Double Your Savings; It CAN Be Done

John G. Shedd — A New Hampshire Boy earned $1.50 a week and saved most of his year's pay. And about once a year he got a raise because he proved he was worth more.

He went to Chicago and worked for Marshall Field. And in thirty-four years he rose to the presidency of the largest department store in the middle west—all because he saved money, kept strictly honest, always made himself worth more than his pay.

You too can advance by saving and delivering the goods.
