The usual terms will prevail. A free lunch will be served at noon.

Its Only Guise.

New diseases or new cures are all ways of interest to the reading public. Therefore an enthusiastic reporter believed a story lay in waiting because of a rumor that germs of a new disease had been discovered. He located the doctor responsible for the find and questioned him.

"In what guise," he asked, "do these germs appear?" The doctor smiled. "You needn't be afraid," he said. "This is to be a fashionable disease and will appear only in the guys with money."—New York Tribune.

Outside Masons Attend Meeting.

Bellingham and Nooksack Masons attended the initiation Monday night of Leonard Groner, and enjoyed a chicken supper prepared and served by Mrs. George Hall and Miss Tilda Tromp. The hall was decorated in blue and white, and blue and white place cards were used on the tables.
