

WANTED

Notices of For Sale and of the Wants of the Community. Bargains in Everything From Tin Pans to High-Class Dairy Ranches

A Continued Story About Advertising

CHICKS! CHICKS!—Hatching season will soon be here. Give us your order now. We have S. C. White Leghorns and S. C. Rhode Island Reds. All fair sized orders delivered free as far as Lynden. Elso Gelmus, Phone 1813, Lynden. 1-8-ew-3t.

FOR SALE—Horses and Second-hand Buggies. Lynden Livery, Phone M. 21, Lynden. 1-3-tf.

FOUND—Umbrella, near the Fair Grounds. Call or Phone Tribune.

PLUMBING—If in need of work call up COLBY, Phone R372, Lynden. Satisfaction guaranteed. 1-8-tf.

FOR SALE—Good Range. Inquire of J. C. Beach, Lynden. 1-8-tf.

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN locate at Lynden. Dr. J. C. McFadden formerly the president of the State Osteopathic Association and Secretary of the State Medical Examining Board, will be at the Miller Hotel on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 2 until 5 P. M., beginning Monday January, 5th, 1914. 39 1-1-tf.

WANTED—Roomers by the day week or month. Mrs. E. E. Baxter, corner Second and Liberty streets. 1-1-tf.

FARMERS TAKE NOTICE! If you want to dispose of good, No. 1 marketable Beef, Veal, Pork, Mutton Poultry and Eggs, in large or small quantities, at top Market Prices, for CASH, ring up or communicate with Our Market Bureau, Wash. P. O. Box 36, Sunset Phone 364; Farmers Phone 2302. 4-10-tf.

WE HAVE RECEIVED a large shipment of Nut and Lump Coal. Price, $7.25; Lump $7.75 a ton. Lynden Livery, Phone Main 21. 1-1-tf.

FOR SALE—A lot of cedar fence posts. Geo. H. Whipple, Northwood, 2 1-2 miles from Lynden. Phone 4607. 1-1-tf.

If you want a good daily newspaper, you can get the Seattle Sun and The Tribune for $3.50 a year. Subscribe now.

FOR SALE—A couple dozen S. C. well bred Rhode Island pullets. Walter Elder, Phone 902, Lynden. 1-1-tf.

LAUNDRY, Clothes Cleaning and pressing and repairing. Work done promptly and at reasonable prices. A. Brawitt, former Pyro Studio building. 11-27-tf.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Guernsey bull calves and Berkshire pigs. Nels Jacobson, Lynden. dec.11-tf.

FOR RENT—63 acres of land partly orchard, and partly cleared, 1 mile north of Everson. Inquire at Tribune office. 12-4-tf.

FOR SALE—40-acre farm, 5 miles west of Lynden. 25 acres clear. house and barn. Inquire Tribune office. 8-14-tf.

WE HAVE ON HAND a large number of pullets. All sizes and breeds. Pioneer Storage Co., Tel. ephone X702. 11-20-tf.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting items from the many flourishing towns in the county by our own correspondents

LAUREL

Miss Hazel Brand, whose parents have recently moved into this neighborhood, resumed her studies at the Laurel high school on Monday. Miss Etta Martin, of Blaine, was the guest of Miss May Beavert last week, and attended the New Year dance given at Hardin hall. Mr. W. Herington has resigned his position as Sunday School superintendent at the Methodist church and Mr. Hillier has taken his place. The graduates of the Laurel high school were at home during the holidays and visited their old school. A number of Laurel young people attended the mock wedding given by the Wiser Lake Literary Society Friday night. After the wedding a treat was passed around and a charavari followed. Games were then enjoyed until a late hour. Mr. Joe Tobler, of Seattle, arrived Wednesday for a visit with old friends. Edgar Sorenson returned to Seattle Friday to resume his studies at the State University. Mr. and Mrs. Will White, who have been visiting at the White home for some time, left last week for a visit at Mount Vernon before returning to their home at Lynden. Mr. and Mrs. Noah Davenport, who spent their vacation on their place here, have returned to Seattle, where Mr. Davenport is attending the University. Prof. H. O. Button and W. Herington spent Wednesday and Friday visiting neighboring schools. Misses Myrtle and Violet Parker have returned to Bellingham to resume their studies at the Normal. Mr. and Mrs. Poly Dameron and son, of Blanchard, and Mr. and Mrs.

