

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Additional Local News on Page 6.

Be sure to register!
Registration books are open.
Mr. Frank Knapp received his fine new Ford touring car Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. T. Tyler and son, Gordon, drove to Lynden Tuesday.
Misses Jordan and McMahn went to Bellingham Friday evening to spend the week-end with friends.
Misses Cole visited their brother and family in Bellingham from Friday until Sunday evening.
Miss Agatha Erz of Bellingham was a Lynden visitor the latter part of last week.
Miss Mabel Davidson returned from Bellingham Sunday evening, where she had been visiting friends.
Last Thursday a little girl came to live with Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Maneville.
Mrs. Frank Knapp was ill and confined to her home a few days this week.
Dr. Mounter had occasion to prescribe for himself the first of the week—at least he lost his "grippe."
T. H. Smith and H. H. Jamieson were transacting business at the county seat on Tuesday.
Willis Worthen has sold his ranch in California for a consideration of $9000.
The Kensington Club will meet Friday afternoon, March 14, at the home of Mrs. B. V. Mounter.
Little Ivan Jamieson who was quite ill the latter part of the week is better at this time.
Miss Jennie Ellenbas left Monday for a visit with relatives at Grand Rapids, Mich.
Mr. Ed Clifford, of Iowa, visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Biddell, for a few days last week.
The Lynden Variety Store has a large and beautiful assortment of Easter cards and Easter novelties on display.
Mrs. Ralph DeMotts has been confined to her home for several days with a severe attack of la grippe.
Mrs. Will Daniels went to Bellingham Saturday for a few days rest and visit at the home of her brother.
Mr. A. L. Tromp visited his daughters who are attending the Bellingham Normal, a few days the first of the week.
The Pythian Sisters are going to give an invitation dance at the Odd Fellows Hall, on Monday evening St. Patrick's Day, March 17.
R. Haveman who has the agency for the Ford car has so far this season disposed of five cars of that make.
Mrs. Dan Cloud and children of Bellingham spent a few days in Lynden last week before going to their new home in Montesano.
Mrs. D. W. Bender has issued invitations for a party at her home tomorrow evening in honor of her sister, Miss Carspecken, who has been spending the winter here.
B. W. Loring has been appointed deputy county assessor to make assessments of personal property in Lynden. Mr. Loring assumes his duties at once.
Volney G. Coster of Goshen was buried in the Lynden cemetery on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Coster had attained the ripe age of seventy-nine years.
Harry Gale is the new delivery boy for the Bellingham Herald, taking the place of Trentle Post, who has taken up other work that requires all of his time.
Charles Segar, formerly a blacksmith in Lynden, was buried Monday in the Lynden cemetery. Mr. Segar had been conducting a shop at Alki since moving away from here.
Mr. J. C. Beach, who was called to Minnesota on account of the illness of his mother, returned home yesterday. Mr. Beach's mother was much improved in health when he left.

Announcements of the wedding of Miss Jennie Nella Schuyleman to Mr. Adrian Verbrugge are out. The wedding is to take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. B. Schuyleman, on Thursday March 13.
The Electric Theatre is offering two unusual attractions for tonight Thursday. The first feature will be "The Country Store, and life in this will be the story of life in Slug Sing prison, all the pictures illustrating which were actually taken behind the prison walls. Interesting and instructive will be the exhibition.
The following will be some of the numbers played during the early part of the evening at the ball to be given by the six-piece Lynden Orchestra at Pixley's hall next Saturday evening: Waltz, "Harbor of Love;" Two Step, "Everybody's;" Three Step, "Sorority;" Two step, "Somebody Else is Getting It;" Waltz, "Kiss of Spring;" Two step, "Red Rose;" "Lancers," "Military;" "Barn Dance;" "Moonlight Bay;" Two step, "Rag Time Soldier Man."

