WANTS ENTRIES NOW FOR COUNTY FAIR

A short, sharp call for entries of exhibits for the 1915 Whatcom County Fair Oct. 5 to 9 was sounded today.

"We are particularly anxious to get our entries in early," said George W. Frick, secretary of the fair association, today. "We will be able to give far better service now, than in the last few days, when we will be naturally rushed. We urge all to send in their entries this week, especially the schools of the county, which have so many listings to make. We will then return the entry tags at once, so that no time will be lost and no confusion will result."

But one month remains now until the Fair gates swing open, and interest in it throughout the county is steadily increasing. A strong fight for important premiums will be put up by the Sumas, Nooksack, Everson and Ferndale districts, and Blaine, Custer, Acme, Maple Falls and other points will be leading contenders for honors in all fields.

The Tribune now has a supply of premium lists on hand for distribution.

ONLY ONE FAIR IN WHATCOM COUNTY.

—From the Bellingham Argus.

Within a few weeks we will all be or should be attending the big county fair. * * * The men of Lynden are all live wires. They have given the very best in them to build up a fair for this county that is a credit not only to their efforts but to the county as a whole. George W. Frick, the secretary, is one of the most tireless workers the county has and the men who have stood behind him are equally a unit with him in their efforts. Whatcom county should to a man stand behind their efforts. The buildings are all that can be expected. The track is one of the fastest dirt tracks in the Pacific Northwest today, and the class of racing stock which has rapidly been brought to the front is surprisingly good. Eastern experts who visited last year's fair were loud in their praises, and Professor Robinson, of the State Fair of Ohio, told a representative of the Argus that of all the smaller Western fairs he had taken in that year (1914) the Lynden fair was absolutely beyond them all, especially in its exhibit of graded stock. One of the methods by which the exhibition can be made a success is for local merchants and manufacturers to put in good exhibits of their goods. The buy-in-Washington idea can be brought home to many thousands of people in this way more clearly and forcibly than at any other time. Whatcom county has many manufacturers of one sort and another, as, for instance, gasoline engines for farm use from clearing land to running a churn. These placed in demonstrating order should prove a big thing for the manufacturer as well as the community. The dairy and cheese factories could give demonstrations of their work from the cow to the can, while fruit canneries and many other manufacturers could do equally well. By all means get in on this big Whatcom county advertising and booster stunt, and if you can't at least don't knock it by trying to start opposition fairs which only hurt and do no good to anyone, least of all those who try the "buttitia" stunt.

The friends of Albert De Young were delighted to see him return Monday from the hospital in Bellingham. He is recovering his strength fast, and will be able to resume his position at the Lynden Department Store next week.

TEACHING YOUTH.

Instruction is the means to expel rudeness, with which young wits ought to be well furnished in schools, but so as that their teaching be—1, truth; 2, full; 3, clear; 4, solid.

1. It will be true if nothing be taught but such as is beneficial to one's life, lest there be a cause of complaining afterward. We know not necessary things because we have not learned things necessary.
2. It will be full if the mind be polished for wisdom, the tongue for eloquence and the hands for a neat way of living. This will be that grace of one's life—to be wise, to act, to speak.
3. 4. It will be clear, and by that firm and solid, if whatever is taught and learned be not obscure or confused, but apparent, distinct and articulate as the fingers on the hands.—Johann Amos Comenius.

LYNDEN TWELVE YEARS BACK

(Pilot, Sept. 3, 1903)

Pheasant season opens Sept. 1, bag limit ten birds. It is lawful to kill bears at any time.

The Whatcom County Fair Association failed to make expenses at its recent fair, running $63.50 short. Receipts were $5,190.50.

The Kildall Mercantile Co. has purchased the old Plummer grist mill and will move it to a site near the depot.

The general superintendent of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Co. was in Whatcom this week considering the proposed extension of the company's line to Lynden.

Ed Austin, S. L. Palmer, Bert Nace and M. F. Palmer are expected back this week from their trip to California by team.

Warren Hawley is to be carried on Route 1 out of Lynden, commencing the middle of September.

End of Warfare May Usher In a Period of Reconstruction of Governments

By H. G. WELLS, Noted English Author

It is not too much to expect that the end of the war will prepare the way for a very grave and extensive series of attempts to reconstruct the belligerent governments upon the lines and suggestions of these experiences. In other words, it will prepare the coming of a period of revolution.

