VIVIAN MARTIN IN "THE LITTLE DUTCH GIRL."

VIVIAN MARTIN IN "THE LITTLE DUTCH GIRL."

In the World Film Corporation's five-part photoplay "The Little Dutch Girl," Vivian Martin, the personification of diminutive winsomeness, grace and beauty on the screen, has a part which will surely delight her countless admirers in film fandom. Miss Martin has made a personal success in all of the World Film offerings in which she has appeared, and in "The Little Dutch Girl," she makes a delightful addition to the list.

As "The Little Dutch Girl," she develops from a homeless little Holland foundling into a pretty maiden whose foster father dies, leaving her alone in the world with a few coins, a cottage and a flower garden. She attracts the love of an artist, but in returning it she finds that her ideal is of very common clay. So the poor little Dutch girl goes away and dies.

It is a poem as well as a picture, with very pleasing views and sets, and a cast of clever actors and actresses to support the beautiful young star, Vivian Martin.

"The Little Dutch Girl" will be shown at the Electric Theater Tuesday night.

If you are a Hollander you should see this picture.

Admission 10 and 15 cents