School election passed off quietly. Frank Knapp was re-elected.
Miss Jennie Frost has been quite ill at her home near Greenwood.
For elections other than school registration is necessary.
County Engineer C. M. Adams had business in Lynden last week.
Percy Ptolemy spent Sunday in Bellingham.
Mrs. O. J. Maneville, who was seriously ill the first of the week, is convalescing.
F. M. Bloom and J. W. Tremain, Jr. were guests at the Pangborn ranch over night last Thursday.
Mr. L. D. and Miss Olive Pangborn were dinner guests on Sunday of Mrs. Mary J. Swin.
Miss Crete Topping came up from the Normal Friday to visit at home over Sunday.
Whipple's barber shop has been moved to the store room adjoining the Palace Cafe.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Rathman are occupying apartments in the Worthen house on Front Street.
A grand ball at which a splendid 6-piece orchestra will furnish the music will be given at Pixley's hall next Saturday night.
Tonight the Order of the Eastern Star Lodge will give its regular monthly banquet and social. An especially good time is anticipated.
Dr. E. G. Johnson, an old time resident of Lynden was an over night guest at the Pangborn ranch Thursday of last week.
The Deputy County Surveyor with assistants was making surveys preliminary to ditching on the Knittle, Bussard and Worthen ranches last week.
Mrs. Mary Higginson returned home from Bellingham a few days ago, where she had been caring for a daughter who was seriously ailing, but who is at this writing much improved in health.
Geo. Rothfuss is clearing a tract of land adjoining the Lakeview cemetery, preparatory to plowing and seeding it this Spring. Ole Matson and Fred Ehlers were also engaged in clearing.
Fred Ehlers and Alex. Campbell took advantage of the good sleighing and frozen roads following it to haul a number of fine saw-logs to the Roo-Van Leeuwen mill to be sawed to furnish lumber for farm buildings.
The machinery at the big new plant of the Lynden Lumber Co. in the east end of town was tried out on Monday and everything was found to be in splendid working order. The plant starts up on a steady run next Monday and will give employment to some 40 persons.
Mrs. John Otter had the misfortune a few days ago as she was running to the mail box, to fall and break one or two of the bones of her left hand. As a consequence John has had two or three very strenuous days making bread and taking care of the baby. However, the tension is much relieved, as Mrs. Otter's broken bones are knitting and her sister is assisting with the housework.
It is understood that Mr. Long appointed city marshal upon the resignation of Mr. King, does not wish to retain the position, and his resignation is expected. This is a source of regret to many of our citizens. John Tebrink and Councilman Baxter are said to be applicants for the place. The mayor has the appointing power, and may name some one at the council meeting tomorrow night.

Will Murrer was on the invalid list last week.
Miss Sarah Westman returned to her home in Bellingham Wednesday.
Mr. M. Folz has been somewhat indisposed for several days.
L. D. Pangborn was in town Tuesday.
E. F. Kelly is spending a few days in Seattle.
Miss Nelle Collins spent Wednesday in Bellingham.
John Storrey made a business trip to Everson the first of the week.
The marriage of Miss Pauline Handy and Mr. Lynn Colby occurs today at Bellingham.
Mrs. Poster, of Ferndale, arrived Wednesday for a visit with her friend, Mrs. Fountain.
Among the new pupils in the public schools are children from California and Michigan.
Mrs. Maud Pym and children, of Bellingham, came up Wednesday evening for a visit with Mrs. Pym's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Frasier.
Mrs. Thompson of the Lynden Home Missionary Society, went to Nooksack Wednesday to address the society at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Knapp at Everson between trains.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imhoff February 21.
The baby of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jackson has been quite ill but is now on the road to recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell's baby has been quite sick with pneumonia but a change for the better is now noted.
Miss Lizzie Schuyleman has been absent from school several days, suffering with an attack of pneumonia.
The son of Mr. and Mrs. Moenk Sr. has been sick but is improving under the care of Dr. Wood.
The members of the Yoeman order are planning a social to be given in the near future.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hulest returned a few days ago from Seattle where they had been for several weeks. Mr. Hulest was quite ill with pneumonia while away.
The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be at the home of Mrs. J. O. Bussard, Thursday, March 13. The Willard memorial last week was highly successful and very interesting. Lynden's W. C. T. U. shows a healthy growth, having three new members, and 65 already enrolled.
An exhibition of unusual interest to school children will be given at the Electric Theatre next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when original pictures of the Panama Canal will be given. A lecture on the canal will accompany the views, and will be of great interest to all who attend. The school children of the country districts are especially invited. The admission will be only 10 cents.

Everett, Kent and Lynden. One of these schools will draw a blank and will meet the winner of the next debate which is to be held within the next month to determine the State Championship of this division.
Those who went to Mount Vernon to hear the debate were: Miss Drum; Orel Jackman; Howard Worthen; John Wolf and Prof. P. A. Wright.
Preparations for spring athletics are in full swing.
In second group of the county series, Friday evening, Van Wyck won from Elbonita and Northwood received the decision at Glendale. The question for second group schools is: "Resolved, That the President of the United States should be Elected For Six Years and should be Ineligible For Re-election." The winner in both cases argued for the negative. Miss Brunson of Sunrise and Messrs. Fisher and Bender acted as judges in the Northwood debate. Northwood and Van Wyck will meet at some future date to settle the championship of group two.
Howard Worthen was sent to the Mount Vernon debate by the Boys' Literary Society, in consideration of the fact that he won second place in the Junior Oratorical Contest.
A postponed meeting of the Boys' Literary Society was held Monday evening. An interesting program and debate were rendered.