TOWARD WHAT FORMS WILL THE REVOLUTIONARY FORCES OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY DRIVE? HERE IT IS THAT A MAN'S DESIRES AND PERSUASIONS AND FEARS MOST BLIND AND CONFUSE HIM.

The world is sick of dynasts, but also it is sick of party politicians. The dream of strong men dictators is the dream of despair. Democracy has still to work out some method of discussing its affairs more satisfactorily than the newspaper. It has to determine upon some way of choosing its rulers, some electoral method that is proof against the manipulation of the party organization.

With every step away from individualism toward social organization the need for these solutions becomes more urgent. But this is an intellectual task, and the popularization of constructive ideas is a process much more subtle and less calculable than the development of revolutionary effort. THAT THERE WILL BE A VAST REVOLUTIONARY EFFORT TOWARD REPUBLICANISM AND A HIGHER LEVEL OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION AS THE OUTCOME OF THIS WAR IS ALMOST A CERTAIN THING, but what that effort will achieve, how far it may not be tricked, misled, divided against itself and defeated, lies among the dramatic secrets of the future.

WARREN HAWLEY NAMED CO-OPERATIVE MANAGER

Warren Hawley was elected manager of the Lynden Cooperative Company to succeed Conrad Axling at a meeting of the stockholders Saturday. Shares in the company were reduced at the same time to $25, and the number increased.

Mr. Axling desired to withdraw as manager for some time, and the purchase of the Hawley Brothers plant and the reorganization of the company gave him an opportunity to do so.

Mr. Axling was the first president of the Cooperative Co., and as its manager made a splendid business record, and won many friends, who will be sorry to see him give up active work for the company.

A large addition has been added to Hawley Brothers' store for the use of the Cooperative Company, which will continue in charge of both the Front Street and Third Street locations for some time.

Warren Hawley, the new manager, built up the firm of Hawley Brothers in a space of three years, and is rated as one of the best men in his line in the county.

"Our hobby in the new store will be service," said Mr. Hawley today. "With our warehouse, feed mill, and stock of building materials in addition to the regular grocery line, we will be able to supply most of the wants of the farmers. We are going to do our best to deserve the trade of not only the old customers of Hawley Brothers and the Cooperative, but many new ones as well."

Ray Slade will continue in charge of the bookkeeping department. James Zystra will manage the grocery department, and Charles True will continue with the company probably as manager of the warehouse and feed department.

One important change that will be made will be the change from a cash to a credit basis.

L. A. JONES, NEW PHONE SECRETARY, TAKES OFFICE

L. A. Jones, new secretary of the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company took office Wednesday succeeding H. E. Stuart. The office of the company has been moved to the Taylor and Riddle building at Third and Front Streets.

Mr. Jones made an excellent record in executive and educational work before coming to Lynden. He is a graduate of the Normal School and the University of Washington of the class of 1905. He has taught at Acme, Clearbrook and Nooksack in Whatcom County, and held a position as United States Commissioner in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their family are living at Third and Grover Streets.

In the presence of a few friends, Mrs. M. R. Glenn and Mr. Oscar DeLong, both of Seattle, were united in marriage Sunday at high noon at the Trinity M. E. church. The Rev. E. N. Askey officiated. Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Louis Gloman sang, "I Love You Truly," while during the service Miss Horst played softly on the organ. Later the bridal party repaired to the home of Dr. Katherine Gloman, where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. DeLong left in the evening for Seattle to reside.—American-Review.

Mrs. Glenn has many friends in Lynden. She has been a guest of Mrs. Mollie Stark Williams frequently.

One important change that will be made will be the change from a cash to a credit basis.

This Country Faces a Labor Famine When European War Is Ended

By FREDERIC C. HOWE, Commissioner of Immigration at the Port of New York

A BIG shortage in labor—amounting possibly to a famine—is one of the results of the war which the United States may be called upon to face. This shortage will be in those branches of industry which employ foreign born or alien hands and will extend through both the skilled and the unskilled classes.

THE EXTENT OF THE DEARTH AND ITS DURATION WILL DEPEND UPON THE RELATIVE ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OF EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES IN THE PERIOD IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE CLOSE OF THE WAR.

