All voters are invited to attend and get acquainted with the Republican candidates.

Mrs. M. Waples was pleasantly surprised yesterday at her home south of town when about fifteen of her friends called to spend the day with her. The guests provided a bounteous luncheon which was served at noon, and the afternoon was happily passed in social conversation. Mr. and Mrs. Waples have purchased a home on Elk Street and expect to move into town in about two weeks. Mrs. Waples' guests were: Mesdames C. B. Bay, P. A. Clarke, H. Shagren, August Klocke, S. H. Bradley, A. H. Prasser, M. A. Hickey, P. M. Serrurier, H. Suss, W. H. Waples, George Waples, Robert Waples, Curtis, Bay and Margaret Waples. Miss Jennie Waples and Miss Pixler were guests at the Waples home yesterday evening.

Dudley G. Wooten, of Seattle addressed a non-partisan meeting Tuesday evening at Jamieson's Hall on the initiative measures. Mr. Wooten discussed the blue sky, first aid, employment bureau, board of inspection, and eight hour measures, condemning each on the grounds that the legislation is poorly drawn and could better have been handled by representatives of the people gathered in the legislature. He recalled Governor Lister's promise to the people to appoint immediately a commission composed of representatives of capital and labor to draft a first aid bill provided the initiative measure was voted down. In discussing the eight hour law, he spoke of the hardships that will fall on the housewife, farmer, and others, whose work would be handicapped by the measure.

W. H. Waples presided at the meeting.

A STATEMENT TO VOTERS
By W. P. BROWN

Lynden was the home of Walter Fulcher, and it was here that he was guilty of the crime for which he received the measly little sentence of six years, whereas he should have received life, and I thought that here was the place to answer the charge that I had something to do with a petition for pardon or clemency. The statement that I circulated a petition or asked for clemency for Fulcher is absolutely and wholly false and the "short and ugly" is the only answer to those who say I did.

If I was asking for clemency or asking for pardon how does it come that I swore that Hardin did not give Fulcher the sentence he should have given him; that it was no sentence at all when the crime was considered. The J-Prog will not give me the best of anything and in fact it will not do me justice of publishing a reply to the charges it makes and here I what it says in its issue of October 9:

"Brown had no complaint to make of the heavy nature of the sentence. Brown did not feel that Judge Hardin has been too severe on Fulcher. For Brown, having been sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me, God, sitting in the witness chair in Whatcom County court house, testified: I (Brown) SAID FULCHER SLIPPED ONE OVER ON THE JUDGE, THAT I (Brown) WOULD HAVE THROWN THE BOOK AT HIM. What Brown meant by this was that he had been the sentencing judge instead of Judge Ed E. Hardin, he would have given Fulcher the maximum sentence provided by statute."

Of course I did not complain except to say that Fulcher did not get what was coming to him and to wonder just why and I have been wondering since that time just why Hardin's and Bixby's letters are on file at Walla Walla and they tell their own story. Is there a letter of mine there? It is more that passing strange that Hardin and Bixby, the two who did favor Fulcher, are the only ones that "got in on the clemency and pardon business." If I presented a petition to them or asked for clemency what did they do to stop me? Did they give an alarm or try to prevent it? I have not heard of it and yet they are the two men who under oath were to look after your interest and mine. They were on their guard if what they say is right and what did they do?

THE RECORD SHOWS.

Here is what I know about Fulcher: Fulcher was brought before Judge Hardin and there, in the presence of Mr. Bixby, he stated that he did not want an attorney. He received a very, very mild sentence and was sent to jail. After sentence and while Fulcher was in jail was the first conversation I had with him. I had two clients there and while talking with them Fulcher said he wanted to see me before I left. When I talked with him he said that he had weak lungs and was sure that as the jail was damp and cold he would become seriously sick and requested me to "go up stairs" and tell "them" that he was ill and wanted to be taken to Walla Walla or sent to the poor farm or set to work about the jail in order that his health would not be broken down entirely. He said that no matter what he happened to be that he would not be held where it would kill him and the jail would do that. He was sure Walla Walla was a better place for his health, and besides he wanted to begin serving his sentence. He wanted me to tell the officers about his condition and he did not ask otherwise of me. I told Judge Hardin what Fulcher said and we figured the cost of sending Fulcher to Walla Walla and bringing him back to testify in a case that was about to be tried and for which Fulcher was being held. I was told to go to Mr. Bixby and tell him what Fulcher had said and to say that "the court will assign the case Fulcher is to testify in on next Saturday" and that Mr. Bixby could get out a subpoena and hold him. I told Mr. Bixby what Judge Hardin and Fulcher said. The day Fulcher was taken to Walla Walla he asked me to write a letter to a minister and I wrote it and that is the extent of my services for "Fulcher the Rapist."

In other words, a prisoner, who as Judge Hardin says "was slim and frail" wanted word taken to the officers about his condition and I took it, and I would tell officers of the sufferings of any man. Yes I swore at the time they say I was active that I would have thrown the book at Fulcher and I would have done so and not give him the very smallest sentence the law allows and then write a letter which came very near getting him out within one year.

To bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osgood, who will leave next week for California, the Amphitheater club met Friday evening at the Osgood home. Five Hundred was played at four tables, and refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames D. Huleatt, Ray Slade, Robert Rittenberg, Wm. Meurer, Charles Gehrman, John Gehrman, Charles Busbard and James Zylstra.
