People in the News

Plus X has forbidden smoking in the Vatican.

By resignation of Governor Woodrow Wilson to become president of the United States, James Flieder became governor of New Jersey.

Ex-United States Senator Dick was deposed as commander of the Ohio militia, when Governor Cox issued an order dissolving the Ohio national guard as a military division.

As a result of the scandal over a reported attempt to free Harry Thaw from Matteawan insane asylum by a $25,000 bribe, Dr. John W. Russell has resigned the superintendency of that institution.

Enough names to the petition for the recall of Police Judge Charles L. Weller, of San Francisco, have been verified to insure the holding of an election. It will be the first judicial recall election in the history of California.

Miss Mary Foy, of Pasadena, Cal., was the first woman to participate in a national party committee meeting. She holds State Senator Sanford's proxy as California's representative on the Democratic national committee, which met in Washington Wednesday.

Denial that he favors woman suffrage, or that he applauded the march of "General" Rosalie Jones' hiking army on their way to Washington, was made in Baltimore by Cardinal Gibbons. In fact, the prelate said he was sure the hike had not helped the suffrage cause.

Matthew A. Henson, the negro who was with Peary on the final dash to the north pole, will get a position in the classified service of the government without being required to pass a civil service examination. President Taft has issued an executive order permitting the appointment.

The Colorado supreme court rendered an opinion holding that the legislature could repeal a law initiated and adopted by the voters and could insert in any law a so-called "saving clause," which would prevent its being referred to the voters.

The pure marriage bill was passed by the Nebraska state senate in its amended form. As amended the bill makes it necessary only that men who contemplate becoming married shall present a certificate of physical health.

Hereafter students in schools belonging to the Association of American Medical Colleges will be forced to take a five-year instead of a four-year course as at present, a resolution to this effect being adopted at the closing session of the association in Chicago.

More than 2000 state appointments in Illinois are affected by an official opinion given by Attorney-General Lucy to the effect that the state civil service law, which became effective July 1, 1911, was not legally passed and therefore never became a law of the state.

The Drama of London's Fog. There is a whole world of drama bound up in the chronicles of London's fog. This misty and mysterious visitant, far older than Gog or Magog, which used to visit the watches of the night when the metropolis barely lifted itself out of the surrounding marshes, has a fund of comedy as well as tragedy. Countless murders have been committed under its sheltering cloak, men and women have been waylaid, children have been torn from their mothers and wives from their husbands.—London Strand.

Crooks Must Leave Service. Albany, N. Y.—Commenting on the Thaw scandal at Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, which already has resulted in the resignation of Dr. John W. Russell, the superintendent of the asylum, Governor Sulzer made it plain that all crooked state officials must go.

Friedmann Treats Rich and Poor New York.—The widespread attention which has been drawn to the tuberculosis treatment of Dr. Friederich Friedmann, the German bacteriologist, will be brought to a climax this week. The announcement is made that Dr. Friedmann will open offices and for two weeks conduct a public clinic where the poor as well as the rich will be treated.

The fish bill of Representatives Falkner and Dunning, providing for the leasing of fish trap locations at public auction, was killed in the House Tuesday. The fish trust was on the job day and night for the purpose of defeating this meritorious measure, introduced by Whatcom County's Progressive representatives.

C. C. King on assuming charge of the county farm last Saturday started out to get prices and give some orders for food supplies. At Bellingham he was quoted 13 1/2 cts. a pound for a dressed hog and from 14 to 16 cts. a pound for beef. At Lynden the hog was priced at 10 1/2 cents and the beef at 12 1/2 cents. Lynden got the order. Now then who is it that says "you can buy cheaper at Bellingham than at Lynden."

"Is a ton of coal very much, pa?" "It depends on whether you are shoveling or burning it."

WASHINGTON BRIEFLETS

Zella Combs, 3 year old daughter of W. L. Combs, of Walla Walla, had gone to play in the yard and several minutes later a neighbor woman noticed the child's clothing in flames. She died two hours later.

A company of the Washington National Guard is now being organized in Wenatchee. An enrolment of 47 has already been attained. The minimum cannot be less than 60 in order to have a permanent company.

When the month of February closed the state had a cash balance of $1,617,041 on hand after taking care of a $755,568 overdraft against the state general fund, according to the report issued by state treasurer Edward Meath.

Napavine, a lively sawmill town seven miles south of Chehalis, has voted to incorporate after an extended campaign and much discussion of the subject. Incidental to voting to incorporate, a "wet" city council was elected and the place will again have saloons.

Repairs and improvements are now under way on the old office building of the Grays Harbor Railway & Light company of Aberdeen, which it is planned to turn into clubrooms for the use of the conductors and motormen employed by the company, while the men are off duty.

Preparations for the blossom festival at North Yakima are under way, though the date cannot be definitely set until the trees are further along. Princesses for the festival are to be chosen from each of the valley districts, and the queen chosen from among these.

Alex Gillis, aged 35, employed by the Sunset Timber company at camp No. 12 on Mill Creek near Raymond, as a hook tender, while standing on a log directing the operations was thrown by the movement of the log and he was crushed to death when the heavy stick of timber rolled over him.

James Gill, one of the six burglars who systematically robbed ranch homes near Wenatchee, pleaded guilty to Judge Grimshaw and received a sentence of from 2 to 10 years at hard labor in the penitentiary at Walla Walla. Robert Ruef and Gill made a sensational escape from the county jail several weeks ago, but were recaptured.

Children in two Spokane orphanages are living on venison as a result of a seizure of eight fine quarters of deer by the County Game Warden. The question of disposing of the choice meat was solved when it was presented to the county commissioners. They decided to turn it over to the orphanages, as it is contrary to the law to sell it.

In a decision handed down the supreme court holds that the dependent parents of a minor workman, killed in extra hazardous work, must be compensated during their dependency and not only during what would have been the minority of deceased. This affects about 10 per cent of the fatal cases handled by the industrial insurance commission.

Within three weeks the Wenatchee Canal company's new bridge across the Wenatchee river will be completed. Six carloads of steel have arrived and construction work will be pushed with vigor. The bridge is erected primarily to carry an extra pipe line which will provide ample water for the irrigation of all land served by the canal company. It may carry general traffic later.

Christus Christus, an alien, employed on a railway engineering crew, was ground to pieces under the wheels of a train in Centralia. He was working a half mile north of the city and caught the O-W. R. & N. local home. When he attempted to alight from the moving train, his foot caught in a switch rod, and he was thrown under the wheels.

The big steel steamer John A. Hooper, recently turned out of the Raymond shipyard and brought around the Horn by Sudden & Christenson, of San Francisco, where she arrived on February 15, is due to reach Raymond March 9 to load her maiden cargo of lumber. She is over 30 feet in length and has a carrying capacity of 2,500,000 feet.

Willapa harbor is given favorable mention in a report made by General Maus to the war department on his investigations in connection with the fortification of Grays and Willapa harbors when he declares that, in his judgment, under favorable conditions, heavy war vessels could enter Willapa harbor. No money has ever been expended upon the entrance to Willapa bay.

Andrew Peterson, superintendent of the Raymond ship yard, announces that the keel of the new steam schooner being built for the Hart-Wood lumber company in the local yards, has been laid and the work on this vessel will be rushed in order that she may be ready for launching in August. Three logs, each 100 feet in length, were sawed at the Quinault mill for this vessel.
