

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A. M. Riddle was sick this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boerhave are spending the week in Seattle.

Born Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Assink, a ten pound boy.

The Woodmen of the World enjoyed a watermelon supper Tuesday night, followed by a round of old-fashioned dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Farnham of Rockford, Iowa, arrived Wednesday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eder.

Mrs. R. J. Leo and three children, who have been visiting in Lynden, returned to their home in Portland Thursday. Mrs. Leo is a daughter of Mrs. C. J. Worthen.

Mr. and Mrs. David Larson and daughter Gertrude, and Misses Myrtle Kennedy and Esther Hawley returned to Blaine Sunday evening after a brief visit with relatives and friends in Lynden.

The Royal Neighbors surprised Mrs. Rachel Smith at her home Wednesday afternoon and were entertained by selections of music on the graphophone and singing. A light lunch was served at the close of the afternoon, and the guests had their pictures taken. Those present were Mesdames A. Young, A. H. Frasier, W. Baldwin, J. Treman, Sr., O. Ehle, G. White, E. Horton, M. Horton, E. Hawley, H. Satzgarber, W. Ashton, Cheney, Berthausen, Krouse and Baxter.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. M. L. Jackman, Friday, Sept. 29. Members will please note the day, the change being made on account of the Sunday School convention held the 27th and 28th.

Tuesday afternoon a number of the friends and neighbors of Mrs. W. M. O'Day gave her a surprise in honor of her birthday. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in social visiting and the ladies made themselves busy with needle work. Refreshments were served to music on the phonograph. Those present were Mrs. White, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Krouse, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Hewson, Mrs. O'Day, Lillie Read and Mrs. Elia Read.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Landaal of Bellingham are spending a few days with Mrs. Landaal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Polinder. Mr. Landaal is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from his work at the Fair Grocery.

Two dances were held in Lynden last Friday evening and both were poorly patronized.

Miss Myrtle Kennedy spent the week-end in Lynden as the guest of Miss Crete Topping. Miss Kennedy is teaching school at Blaine this year.

Mrs. Elmo Hurly and son Tom of Bellingham were guests at the Wm. Van Well home from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. P. M. Serurier and Mrs. D. Mulder have issued invitations to an evening at cards Friday, Sep. 22, at the I. O. O. F. hall.

A number of young ladies were entertained at a Kensington at the home of Miss Bossie Frick last Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Jessie Straks of Waupun, Wis., who is visiting her sister Mrs. R. Le Cocq. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of dahlias and sweet peas, and dainty refreshments were served to the following: the Misses Straks, Landaa, Bailey, Ecker, Jamieson, Spaan, Boslund, Orel Jackman, Bance Jacobs, and Minnie and Elsie Worthen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Te Selle are enjoying a vacation this week at the A. P. Burgraff home.

Dr. S. S. Howe, Oculist and Aurist. At Dr. Monntor's office Tuesdays: Goggles accurately fitted.

The Socialist Truck Campaign Party, which is making a tour of Whatcom County, will be in Lynden Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and will give a program and deliver addresses on the street. Twenty-five make up the list of visitors, including some of the best talent in the county. The party will be welcomed by a Lynden delegation, and will be their guests while in the city. All are invited to attend.

P. Koert, bookkeeper at the Lynden Creamery, has left for Pullman, where he will take a three-year commercial course. Peter Elenbaas has succeeded him at the Creamery.

Miss Nellie Oaken has accepted a position with the Farmers Mutual Telephone Co.

Miss Viola Gosch was initiated into the K atawas at a meeting last night with Miss Helen Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. W. Reese, jr. are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor.

Kas Dyksterhuis has scheduled an auction sale of splendid mich cows with records for Tuesday, Oct. 3. A complete announcement will be given in The Tribune next week.

Mrs. Lottie Heur underwent an operation Monday at St. Luke's hospital, and is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ferguson, mother of Mrs. Heur, is expected from the East this week on a visit.

Col. Otto A. Case, candidate for the Progressive nomination for governor in 1912, and Mrs. Frances C. Axel, Progressive candidate for Congress from this district, spoke in Lynden last night at Fourth and Front Streets to a large audience. Both gave reasons why President Wilson should be reelected, and advised a vote of "no" on all referendums.

Mr. and Mrs. David Larson and Mrs. Harry Chantrell of Blaine were Lynden visitors Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wm. Van Well and daughter Catherine accompanied them on the return trip and will spend a week in Blaine.

The L. T. L. will meet Tuesday after school at the old schoolhouse.

The Star Grocery Company's delivery horse scampered up Front St. Wednesday without the driver, and turned toward the river. He was stopped without damaging anything.

The little son of Mrs. Richard Decker was cut over the eye and slightly bruised Wednesday, when the cart in which he and his mother were driving turned over on Front Street near the city limits. Mrs. Decker was uninjured.

"I'll pay my bills so you can pay yours," is the slogan for National Pay-Up Week, Oct. 2 to 7, Lynden.

William A. Bauman is spending the week in Seattle studying the tire repair business.

A New Lynden Wood Yard

For the convenience of Lynden homes, we are opening a large wood yard at the corner of Third and Front Streets, where all kinds of the best stove and furnace wood will be carried in stock.

Our Specialty is
Alder, Maple and Birch at $1.40 per Rick Delivered
We deliver in any quantity.

Lynden Wood Yard
Wm. A. BAUMAN, Sales Manager

FLOUR

Have you a winter's supply of flour on hand? We quote from a prominent wholesale house, in their advice to retailers. "Wheat and wheat products continue to advance as the actual wheat supply becomes better determined. Some well posted flour men have predicted a $10 price on flour."

By buying now you get flour made from old wheat in addition to a possible saving in price.