FOR SALE—20 head of hogs, all ages. D. O. McClanahan, 1 1/2 miles west of Glendale school. 1-8-3t.

ANNUAL MEETING. Annual Stockholders Meeting of the Whatcom County Fair Association, Tuesday, January 20, 1914, at 2 P. M., at Jamieson's Hall, Lynden, Washington. GEO. W. FRICK, Secretary. 1-1-3t

I have at all times, notwithstanding my recent illness, been able to attend to all orders for shoe repairing at my harness store. Mr. Frank Steinhauer, an expert shoe maker, is in charge of the shop and we can attend to everything in the way of repairs on harness or boots and shoes at the lowest prices. H. S. Steinhauer. 11-13-16

WANTED—Rugs and Carpets to weave in plain and fancy design. Mrs. H. Kortlever, Phone 4804. 1-1-4t.

WANTED—All kinds of sewing for ladies. Living on the Wilcoxon place at present. Miss A. Heutsinkveld. 1-1-3t.

DRYWOOD FOR SALE—Deliver or on my place. T. L. Riddle Phone 219, Northwood. Oct. 30-16.

FOR SALE—Cow. Three quarters of a mile west of Sam Palmer's. Lee Howard. 11-27

LAUCKHART BROS. Feed Mill is running steadily, attending to the wants of all customers. Good gravel road to the mill. G. A. Sink, miller in charge. Phone 2002. Lynden. 12-18-4t.

IF YOU will use your telephone every day and tell central to connect you with X701—the Banne Creamery, the latest and highest prices for fresh eggs and butter fa will be made known to you. You may see your cream weighed and tested and your eggs graded and get a check for them if you wish; otherwise we will pay every Monday morning. BANNER CREAMERY.

DR. VAN KIRK, Specialist in diseases of the EYE, EAR, NOSE, and THROAT. Glasses accurately fitted. Bellingham Nat'l Bank Building, Bellingham.

FOR SALE—Choice Jersey Bul Calves. B. C. Crabtree.

FOR SALE—Stove Wood, $1.50 a rick. A. P. Burgraff, Phone X462 Lynden. 12-18-5t pd.

FOR SALE—1 1/2 hp. Fairbanks Morse gasoline engine. The Tribune office.

LOOK OUT for the blizzard! Wood orders filled promptly. Frank Becker, Phone X183. 11-13-8t.

HERD RECORD SHEETS—print on good Manila board. Place to record the milk of 20 cows, twice a day, for one month. Printed on both sides. For sale at The Tribune office, 5 cents each or 25 for cord sheet used in all first classes the Bellingham Normal, returned to his studies this week after a two weeks' visit with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Nygren, who have been at Soap Lake for several years, have sold their hotel and will move to Bellingham at once. Mr. Nygren's parents will accompany them here. George Allen, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his work near Acme. Rev. McPhail, of Bellingham, conducted the services at the Baptist church on New Year's eve. After the sermon and music, luncheon was served. Then several present read their favorite Psalm, and at midnight, Miss V. Parker read, "Ring out, Wild Bells," and John Davenport proceeded to ring the new bell recently installed.

ORDER YOUR Berry Plants from the LYNDEN FRUIT GROWERS cord sheet used in all first classes

Mr. Glenn Wolfe returned Saturday to Dayton, Wash., where he is teaching, after spending the holiday vacation with his parents and friends here. Everett Brown has rented the J. W. Maloy property a half mile north of Ferndale and will take possession soon. The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society will meet on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. E. Brown. The new home of N. P. Sorenson is about completed and is one of the most modern country homes in this part of the state. It has steam heating plant, water attachments and is thoroughly up to date. The family expects to move in about Feb. 1. Word has been received from Joseph Thent, who is now in Oregon, that he will move back here soon. Two of the best games of basket ball played this season by the Laurel teams were played with Ferndale Friday evening at Woodman hall. The girls' teams were evenly matched and a good game resulted, the score being 18-5 in favor of Laurel. The Laurel boys also carried off the honors after a hard struggle, the score being 30-21. A game planned with Van Wyck High school will not be played as Van Wyck has disbanded. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sinner entertained a number of their friends at dinner Thursday. Plates were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeLorimer, Mrs. Mary Nelson and daughter, Clara, of Ferndale, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Button, of Laurel, Misses Annie Nossert and Cora Nyman, of Bellingham. N. P. Sorenson was in Vancouver on business the last of the week. Rev. Herrin and family, who have been visiting in Blaine for some time have returned home. Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Borges, of Alaska, of the birth of a son to them, on December 24. Mrs. Borges was well known here as Miss Lizzie Pierce. Miss Opal Gilmore, of Bellingham was a guest at the Stauffer home last Friday. Mrs. Reid and little son, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. George Rice, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keeney, returned last week to her home in Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dean, of Greenwood, spent Thursday as the guests of the Bentley and Rice families. Miss Ruth McDonald returned to Bellingham last week where she will resume her studies at the Normal.

