

FOREST GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hudgins of Bellingham were Sunday guests at the J. P. Lawrence home.

Mrs. Bertha Marchand, of Ferndale, spent Friday and Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McMillen. Mrs. Marchand is gradually gaining her strength after her recent illness and operation.

As the closing entertainment of the school year, the Forest Grove school children presented the operetta "Indian Princess" on Friday evening. The entire school took part, each child being appropriately dressed in Indian or Colonial costumes. The stage setting was unusually attractive with the aid of evergreen trees, vines and mosses. The stage was converted into a beautiful little forest scene which would have done credit to a much larger stage. The principal characters in the operetta were Josephine Rainford, as Pocahontas; Ralph Shell, as Captain John Smith; and Dorothy Johnson as Chief Powhatan. They were supported by a chorus of Indians and Ralph Shell, Bruce Larson and Marie Dahle, each of whom sang especially well. The whole performance was made more realistic by the absence of any lights save those from the Indian camp in the woods. Much credit is due the teacher, Mrs. Nellie Milton, for her splendid work with the children, both in school and entertainment.

Mrs. Fred Kenoyer and two children Clarence and Donald, of Ten Mile, spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Porter.

Mrs. Paul Headrick and baby, of Seattle, spent the past week at "Ahn-hurst," home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Keith Ahrens.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Guckert, Messrs. Herbert Maurer and Lorenzo Lamoureux, motored to Bellingham Saturday evening to attend the Barnes circus.

What promises to be an unusually interesting meeting of the Book and Thimble Club will be held today at the home of Mrs. Harry Guckert, when Miss Mary Sutherland, of the Home Economics Department of Pullman, will be present and give a talk on "Food and Nutrition." There will be an all day meeting, beginning at ten o'clock in the morning, and each woman will bring something toward the picnic dinner served at noon. In line with the study of nutrition, only good, wholesome food will be served for dinner, such as creamed potatoes, baked beans, cottage cheese, pudding and others. No pie or cake will be allowed. The afternoon will be given to the regular club meeting, at which time the first lessons in the Nutrition Course will be introduced by Mrs. E. K. Ahrens.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Oltman and two children of Bellingham, were visitors at "The Si-Dell Hennerly" Friday, home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seidell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cave entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dahle and daughter, Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, of Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Annie Johnson was a Bellingham visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McMillen and daughters, Jean and Virginia motored to Bellingham, on Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. McMillen's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. West.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dahle and daughter Marie spent Wednesday evening in Bellingham, at the home of Mrs. Dahle's sister, Mrs. Geo. Sandness.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, of Vancouver, B. C., are spending the week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Seidell and son, spent Saturday in Bellingham.

Mrs. James Sanders of Bellingham, delightfully entertained with a children's party on Friday, in honor of the birthdays of her daughter Marion, and her little niece, Jean McMillen, of Forest Grove. The children celebrated their fifth birthdays. The afternoon was enjoyably spent with various games and later the children gathered around a daintily appointed table where luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rasmussen and two children of Bellingham, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dahle, Friday.

Forest Grove school closed the year with a community picnic on Saturday held on Nooksack Mt. Five auto loads and one truck load of people were taken to the foot of the hills, and leaving the machines parked there, hiked on up the mountain side to the picnic site. A splendid place was found in which to eat the picnic dinner, and after that many of the more adventuresome hiked up to the old mine and Lone Pine, and a few got as far as the summit. A splendid time was enjoyed by all who were present.

Mrs. Arthur McMillen entertained with a luncheon Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. James Sanders and Mrs. Albert Adams, of Bellingham.

NORTH PRAIRIE

The P. T. A. will meet Friday evening, June 3. The young people and children of the district will give a program after the business meeting.

Those who have been neither tardy nor absent during the past year at the North Prairie School are Marjory Bruce, Henrietta Bartelds, Glenn Axling and Percy Clarke. This is the sixth year for Percy Clarke and the fifth for Glenn Axling. Is there anyone who can beat this record.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Anthony spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. R. Hadley of B. C. before leaving for Seattle on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Alma Davis and daughter and Mr. Clarence Keiter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bruce Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Nelson visited with Grandma Wilder of Nooksack Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jessie Bartelds visited with Mrs. Ruth Van Wyhe Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiese, of Lynden were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Vander Meer Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Axling attended the Ferndale commencement exercises Wednesday evening.

Percy Clarke won the Stamp Album which Mr. Anthony offered to the one collecting the most stamps during the term. Percy has 800 different kinds.

Mr. G. E. Bruce now drives a Ford to and from his work at the Lynden co-operative plant.

Miss Tessie Bonnema of Blaine spent the week-end at the S. Vander Meer home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Baldwin of Delta were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Axling Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Johann De Jong visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Wyhe Sunday evening.

The North Prairie school closed on Friday. On Wednesday, the school had a picnic on the school grounds. The school board furnished the ice-cream.

