

CLEARBROOK

Thanksgiving services will be held at the Clearbrook church Sunday afternoon. A special program will be given.

Mrs. E. M. King will be hostess to the Lakeside W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tyler were Bellingham visitors several days during the week.

Mrs. A. Swanson and Mrs. Dan Tilton were charming hostesses to the Clearbrook Aid Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. A large number were present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Loyd Pike of Nooksack has charge of the primary room at the local school during Miss Marion Lindell's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Gildersleeve moved to their new ranch home in the Bell Creek district near Deming last Thursday.

A Thanksgiving program and basket social will be held at the Clearbrook school hall Wednesday evening, Nov. 23rd. The proceeds of the evening will be used for school purposes. All are given a cordial invitation to come and bring a basket.

The Junior choir will practice at the T. H. Higginson home.

After a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Higginson, Messrs T. D. and Jim Lewis left for their home in Bellingham Saturday.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 27th, the Junior Missionary Band will give a program at the Swedish Lutheran church. The program will be delivered in English. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Otto Swanson will be hostess to the Swadist Ladies Aid at her home north of Clearbrook on Thursday, Dec. 1st.

Miss Elsie Estergreen will be hostess to the Junior Missionary band, Saturday Dec. 3rd.

On Thanksgiving day at eleven o'clock services will be held at the Swedish Lutheran church. Rev. Swanson, president of the Columbia Conference and Rev. Hanson of Seattle will be present. Both these gentlemen are able speakers and all are invited to come and hear them. Rev. Swanson will speak in the Swedish language, and Rev. Hanson will address the people in English.

Miss Anna Graves returned home Saturday from Bellingham, where she has been for some time.

C. H. Higginson of Geneva spent the week end with home folks.

Miss Marion Lindell, teacher of the Clearbrook primary grades was called to her home last Thursday afternoon on account of the serious illness of her mother in Bellingham. Monday morning word was received that her mother had been called Sunday evening. The Clearbrook school will be closed Tuesday afternoon, allowing those who wish to attend the funeral services at two o'clock in Bellingham.

On Saturday, Nov. 12th, in Bellingham, Miss Bernice Dale Childs and Mr. Ira A. Marchant of Seattle, were united in marriage by Judge Brown. The bride and groom were attended by the groom's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creviston of Clearbrook. Mr. Marchant is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Marchant who reside one mile northwest of Clearbrook, where a charivari party was given the newlyweds Saturday evening. On Sunday morning, the Junior and Senior Marchants left by auto for several days visit with relatives in New Westminster and Vancouver.

Miss Jennie Gulick and Mrs. C. E. Merriam motored to Bellingham Wednesday and called on Miss Christie McKay at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Hayden of 2320 Walnut st., Bellingham. Miss McKay had the misfortune to fall and fracture her hip some time ago. Her friends will be glad to know she is able to sit up. Miss McKay is a sister to our Townsman, John McKay, and has made her home here at different times.

Mrs. T. L. Parrot and baby daughter Lola Grace, were guests of Mrs. Nell Hagen Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. M. Bates, who has been on the sick list for several days is somewhat improved.

In honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. T. J. Rasmussen, a goodly number of his neighbors and friends gathered at his home Saturday evening to help him celebrate. A most enjoyable evening was spent and a delightful luncheon was served.

You'll get somewhere with a pipe and P. A!

Start fresh all over again at the beginning! Get a pipe!—and forget every smoke experience you ever had that spilled the beans! For a jimmy pipe, packed brimful with Prince Albert, will trim any degree of smokejoy you ever registered! It's a revelation!

Put a pin in here! Prince Albert can't bite your tongue or parch your throat. Both are cut out by our exclusive patented process. So, just pass up any old idea you may have stored away that you can't smoke a pipe! We tell you that you can—and just have the time of your life on every fire-up—if you play Prince Albert for packing!

What P. A. hands you in a pipe it will duplicate in a home-made cigarette! Gee—but you'll have a lot of fun rolling 'em with Prince Albert; and, it's a cinch because P. A. is crimp cut and stays put!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidor, with sponge moistener top.