EVERSON

Rev. and Mrs. David Reid, of Hartford, Washington, spent the holidays with Rev. and Mrs. John Reid. Richard Roel, of Seattle, was the guest of his parents on Route One during the holidays. Mrs. Beas Bolander entertained at a very pleasant party Saturday afternoon at which needlework occupied the attention of the guests, who were Misses Bertha and Jessie Simpson, Emma Meurer, Mabel Cyr, Alta and Alma Spedding and Bettie Vingir. Henry Beevink had the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly. Mrs. Perier, of Hopewell, visited friends here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Somers, of Seattle, visited friends here last week. Dr. Beebe, of Bellingham, visited Everson friends Friday. The Nooksack river has been very high during the present week, but no damage has so far resulted. Will Ferguson, of Bellingham, attended the I. O. O. F. ball given here Wednesday night. Mrs. C. S. Kale was ill several days last week. Miss Jessie McCauley and Scott McCauley were guests at the Robert Thompson home over New Year's. Mrs. Beavis returned to her Vancouver home Saturday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Arnell who returned home Monday. Miss Annie Scott returned to her home in Blaine on Sunday, after visiting relatives here during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson entertained the Robert Thompson family at dinner New Year's day.

BOOTH'S CORNERS

Mrs. Williams spent Monday afternoon at Mrs. Nolan's. J. B. Litton visited his mother, and brother, in Blaine for a few days, his mother being quite ill. The Troost young people spent Monday evening at their uncle's, J. Bovendam. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Palmer were New Year' callers at W.W. Palmer's. Grandpa Bovendam spent New Year's day with his daughter, Mrs. John Troost. Mrs. Stradder, of Portland, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. Sather. Mrs. C. E. Meritt was called suddenly to Burlington to attend the funeral of a niece. W. J. Martin, of Sedro-Woolley, visited friends here over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Palmer and Ed Scribner were New Year's guests at J. H. Swope's. Ruth and Raymond Johnson, Harry and Bruce Litton, Laura and Minnie Hutinger, spent Sunday evening at the Wm. Himenover home. Ed Scribner, of Nooksack, visited relatives Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. J. V. Palmer and children visited at J. D. Scrimger's home. Mrs. Ruth Langdale and children of Vancouver visited Mrs. Maude Palmer Saturday. The Love young people spent Tuesday evening at Bovendam's. Mr. Earl Craine and Miss Alice Hutinger were Bellingham visitors Sunday. Miss Tessie Bonema spent Wednesday and Thursday with her friend Hattie Bovendam. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sather entertained at New Year's dinner, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Palmer and family, and Mrs. Strader. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Himenover were guests at Wm. Doan's on New Year's day. Arlie and Vernita Palmer visited the Glendale school Friday. Ruth and Raymond Johnson spent Sunday at J. Tharp's. Charley Love and family spent Friday evening at Lee Howard's. Mrs. Himenover and the Misses Hutinger were Saturday shoppers in Lynden Saturday. They declare a more shopping in Lynden until the streets are paved.

DELTA AND SUNSHINE.