Vergie Clarke attended the senior picnic at Vancouver Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Taylor and son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bartelds Sunday.

Joe and Robert Nelson and Mr and Mrs. C. Johnson and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wells of Woodlyn Sunday.

Miss Tessie Bonnema was a guest of Miss Jessie Bartelds Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Axling are auditing the telephone books this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruns and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoksbergen were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bartelds Sunday.

Queer Old Advertisement.

This is an advertisement which was published in London in 1679:—"At the sign of the Golden Pall and Coffin, a coffin-maker's shop at the upper end of the Old Change, near Cheapside, there are ready to be sold very fashionable laced and plain dressings for the dead of all sizes, with very fashionable coffins, that will secure any corpse above ground without any ill scent or other annoyance as long as shall be required."

Dog Responded to Call.

Two brothers in Richmond, N. B., have two farms seven miles apart. One of the brothers called up the other on the telephone to say that his cattle had broken out of the pasture and asked him to bring his dog to the phone. He called the dog over the phone and the animal recognizing the voice, ran the seven miles to his home on the other farm.

Spring Temptation.

Owner of Small Sheet—My advertising man was sick yesterday and my wife undertook to fill his place temporarily.

Friend—What success did she have? Owner—Well, she solicited millinery and dressmaking ads mainly and agreed to take the cost up in trade.—Boston Transcript.

Freak Legislation.

Talking in his sleep or snoring may subject a married man to six months' imprisonment in the home of his mother-in-law, according to the terms of a bill introduced in a western legislature.

Birthdays of Royalty.

King George and his four sons—the prince of Wales, Princes Albert, Henry and George—were all born on Saturdays; while Queen Alexandra, Queen Mary and Princess Mary were all born on Sundays.

Odd Companions.

Kittens and hares shared the same nest in a barn on an Ontario farm. There were about eight hares in the nest and two black kittens were in the habit of lying with them to keep warm.

Heard at the Club.

"Fusbeigh is worrying about his health."
"What's the trouble?"
"He's got a cowlick."—Boston Transcript.

Black and Rainy Days.

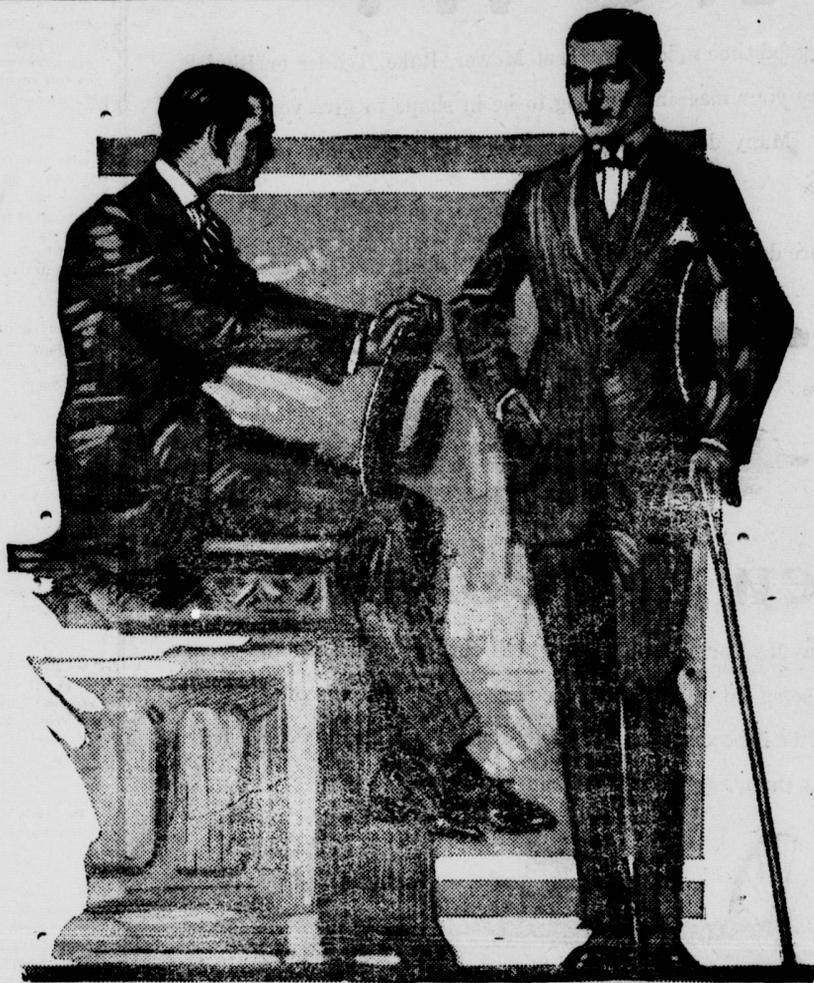

Two Congregational ministers, one named Black and the Other Day, and one Methodist minister named Rancy recently occupied churches in Granby, Quebec.
