No. 44

DELTA TO ENFORCE HERD LAW STRICTLY

To protect the roads and traffic, Delta Township is beginning the enforcement of a herd law which prohibits all stock from running at large on the township roads. The prohibitory order does not apply to milk cows from Apr. 1 to Nov. 1.

Pound-masters have been appointed, and the township officials will carry out the law vigorously. Most of the townships have similar laws, but have proved lax in administering them.

The following notice was issued this week by the Delta supervisors: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

A reminder is hereby given that the herd law now in force in Delta Township, Whatcom Co., Wash., prohibits all stock at any time to run at large upon the public highways of said township, except milk cows, which said herd law allows to run at large only from the first of April to the first of November of each year. The Board of Supervisors will enforce said law strictly.

By order of the Board of Supervisors.

JOHN AXLING, Clerk

Dated this 19th day of April, 1916. 4-20-16

Announce Easter Song Services

Special services in keeping with the Easter season are being planned by the Methodist Church for next Sunday, both morning and evening, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to join with the church members in making these services an inspiration and a blessing to the community. The first service will be a sun-rise prayer-meeting at 6:30, conducted by the Epworth League. About forty attended a similar service here last year on Easter Sunday morning, and many people in the neighborhood of the church will no doubt remember of having heard the joyous Easter songs which were sung on the church steps just at sunrise. An especially urgent invitation is extended to the young people of Lynden to attend this sunrise meeting.

At 11 o'clock the regular morning service will be held. The music program will include a solo by Mrs. L. C. Wright, and Lorenz's anthem, "The Birds in Chorus Singing," sung by the choir, with incidental parts by Mrs. Mark Hammond and Miss Grace Headrick. Rev. Ashby's topic for the sermon will be, "The Supreme Message."

In the evening a unique service of story and song will be given by the pastor, the choir and a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hammond, Mrs. L. C. Wright, and Mr. Gerrit Schuylerman. The story "Love Triumphant" is that of the first Easter tide, and has been adapted from "Tor, the street boy of Jerusalem," by Florence Morse Kingsley. It is well written, and intensely interesting, picturing in a most vivid manner the scenes incident to the trial, crucifixion and resurrection of the Christ. Beautiful music is interwoven with the story, emphasizing the pathos and reality of the various scenes.

It Is the Part of Common Prudence to Prepare For Protection

By ATLEE POMERENE, Senator From Ohio

When dangers arise in our municipalities or in our states, as prudent men we increase our means of protection against riot and disorder. Ought we not for the same reason, when some of the belligerents are sinking vessels in violation of every principle of international law and humanity and other belligerents are interfering with our commerce under the plea of military necessity, have a reasonably sufficient navy and army to protect the lives and property of our people against the aggressions of nations that are PAYING NO RESPECT FOR THE RULES WHICH CONTROL THE INTERCOURSE AMONG THE FAMILY OF NATIONS?

I hope war may never come, but I would regard myself as derelict in the duty I owe to the people of the state and nation if I did not heed the lesson of the hour and provide accordingly. If unfortunately we should become involved in war within the next three or four years and were not prepared what criticism would be heaped upon the heads of the legislature and executive departments if we had failed in the face of the warnings we have had of impending dangers?

I AM SPEAKING ONLY OF PREPAREDNESS FOR DEFENSE. I AM OPPOSED TO PREPARATION FOR A WAR OF AGGRESSION.

SCHOOL SINGERS TO GIVE CINDERELLA TONIGHT

Promptly at 8:15 this evening at Jamieson's Opera House the high school orchestra will break forth into the strains of "The Dawn of Beauty," and from that time until the curtain drops, the audience will be in fairyland, the land of "once upon a time."

"The Five Knights," a delightful song play, will be given by picked voices from the primary grades. The following is the cast:

Maude Walker, Mother; Paul Ashby, Child; Teddy Harkness, 1st Knight; Walter Miller, 2nd Knight; Ivan Jamieson, 3rd Knight; Richard Tremain, 4th Knight; Marcus Hammond, 5th Knight.

Chorus—Bobby Waples, Archibald Seat, Earnest Barendse, Vera Cooley, Dorothy Day, Leona Gale, Beulah Serrurier, Margaret Shagren, Donald Cruikshank, Florence Miller, Evelyn Ecker, Elsie Parrish, George Vanderyacht, Georgia Redd, Ruby McGinnis, Beatrice Klipp, Francis Wood, Mildred Fountain, Harold Stuart, Walter LeCompte, Teddy Dean, Robert Rittember.

"The Golden Slipper," an opera in three acts, tells the story of Cinderella in song and play. The musical selections are tuneful and pleasing throughout, and the Girls' Glee Club has something really worth while to offer. The parts are especially well taken, a number of the girls showing real talent. The costumes and scenery are both attractive features.

The following is "The Golden Slipper" cast: Madame Arrogant, Cecelia Hahaway; Frieda and Julia, her daughters, Helen Boerhave and Alberta Hen; Madge, a ward of Madame Arrogant, Esther Hawley; Princess Otilla, Viola Jensch; Old Mother Cronin, Orel Hochman; Lady Rosamund, Alma Becker; Lady Revere, Jessie Russo; Lady Osmund, Eunice Howard; Mercedes, Fern Stuart; Daisy, Genevieve Steinhauer; Rose, Louise Jackman.

Chorus—Frances Bloom, Marie Bauman, Ethel Storrey, Blanche Jacobs, Ethel Leming, Lucille Eckert, Lena Walker, Gladys Jacobs, Mabel Steffe, Bertha Zysset, Mary Lusco, Leona Fuller, Katherine Lindhout, Ruth Oakes, Dorothy Pace.

The orchestra is a new feature of the school, and will be a splendid addition to this musical evening. The members of the orchestra are: Violins, Wanda Saxauer and Lemuel McDaniel; cornet, Gertrude Schuylerman; piano Hilda Elder.

Miss Edith Gilliland is directing the entire performance, assisted by Miss Cole in "The Five Knights."

Friday afternoon at the Fair Grounds a track meet was held between the classes of the High School. The contest for first place was very close between the Senior, Junior and Freshman classes, the result being in doubt until the finish of the relay race which was won by the Freshmen and gave them the meet with 45 points, the Juniors being a close second with 44 points and the Juniors were a good third with 42 points. The Sophomores failed to secure a point.

While no world's records were broken at this meet, some good work was done by several of the boys and Coach Rocky was given an opportunity to get a line-up on those who will represent Lynden in the County meet here May 6. From the showing made Friday, Lynden will have a well balanced team and will be a strong contender for the championship.

H. A. Stauffer is suffering from blood-poisoning in his right arm.

George A. Lee

Candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. Lee is one of a field of eight in the race.

Lynden butter is being advertised extensively in Seattle now. The following is a sample ad from the Seattle Star: "Have you tried Lynden Butter? For those who can discriminate. Not always the cheapest but always the best. At your dealer's. If your dealer can't supply you phone Elliot 3203, we know who does."

LYNDEN COW SELLS FOR RECORD PRICE

Six hundred dollars was the record price paid for a Lynden cow this week. Andrew Benson sold Maple Lane Daisy Pieterje, a 6-yr. old Holstein for that price to F. S. Stimson of the Hollywood Farm, setting what is believed to be a top mark in the history of Whatcom County thoroughbred stock. Maple Lane Dairy gave 17,000 pounds of milk during the past year, but Mr. Benson believes that the Hollywood experts will be able to increase the yield to 20,000 pounds. In a seven day test, she gave 24.28 pounds of butter out of 643.3 pounds of milk. Mr. Benson returned Monday after delivering the animal to her new owners.