COFFEE

As the days become cooler you appreciate more and more your hot cup of coffee in the morning, and (advice to cooks) the better the coffee the better the breakfast. We are exclusive agents for the Chase & Sanborn line of coffees and teas. The largest coffee house in the world.

CANVAS GLOVES

We carry a fine line of canvas gloves, fleece in or out. 12 oz. gloves, 2 pr. for 25c 8 oz. gloves, 3 pr. for 25c Also a leather faced canvas glove at 35c and a leather faced canvas gauntlet at 50c.

Fresh Fruits or Vegetables

Cabbage, pumpkins, celery, beets, ripe tomatoes, cantaloupes, lemons, oranges, apples, etc

Home grown horseradish, per glass 10c

ELDER & PACE

TELEPHONE M-29 LYNDEN, WN.

Miss Nellie Oaken has accepted a position with the Farmers Mutual Telephone Co.

Miss Viola Gosch was initiated into the K atawas at a meeting last night with Miss Helen Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. W. Reese, jr. are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor.

Kas Dyksterhuis has scheduled an auction sale of splendid mich cows with records for Tuesday, Oct. 3. A complete announcement will be given in The Tribune next week.

Mrs. Lottie Heur underwent an operation Monday at St. Luke's hospital, and is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ferguson, mother of Mrs. Heur, is expected from the East this week on a visit.

Col. Otto A. Case, candidate for the Progressive nomination for governor in 1912, and Mrs. Frances C. Axel, Progressive candidate for Congress from this district, spoke in Lynden last night at Fourth and Front Streets to a large audience. Both gave reasons why President Wilson should be reelected, and advised a vote of "no" on all referendums.

Mr. and Mrs. David Larson and Mrs. Harry Chantrell of Blaine were Lynden visitors Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wm. Van Well and daughter Catherine accompanied them on the return trip and will spend a week in Blaine.

The L. T. L. will meet Tuesday after school at the old schoolhouse.

The Star Grocery Company's delivery horse scampered up Front St. Wednesday without the driver, and turned toward the river. He was stopped without damaging anything.

The little son of Mrs. Richard Decker was cut over the eye and slightly bruised Wednesday, when the cart in which he and his mother were driving turned over on Front Street near the city limits. Mrs. Decker was uninjured.

"I'll pay my bills so you can pay yours," is the slogan for National Pay-Up Week, Oct. 2 to 7, Lynden.

William A. Bauman is spending the week in Seattle studying the tire repair business.

NOTICE!

We are making a special $1.75 offer of a year's subscription to The Tribune and to four standard magazines. This offer is open to a new or old subscribers. By subscribing to The Tribune now you get $1.75 worth of magazines for only 25 cents extra. The magazines are of high class and will make a valuable addition to the library of any home. We want to call your attention also to the free dress pattern that is given to each subscriber.

FIFTY ENGRAVED CALLING CARDS—White copper plate, special $1.15. This is an exceptionally low price; the cards are of the highest quality, in four beautiful styles of script. The Tribune.

FOR COVERING CHICKEN HOUSES, putting under carpets, packing, etc., we have big bundles of heavy wrapping paper for sale at five cents a bundle. THE TRIBUNE.

Mentor Comfort Underwear

Mentor Comfort underwear for ladies and children in wool and cotton. We carry a full range of styles, weights and sizes and can satisfy all your needs. Mentor underwear stands for quality and service. Priced at 50c to $3.00 a garment.

New Fall Neckwear
Ladies' Fall neckwear in collars, and collar and cuff sets 25c to 75c

New Fall Waists

We are showing new Fall waists just received by express from New York. They come in lawns, poplins, taffetas, and crepe de chine in black, white, stripes, etc. Reasonably priced at $1.00 to $2.75

New Fall Tams

New Fall tams and hats in corduroy, just in. They come in various colors and color combinations. Priced at 75c and $1.25

Domestics, Draperies, Etc.

These prices are practically the same as they were last year, when this class of merchandise was considerably lower than it is now and in a good many instances are nearly what these goods are worth wholesale today. You get the advantage of our early buying.

- 36 inch silkolines, yard - 12 1/2c
- 24 inch cretones, yard - 10c
- 36 " cretones, " - 15c
- 36 " percales, yard 12 1/2c, 15c
- 27 " outings, yard 8 1/3c, 10c, 12 1/2c
- 36 " outings, yard 14c, 15c, 16c
- 36 " Hope or Daisy bleached muslin, per yard - 10
- 36 " Lonsdale or Fruit muslin, per yard - 12 1/2c
- 36 " Pepperal R or Big Stick unbleached muslin, per yard - 10c

SHOES OF QUALITY

Original Jefferson shoes in high and low tops. Made up of the very best leathers.
Men's loggers at $5.00, $5.50, $7.50, $8.50
Men's work shoes at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, to $5.00

Oregon City Mackinaws

Positively the best line in the country. Materials are made up by the Oregon City Woolen Mills of Oregon wool and are dyed with German dyes. The seams of these coats are all taped and they are made up in the best possible manner. We placed a large order for these mackinaws last Spring before the advance in price and we are saving you from $1.00 to $2.00 a garment over today's value.
Men's mackinaws at $5.50, $6.50, $7.50, $8.50, $9.50
Boys' " ages 6 to 12 - $3.50, $4.00
Youths' " " 14 to 20 - $5.00, $6.50

Stands For "Palmer" Coats

which line is recognized for style and service. May we show you the new Fall models? Priced at $7.50 to $25.00

Watch For Big List of Pay-Up-Week Bargains—October 2 to 7

LYNDEN DEPARTMENT STORE

Incorporated

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

