Mrs. Charlotte Heun will give a violin recital with her pupils next Friday evening, July 14th. Watch next week's issue of this paper for program and further particulars.

Peter Rickenbacher has purchased the Anderson place of 56 acres one mile west of the Bridgeview farm.

Wilder R. Jones, proprietor of the Efficiency Shop, was notified today that he had been appointed Master of The Tape Line by the Royal Tailors. He will receive a handsome gold Royal Tiger watch fob, and a diploma, and will have his photograph included in a book soon to be issued by the big custom tailoring house. The award is made for efficiency in taking measures for tailored clothes.

Six free season tickets to the Chautauque will be given away under a unique plan adopted by the local committee this week. When a Chautauque ticket is sold, the buyer receives a neat Chautauque button to be worn conspicuously on the lapel or dress. The button is numbered, and buttons with duplicate numbers have been issued. Not only does the man who finds the wearer of his duplicate receive a free season ticket, but the button-owner found also gets one. So "Button, Button, Who's Got My Button?" will be a popular sport in Lynden during the next few weeks.

Dr. S. S. Howe, Oculist and Aurist. At Dr. Mounter's office Tuesdays. Glasses accurately fitted.

W. R. C. NOTES

Full arrangements were made at the July 1 meeting to entertain the W. R. C. ladies from Bellingham on July 15. A committee was appointed to see about the dinner, but we do not want anyone to feel that there is nothing for her to do, for there is plenty for all to lend a helping hand. Above all else do not forget that basket full of good things to eat that all are urged to bring. No one was reported on the sick list. Mrs. Love is improving. Where are all our members that we do not have a better attendance? Wake up and come. Do not forget the dinner date, July 15. All comrades are invited.

Lynden Chautauque, July 21-27.
