject was "The Heart of Old Hickory." Dr. Wood, Dr. McLeod and Mr. P. M. Serrurier acted as judges. Piano solos were rendered by Mrs. P. A. Wright and Miss Frances Knapp. The proceeds of the evening will be placed in the piano fund.

Dickerson's New Store Open. The new store of J. L. Dickerson & Son at Glendale was opened the following evening with a grand ball and supper, tendered the guests by this enterprising firm. The evening was a great success and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The best music that could be obtained was furnished, and the affair was that which long has been heralded by the good people of Glendale and vicinity who wish the genial proprietors of the new store and ball the greatest success.

As the firm of J. L. Dickerson & Son is progressive and up-to-date in every particular, it will begin next week, have a weekly announcement of its store and goods in The Tribune.

T. B. Long, new City Marshal. At the regular session of the city council on Friday evening the resignation of C. C. King, who leaves the city to assume the management of the county farm, as city marshal was accepted and T. B. Long was unanimously chosen to succeed him. He was sworn in and assumed his new duties at once. The appointment is a good one. Mr. Long is a man of the highest honor. He has had some experience as a deputy sheriff, and will show no favors in the performance of his sworn duties. At the November election he took a prominent part in the contest as a Progressive, and was one of the new party's best workers.

For 1913 Base Ball. At a baseball meeting held in the city hall Tuesday evening, the following were elected to act as officials of the club for the season of 1913: A. E. Rusco, Manager; P. A. Serrurier, Secretary-Treasurer and Wm. Fisher, Captain. Nearly all of last year's players will be on hand to try out for the various positions on the line-up. Owen Hadley and John Mulder will do the heavy stunts this year, with Capt. Fisher on the receiving end. This combination of battery performers will be hard to beat.

Two Bellingham players, Follman and Graham will round out the vacancies and with the greater part of last year's veterans in the game the local aggregation will no doubt be heard from.

Weather conditions permitting the playing season will start the first part of April. Arrangements for the grounds are not yet completed, but some arrangement is expected to be made soon.

The southeast quarter of the northwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section thirty-five (35) township forty (40) north range five (5) east, except B. B. & B. C. right of way.

The west half of the northwest quarter of section sixteen (16) township forty (40) north range five (5) east, containing eighty acres, and lots four (4) and five (5) in block sixteen (16) Hawley & Lawrence's Addition to Lynden, Whatcom County, Washington.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this order be published in The Lynden Tribune once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the date of such hearing.

DONE IN OPEN COURT this 24th day of February, 1913.

WILLIAM H. PEMBERTON, Judge fb27-4t

PIXLEY'S OPERA HOUSE

Third St. between Grover and Liberty PHONE No. R382

Grand Ball Saturday, March 8 6-Piece Orchestra. Tickets, $1.00

"IF CHEASTY HAS IT, IT'S CORRECT"

YOU AUTO OWNERS

will be interested in knowing that at Cheasty's you can get all these personal accessories for automobiling, that add such joy to motoring.

Automobile Gloves, Cloth and fur-lined, with and without gauntlet.

Automobile Coats, cloth or leather exterior, reversible leather, and cloth with detachable leather lining.

Automobile Robes in vast array of beautiful patterns.

Automobile Lunch Hampers or cases, all completely fitted, including Thermos bottles — Thermos bottles in all styles.

Auto leggings, foot muffs, etc.

TRAVELING LUXURIES

Wardrobe trunks in great variety and infinite completeness; leather traveling bags and suit cases and leather articles, featuring celebrated Cross (London) leather goods.

Cheasty's Haberdashery

Second Avenue at Spring Street SEATTLE

If It's Correct, Cheasty Has It

The New O'Donnell Shoe

Made By SPECIALISTS

for men who demand the utmost in their footwear. The makers combine that distinctive elegance that foot comfort and that solid wear in a way that stamps the O'Donnell "The Shoe of a Gentleman"

The new models for spring and summer have just arrived. You'll like them. "O'Donnell Shoes are Friend Makers."

$3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00

Crossett Shoes

Another specialty line we have been fortunate in getting. Most good dressers know the Crossett Shoe. It has all the fine qualities of the O'Donnell with just a little bit added. For men who want the best and are willing to pay for it. "They make Life's walk easy."

$5.00 and $6.00

"Get the Efficiency Habit"

THE EFFICIENCY SHOP

- MENS TOGGERY -

JONES & SERRURIER, Proprietors. LYNDEN, WASHINGTON