

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A marriage license was issued Monday to Firman D. White and Emma Wetzel both of Lynden.

The Rev. E. Breen has returned from his visit in Montana and Canada.

Mary Worthen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Worthen, is ill this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Erz of Bellingham visited in Lynden Monday and Tuesday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Reformed Church will hold a needlework sale Friday, Nov. 19 at 1 p. m. in the Consistory.

Charles Galbraith received his fine 1916 Studebaker car this week, the first of its kind in the county, he says.

The Rev. J. G. Brouwer has received a call from Grandville, Mich. He has five weeks in which to accept.

Funeral services were held Wednesday for John Bovendam, age 84, who passed away at his home Monday. The Rev. E. Breen officiated in the presence of many friends of the Bovendam family.

An important transaction for the farmers of the district was the shipping of 162 hogs last week by W. H. Waples to the Seattle market. Nearly $2,000 was paid local men for the animals. Mr. Waples expects to ship another carload next week.

The Rev. Fred Alban Weil of Bellingham begins his winter series of sermons Sunday evening, Nov. 21 promptly at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the local Unitarian Society. Mr. Weil's subject will be "Preparedness." All are invited to attend.

Sipka Hemstra and Miss Flossina Dyksterhuis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Dyksterhuis, were married this morning by the Rev. E. Breen. A reception will be held this evening at the Dyksterhuis residence.

See what Armstrong-Hammond Co. says in their ad this week.

The Woodmen had a delightful card party Tuesday night in Hawley's Hall. Whist was played at seven tables, and Jack Gae showed some splendid scenic views of Whatcom and Skagit counties.

Frank Stieren is ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLeod are the parents of a boy born Nov. 15.

Mr. De Fries on the Slotmaker place had his head cut Saturday when a board fell on him.

Dr. D. Mulder had the pleasure of a visit this week from his brother John Mulder of Los Angeles. Dr. and Mrs. Mulder plan to visit California shortly.

There will be a musical concert by the Lynden Holland Band at the Christian Reformed Church on Thanksgiving night. Everybody invited. No admission will be charged.

County Treasurer Nellie Rogers is calling attention to the fact that the last half of the taxes for 1914 must be paid on or before Nov. 30, to avoid delinquent tax interest.

Men and women will be interested in the ready-to-wear sale announced for this week by the Lynden Department Store. Details are given on Page 5.

Kenneth Heun will play two numbers on a program at the First Baptist Church in Bellingham Friday night.

Heun's 4-piece orchestra will give a prize dance Thursday, Nov. 25 at Hawley's Hall.

Mrs. H. C. Forsythe of Seattle, accompanied by her daughter, Irma, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. George Gustin. Mrs. Forsythe lived in Lynden twenty-five years ago, and this is her first visit since leaving. Old settlers will remember her as Neuma King.

Miss Nellie Veleke is working in Bellingham.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Agnes Tremala, Friday, Nov. 26 at 2 p. m. This will be a mothers' meeting in charge of Mrs. C. E. Jacobs and all mothers of young children are especially invited to attend.

Dr. M. H. Marvin who is speaking in the Methodist Church each evening is interesting many Lynden people by his forceful messages. This evening he will lead a discussion on "The Advantages of Church Membership." Verbal questions will be invited. Dr. Marvin will speak Saturday night and at both services Sunday.

O. J. Bylsma, Ed Hoekstra and Messrs. Roubos and Van Dam returned this week from the Willamette Valley. The last three were pleased with the land that they will move there after Jan. 1.

An interesting event in fraternal circles was that of the large class adoption by the Brotherhood of American Yeomen at Hawley's Hall Monday evening. The hall was artistically decorated with evergreens and the Yeomen colors. The beautiful Ivanhoe initiatory work was exemplified by Whatcom Homestead's degree staff. After the initiation a banquet was served by the Lynden Yeomen followed by dancing. The Bellingham people were loud in their praises for the royal welcome given them by the Lynden B. A. Y. About sixty Bellingham people were in attendance. The nine new members are Mr. and Mrs. E. Wiese, Mrs. Nolan, Miss Smith, and Messrs. Pixley, Tremain, Gerlach, Ramsey and Worlow.

Buy your family a Yeomen certificate for Christmas. 85c to $1 a month gives your family $1,000 insurance, 14 accident benefits and old age pensions. Deputy Percy will return Thursday to organize a class of 40 to take part in our Christmas dance and good times.

The Substituted Egg. "There was a clever reporter," said a lawyer, "who used to do the Albany legislature. If a session promised to be long the reporter would refresh himself with a hard boiled egg. Taking the egg from his pocket, he would open it and drop the shells into the crown of his hat, which he held between his knees. He would finish this hurried repast before any one knew what he was doing. But on April 1 the boys couldn't resist playing a joke on their egg eating friend. They substituted for his hard boiled egg a raw one. Oh, what a mess there was, to be sure, when in the midst of an important debate the poor reporter hastily broke that egg in his hat!"—Buffalo Express.

A Gem of Chirography. The illegibility of Horace Greeley's handwriting was notorious, but he has a formidable rival in Joseph Choate. Choate wished to obtain designs for a chimney piece for a new house he was having built from a certain artist, but being unable to get what he wanted wrote to the builder telling him to cancel the order. Instead the workmen immediately began the chimney piece. The builder had taken Choate's letter to be a rough sketch of it.—New York Sun.
