

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Everett Hawley and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Hawley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gosch.

William Geritsen of North Yakima was a guest at the R. B. Le Cocq home over Sunday.

John Vandevyacht is acting as marshal in the absence of Jake Le Cocq, who is taking a vacation.

Heun's four piece orchestra will give the first of a series of 25ct. dances in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday night.

Rev. C. Helms of Seattle will preach at the Reformed Church on Grover St. Sunday at 10 a. m., 1.30 p. m. and 8 p. m.

A community meeting to organize a parent-teachers club, or a literary society for the winter, will be held at the Sunshine School Saturday night. Miss Ethel Everett, county superintendent of schools, will speak on "Community Interests," and a program will be given. All are invited to attend.

In a hall prettily decorated with colorful streamers and autumn flowers and leaves, the Katawas entertained delightfully Friday evening with a dancing party. Heun's orchestra furnished the music. The dance was the first of the winter season, and was largely attended.

Frank Muenscher lost 400 bushels of oats in a fire Monday afternoon. Muenscher was engaged in thrashing at the time the grain caught fire. His barn was threatened, but contrary to reports, was not burned.

Miss Tilda Tromb returned Sunday from Bellingham, and is now convalescing at her home following her recent operation.

Wider Jones, city treasurer, returned Tuesday from Olympia, where he attended to the transfer in connection with the refunding of the city's bonds.

John W. De Neuf completed last week the building of a splendid new barn, thoroughly modern with concrete floors, and the remodeling of his home. Mr. De Neuf has one of the finest places in the district.

D. C. Reinsdell has sold his five acre place to H. Van der Hoek for $815. The place is improved with a good house, and chicken houses.

A splendid jitney lunch was served by the ladies of the Relief Corps election day.

In response to the following invitation:

"On Thursday at two
We will gladly greet you,
Where the Bay and Beach meet Down on Front Street,"

a number of ladies gathered at the Beach residence on Front Street. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow and white flowers, which color scheme was used for favors, score cards and refreshments. A very pleasant afternoon was spent at cards, Mrs. Ray Slade winning the high score prize and Mrs. Jas. Zylstra the consolation.

In a unique guessing game of words found in the letters of yellow and white, Mrs. Will Vander Griend and Mrs. De Long tied for high prize and Mrs. Frick received the consolation. Several very appropriate costumes graced the occasion. The following were present: Mesdames Serrurier, Vie Bussard, James Zylstra, Le Cocq, Rusco, P. A. Wright, Bender, Larson, Dunke, Frasier, Frick, Wilder Jones, Mollie Stark-Williams, Hammond, Blonden, Carlson, W. H. Waples, Geo. Waples, Parrott, McLeod, Knapp, De Long, Moulter, Wood, Harvey Sade, L. Engel, Ray Sade, Baldwin, Anderson, Wm. Vander Griend, Shaaren, Henningsway, Klocke, Hal, Mulder, Geiselt, Eekles, Letting, Janison, W. H. Elder, Henry Elder, Ashby, Weber, Helde, Craighad, Mary Jones, Hale, Baxter, Huleatt, Harvey South, Blecker, A. McDaniel, Jess Stark, Jake Zylstra and Sommers.

Lynden is getting a fine brand of motion pictures now. Clean, pleasant plays with such famous actors as Edgar Selwyn, John Mason and Mary Pickford are scheduled for this week and next.

Mayor D. W. Bender owns a cat that is death on snakes. One day last week, it killed three, declares and affirms Bender.

Seattle, Sept. 14—Louis Larson, a Lynden boy, has been able to enter the Seattle Y. M. C. A. Wireless School at 16 years of age, though the usual age requirement for admission is 18. He was able to do this on account of his special preparation and fitness for the work.

The wireless school course, which he is taking, is a five months course, covering the work of wireless telegraphy thoroughly. This course fits young men to pass the government examination and take up wireless work as an operator on either land or ship stations. Opportunities for employment in this line are excellent as the school has not been able to supply men as fast as graduates have been called for. The salaries received for this kind of work vary from $55 a month and keep to $100 and keep.

John Verduin fell off a horse Saturday and injured himself seriously.

Timothy hay sold for $13 a ton and cows as high as $60 at the Michel sale Wednesday. Prices were considerably above the average, and the sale was spirited throughout. M. Vander Griend was the auctioneer.

The Lynden Holland Band pleased a large audience Saturday night with a splendid concert on Front Street.

Herbin Benson and Marius Vander Griend, stock-judging team of the Lynden High School will represent Whatcom County at the Washington State Fair at North Yakima Sep. 18 to 23. They will compete with teams from other schools in the State for the championship. Miss Mabel Steffe, winner of the county sewing honors at the Fair last year, will also be a member of the Whatcom County team. They will leave for North Yakima Tuesday, and will return Saturday.

The Katawa Cub met last evening at the Jasper Seat home.

Articles of incorporation of the A. No. 1 Garage were filed with the county auditor Wednesday. The incorporators are C. E. Gilbert, Maude Gilbert and G. W. Robertson. The capitalization is $2,500. The new firm will be located in the Miller Hotel building.

At the request of many Lynden auto owners, I have taken over the Redder vulcanizer, and am prepared to do guaranteed tire repairs at low prices. Wm. A. Bauman. 9-14-16-0
