BUGGY WITHOUT LIGHT CAUSES COLLISION OF CARS HERE

C. K. Smith, manager of the Bloedel-Donovan Company at Lynden, collided with a Dodge car Sunday evening while trying to avoid a buggy without lights. The Dodge car was considerably damaged, but no one was injured. Mr. Smith's car had a broken wheel and windshield. The state law requires all horse-drawn vehicles to carry lights after dark.

Breaks Collar-Bone

Gerrit J. Polinder was thrown to the ground this week by a cow, and had his collar-bone broken.

SUNRISE

Mr. Pope was a Lynden visitor Tuesday.

The children of the Sunday School gave a very interesting Christmas program Tuesday evening at the Swedish church. A large crowd attended and pronounced it one of the best programs ever given there.

Mrs. Jim Summerville was at Custer, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowrey entertained Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Hazel Lowrey, who formerly lived here. Music and cards were enjoyed until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served to a dozen guests.

Mary and Val Burk had dental work done at Lynden Wednesday.

Miss Sigrid Lindberg returned to Seattle Wednesday after spending several days with her parents and friends.

One of Mr. Carl Hamlin's cows died last week.

Mrs. V. Bitterman and Mrs. Aherns visited Mrs. M. Berger Tuesday.

Mrs. Carl Hamlin visited Mrs. Robert McLeod Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Summerville, Lion Dykes and Mr. Pope were entertained Thursday evening at the M. Burk home.

Walter Swanson was sick Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scribner spent New Year's Day with Mrs. Scribner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers. Mr. and Mrs. Will Berger and Maxine and Wilfred motored to Mt. Vernon to spend New Year's Day.

School reopened January 2, after being closed one week. Miss Burk and Miss Jones spent the vacation at their homes.

Miss Vera Benefield entertained her friends Wednesday evening by a dance given at her home.

Jesse Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pettit and Junior were entertained at dinner Sunday at the Martin Burk home.

Mary K. Burke visited at Lynden Friday, at the Charles Jacobs home. Several young people from here attended the dance at Custer Saturday evening.

FOREST GROVE

Little Betty Guckert fell down while playing on Christmas Day and cut her head severely. She was taken to Everson to a doctor, where it was found necessary to take several stitches in the wound.

Mrs. Mary Burgraff and family celebrated on Monday, when they were guests at a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Burgraff of Lawrence. Twenty-five relatives were present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morrison were host and hostess Christmas Day when they entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. William Morison of Wiser Lake, and Mr. Gus Dahlgren of Bellingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crabtree were guests at a family dinner Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williamson of Northwood. Twenty-two relatives were present.

Richard Young of Bellingham, is spending Christmas vacation at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Guckert.

What came as a complete surprise to family members at the dinner party Christmas afternoon at the home of Mrs. Katherine A. Larson, was the announcement of the marriage of her eldest daughter Minerva, to Mr. Walter F. Foster, of Bellingham. The ceremony took place Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Judge Ed Hardin officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Foster will reside at the Gilbert Apartments in Bellingham. Mrs. Foster attended school out here and then in Bellingham, where she graduated from Wilson's Business College. She has been employed as stenographer at the L. R. Steele Service Corporation and Mr. Foster is employed at the Highway Garage. Other dinner guests at the Larson home were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Larson and family of Woodlyn, Messrs. Arthur, Irving, Weston, Bruce and W. B. Larson, and Misses Eva Lindstrom and Paloma Larson.

Mrs. O. D. Lamoureux left last week for Oregon, where he planned on spending Christmas with his eldest daughter, Mrs. Milton Cyr who resides near Eugene. Mrs. Cyr was formerly Miss Orceila Lamoureux. During the absence of Mr. Lamoureux, his other daughter, Mrs. Elvira Kuehnol of Wahl, will stay at the Lanoureux home and keep house for her brothers.

Mrs. Mary Burgraff motored to Burlington Sunday where she spent the day with friends.

A good crowd was in attendance at the Christmas program given Tuesday evening at the school house. The stage was decorated very artistically, and in spite of the fact that many children were absent during the past month and therefore were not trained much, a very entertaining program was given, which in part follows: Group song, by girls and boys; Recitation, Jean McMillan; Recitation, Johnnie Morrison; Recitation, Viola Kildall; a playlet entitled "Santa Claus' court," which was especially good, the part of Santa Claus being taken by Johnnie Lamoureux; "The Christmas Spirit," with Martha Tjoelker and Bruce Larson as Jack and Jill, was also good.

Then followed a drill by four girls and four boys, who were joined at the close by Josephine Rainford as "Miss Columbia" and Raymond Guckert as "Uncle Sam." Next came a song by the school, then group songs closed the program. After that the treat of candy, nuts and oranges, was distributed. This was given by Sunday School and Book and Thimble club, and enough sacks were filled so that every one present received one.