Willis Worthen has sold his ranch in California for a consideration of $9000.
The Kensington Club will meet Friday afternoon, March 14, at the home of Mrs. B. V. Mounter.
Little Ivan Jamieson who was quite ill the latter part of the week is better at this time.
Miss Jennie Ellenbas left Monday for a visit with relatives at Grand Rapids, Mich.
Mr. Ed Clifford, of Iowa, visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Biddell, for a few days last week.
The Lynden Variety Store has a large and beautiful assortment of Easter cards and Easter novelties on display.
Mrs. Ralph DeMotts has been confined to her home for several days with a severe attack of la grippe.
Mrs. Will Daniels went to Bellingham Saturday for a few days rest and visit at the home of her brother.
Mr. A. L. Tromp visited his daughters who are attending the Bellingham Normal, a few days the first of the week.
The Pythian Sisters are going to give an invitation dance at the Odd Fellows Hall, on Monday evening St. Patrick's Day, March 17.
R. Haveman who has the agency for the Ford car has so far this season disposed of five cars of that make.
Mrs. Dan Cloud and children of Bellingham spent a few days in Lynden last week before going to their new home in Montesano.
Mrs. D. W. Bender has issued invitations for a party at her home tomorrow evening in honor of her sister, Miss Carspecken, who has been spending the winter here.
B. W. Loring has been appointed deputy county assessor to make assessments of personal property in Lynden. Mr. Loring assumes his duties at once.
Volney G. Coster of Goshen was buried in the Lynden cemetery on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Coster had attained the ripe age of seventy-nine years.
Harry Gale is the new delivery boy for the Bellingham Herald, taking the place of Trentle Post, who has taken up other work that requires all of his time.
Charles Segar, formerly a blacksmith in Lynden, was buried Monday in the Lynden cemetery. Mr. Segar had been conducting a shop at Alki since moving away from here.
Mr. J. C. Beach, who was called to Minnesota on account of the illness of his mother, returned home yesterday. Mr. Beach's mother was much improved in health when he left.

SPRING MILLINERY OPENING
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
March 7 and 8
Miss FOLZ MILLINERY STORE
You are cordially invited.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Patrons Association met Tuesday night. By request, Mrs. Mounter repeated her talk on "Corporal Punishment", given at a previous meeting. Discussion centered chiefly about the new building.
The debate with Mount Vernon last Friday, which debate was the third of the State series resulted in a two to one decision in favor of Lynden. The question discussed was: "Resolved, That This State should Continue the Policy of Building State Roads and Permanent Highways With Increasing Appropriations Therefor." The Lynden debaters were Miss Edna McKinnon and Mr. John Breckenridge who supported the negative side of the question. It will be noticed that Lynden has now won on both sides of the same question. Supt. Poplin, of Anacortes; Mr. Trumble of the engineering department of the University of Washington and Prof. Bevers of the Bellingham Normal acted as judges.
There are now three schools left in the Western division of the state:

LYNDEN DEPT STORE LYNDEN DEPT STORE LYNDEN DEPT STORE LYNDEN DEPT STORE

Bon Ton and Royal Worcester Corsets

Have been the World's Standard for more than 50 years. Our sales on these World famous Corsets is increasing from month to month, and from year to year. Last month we sold nearly three times as many Bon Ton and Royal Worcester Corsets as we did in the corresponding month last year.

There's a Reason
Royal Worcester Corsets, at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.
Bon Ton Corsets $3.00 and $3.50

Millinery
Our initial shipment of Spring Millinery has arrived, and our Millinery Department is the busiest section in the store. We shall be glad to have you look over the large stock of Hats of various late designs and styles.

Spring Dry Goods

See our showing of Spring Goods. We can show you serges, mixtures, batistes, etc. at prices that you cannot match elsewhere. Some beautiful Silks just received Foulards, Messalines, Etc.
Cheney's Shower Proof Foulards, plain colors and figures, the yard, $1.00
Messalines - - - - - 75c., 85c., $1.00
All Wool 36 inch Serges at - - - - - Sixty Cents.

GROCERIES AND FEED

Below we quote a few of our Every Day prices on Groceries and Feed:

D. G. Sugar, 20 lbs.	$1.00	Soap, Crystal White, Bob White		Cascade Cream, 4 cans	.25
Centennial Best Flour 100 lb. (10 lb. sack Free)	2.40	or Sunny Monday, 26 bars	1.00	Baking Powder 1 lb. Cleveland's	.40
Graham Flour, 10 lb. sack	.30	Lye, 4 cans	.25	Soda, (A. & H.) 4 pkgs.	.25
Corn Meal, 10 lb. sack	.25	Salt, fine Dairy, 50 lb. sack	.50	Prunes, large, fancy, 12 lbs.	1.00
Columbia Oats or Wheat, pkg.	.25	Mince Meat, 3 pkgs.	.25	Copenhagen Snuff, 6 pkgs.	.25
Egg-O-See Corn Flakes, doz.	.90	Cottolene, 10 lb. pails	1.35	Bird Seed, 3 pkgs.	.25
Ralston Bran, pkg.	.15	Pure Lard, 10 lb. pails	1.35	Bran, per ton	23.00
Beans, Small white, 17 lbs.	1.00	Vegetole, (same as Cottosuet)		Shorts, per ton	25.00
Cream of Wheat, 3 pkgs.	.50	10 lb. pails	1.15	Oil Meal Cake, 100 lb. sack	2.25
Grape Nuts, 2 pkgs.	.25	Corn, 3 cans	.25	Proteina, 100 lb. sack	2.25
Eagle Milk, 3 cans	.50	Tomatoes, 3 cans	.25	Whole Corn, 100 lb. sack	1.45

— We have just received a carload of Sulphate and Muriate of Potash —

LYNDEN DEPARTMENT STORE

"THE STORE OF GREAT VALUES"