Europe will certainly have to utilize the surplus of women for many of the tasks which have formerly been done by males, but it seems unlikely that the deficiency can be thus met. Therefore wages must rise. Higher wages abroad will cut off immigration excepting of the Jews, and if the Russian government modifies its treatment of the Jews then we shall have fewer Jewish emigrants.

In addition to these economic conditions, all of the governments will be apt to take steps to conserve their remaining citizens. Thus the chances for continued supply of aliens is remote unless the United States SHOULD RAISE WAGES TO SUCH A DEGREE AS TO OVERCOME THE INCREASES ABROAD, BUT THIS INCREASE WOULD NEEDS BE SO LARGE AS TO BE PROHIBITIVE.

County News

Sumas has just paid $300 worth of warrants issued in 1893. The owner had forgotten he possessed them.

Whatcom County will be interested in the announcement that British Columbia will vote on prohibition shortly.

Ferndale will have its school levy lowered three mills next year, or from 12 to 9 mills.

Fifty Ferndale young men have organized and have asked permission to form a company of Coast Artillery.

Sixteen thousand black speckled trout have been planted in Lake Whatcom.

A labor day parade will be held in Bellingham Monday, Sept. 6.

Six miles of the permanent survey of the Bellingham, Mount Baker and Spokane railroad has been completed from Bellingham Eastward.

The county commissioners have decided to appoint a charity officer for the county at a salary of $75 a month. The work is now being handled by F. E. Wyman and Mrs. Cline, whose salaries total $125 a month.

CUSTER AND VICINITY

The Custer ball team defeated the Silver Beach team on the local grounds Sunday by a score of ten to nothing. This is the first shut-out the team has played this season. Next Sunday the boys go to Sumas for a game.

Mrs. A. F. Stone and family have returned from Hamilton where they have been visiting for some time.

The Custer school opened Monday morning with a large attendance. The same teachers are here this year who taught last year.

T. S. Berkeley and family who have been camping at Birch Bay for some time have returned to their home here.

A large number of Custer people chartered a truck and motored to White Rock, B. C. last week where they picnicked for a day.

Mrs. G. A. Rogers who has been ill for some time is reported to be improving.

Frank Marsh is still confined to his bed but is expected to be in better shape in a short time.

Gems In Verse

OLD FAVORITES.

THE HAND THAT RULES THE WORLD.

THEY say that man is mighty, he governs land and sea; He wields a mighty scepter o'er lesser powers that be; By a mightier power and stronger man from his throne is hurled; And the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

BLESSINGS ON THE HAND OF WOMAN! Angels guard its strength and grace, In the palace, cottage, hovel—oh, no matter where the place! Would that never storms assailed it, rainbows ever gently curled, For the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

INFANCY'S tender fountain, power may with beauty flow; Mother's first to guide the streamlets, from their souls unresting grow; Grow on for the good or evil, sunshine streamed or darkness hurled, For the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

WOMAN, how divine your mission here upon our natal sod! Keep, oh, keep, the young heart open always to the breath of God! All true trophies of the ages are from mother love imperied, For the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

BLESSINGS on the hand of woman! Fathers, sons and daughters cry, And the sacred song is mingled with the worship in the sky—Mingles where no tempest darkens, rainbows evermore are curied, For the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

REMEMBRANCE.

MY mind lets go a thousand things Like dates of wars and deaths of kings, And yet recalls the very hour: 'Twas noon by yonder village tower, And on the last blue noon in May The wind came briskly up this way, Crisping the brook beside the road; Then, pausing here, set down its load Of pine scents and shook listlessly, Two petals from that wild rose tree.

—Thomas Bailey Aldrich.

100 MORE STUDENTS AT LYNDEN SCHOOLS

That the enrollment of the Lynden public schools will increase more than 100, is indicated by the registration returns of the first week.

One hundred and eighteen students are now attending high school, 51 the ninth grade, and 320 the grammar and primary classes. One hundred and fourteen students enrolled at high school Monday, as compared with 72 the first day last year. The grammar school total is fifty more than last year's.

The consolidation with Fairview, the heightened interest in school work in the district, and the increase in the population is believed to have caused the advance in enrollment.

Friday, a first home coming day for graduates and former students will be celebrated at the new high school, at which time the alumni will be welcomed.

A pretty and thoughtful compliment was paid on the opening day by Mrs. M. L. Jackman, who sent a huge bouquet of asters for each room in the schools.