Mrs. Will Kelly was a Bellingham passenger Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Froberg and son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Axlund Sunday. Misses Elizabeth and Ellen Anderson returned to Bellingham Sunday after spending the holidays at home. Mr. and Mrs. John Axling entertained Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Axlund and son at dinner Sunday. The Sewing Society will hold its annual business meeting this week at the home of Mrs. W. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Axling and family were entertained at the John Axling home Sunday. Miss Lillian Pierson came up on Thursday from Bellingham for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Westlund. The W. O. Rathman family moved to Lynden Saturday. Joe Axlund returned Saturday after a short visit with friends in Bellingham. Ole Larson is quite ill at his home here. Mrs. B. A. Axlund visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. Ericson, during the holidays. Harry Tyrall and Richard Stranberry, of Bellingham, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tyrall.

WOODLAND

Mrs. Morrison is visiting Mrs. Dratley. Miss Louise Harter visited Mrs. L. Bronson a few days last week. Misses Ada and Esther Pyeatt and Paul visited the R. H. Eckford family in Blaine over Sunday. Mr. Gilbert returned from Edison last week. Miss Hazel Van Horn was the week-end guest of Miss Ina Pyeatt. Mrs. B. Pyeatt visited her aunt, Mrs. Dow, at Custer, Tuesday. Mrs. Merritt returned Sunday after a visit to Arlington.

THE CHICAGO INTER OCEAN THE FARM AND HOME, and THE LYNDEN TRIBUNE, all three for $1.75 a year.

SCHOOL NOTES

The High School pupils are having the semi-annual tests, the semester examination commencing Wednesday noon and occupying the remainder of the week.

The short course conducted by Prof. P. A. and L. C. Wright and Wm. Fisher, has thirteen members enrolled, and is progressing satisfactorily.

Among the visitors to the Lynden schools last week were Mr. Selby, of Everson, Misses McCoomb Booth and Wright, of Wahl, and several of the high school graduates. Ray Jacobs, Minnie, Frank and Chester Worthen, Reka Oldemyer, Mabel Willey, Mamie Wellhouse, Alvin Pyeatt and Pearl Frost also visited the school during the week.

The juniors are working hard on their selections for the Annual Junior Contest which will be held some time in February. A Principals' meeting will be held in Bellingham Saturday, and plans will be made for the Annual County Declamatory Contest. Last Friday night the basket ball team made another successful excursion in search of scalps. They met Sumas at that place, and won by a score of 25-15. The game was hard fought throughout and the issue was in doubt till almost the last. There is no game scheduled for this week, but efforts are being made to bring the Ferndale boys' and girls' teams here Saturday night. The teachers' play, "Opera in Dixie," at Jamieson's Opera House Friday night.

BIG REDUCTION SALE

on ACCOUNT of REMOVAL

EVERYTHING IN THE STORE

REDUCED

10% to 25%

Special lots of Underwear, Trousers and Shoes at even 40% and 50% off

The Big Prize No.

1884

is still out. Look up your circular and see if you are not the LUCKY ONE. A number of prizes left; bring in your numbers.

THE EFFICIENCY SHOP

-MENS TOGGERY-

JONES & RATHMAN, Props. LYNDEN, WASH.

Teacher's Play

Jamieson's Opera House, Friday, Jan. 9

"DOWN IN DIXIE"

PROGRAM

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Harvey Wells, a Colonel in the Federal Army, - L. C. Wright
George Washington Bangs, a Herald Reporter - John Breckenridge
Major Bradley, of the Confederate Army, - William Fisher
Corporal Hooligan, a true blue Vet. - Ralph Simpson
Hon. C. J. Dusenberry, a member of Congress, - Howard Worthen
Hezekiah Sniffins, a degenerate Yankee - Henry VanderLinden
Uncle Mosley, a faithful slave - P. A. Wright
Billings, Bradley's henchman - August Jacobson
Helen Trevoir, a Southern heiress - Laura Randall
Molly Martin, her lively friend - Caroline Cole
Mrs. Dusenberry, a business woman - Pansy Stuart
Susannah, "Jis a brack Nigger" - lone Fenton

ACT I.--Washington, 1861. War. "Your way lies to north, mine to the south."

ACT II.--The Trevoir Plantation, Virginia, 1864. Captured. "Betrayed! Betrayed by HER."

ACT III.--Libby Prison, Richmond, 1865. Freedom. "Now what do you think of a Yankee's love?"

ACT IV.--The Trevoir Plantation, 1865.--A lapse of a week.--Peace. "And the star-spangled banner in triumph still waves o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."