MY PLATFORM

I favor a law limiting taxes on real and personal property to not exceed 40 mills on a 50 per cent valuation, believing that this is all it can stand and maintain a standard value.

I am in favor of the Primary Election law and am against any change that will curtail the rights of the people to choose their candidates.

I am in favor of the present Township organization law and would favor such improvement in same as would be requested by those living under township organization.

I am in favor of any move that will help restore the fishing industry on Puget Sound.

I am for strict enforcement of all laws, including the Prohibition law.

I am for a strict pure food law and honest labeling of all food-stuffs.

I am in favor of cutting all expenses except those absolutely necessary to carry out the business of the state in a business-like manner.

These are a few of the many questions that the people are interested in, and I shall, if elected, vote and work for them even if I vote alone.

Respectfully submitted to the voters of Representative District No. 53, Whatcom county, Washington.

ANDREW DANIELSON,
Candidate Republican ticket.
Mr. Danielson is endorsed by the Tax Limit League, and the Dairymen of Whatcom County. Lynden, August 31, 1922.

The Lynden Gimlet

A. J. Brown, who used to be a painter, but who has reformed and now runs a grocery store midway between Lynden and Blaine, has a fine collection of candidates cards displayed on a rack at his place.

Above the lot he has a conspicuous sign, "Rogue's Gallery."

Chris Kauffman, who believes that everybody should ride a bicycle for health, had a sad window display this week showing how A. Jay Foot died at the age of 35 from lack of exercise.

We don't know who this man Foot was, but we can readily understand how he died by inches.

We notice that Charley Bajema bought a tract of land 20 years ago today for $137.50 an acre, according to a report over on Page 4. We dare him to sell it for that today.

We also observe that Harry Fountain started in work at the Lynden Department Store just twenty years ago, and he doesn't seem to have had the nerve to quit the job since.

Now they are going to tear down the old Gimlet office, which if it were preserved for another fifty years would undoubtedly be bought by the government for historical purposes.

Boys and Girls' Club Work
There is wide interest throughout the state in the boys and girls' club work and the contest at the state fair will be very keen this year according to F. L. Audrain, state club leader. The state is divided into five districts and the winners in the districts will compete at the state fair for the state championships. There is an unusually wide range of activities in club work and the members of the several clubs are keen at the work. It is considered a high honor to get to come to the state fair as a guest of the management for the week and enjoy the privileges of the grounds for that time. There will also be about 40 to 50 boys and girls in the camps with their chaperones and a state leader will plan a program of entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boerhave and family have returned from a visit in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Craighead are visiting in Portland this week.

Mrs. D. J. Milan of Seattle is a guest this week of Mrs. Angus Young.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Oldemeyer left Wednesday morning for Seattle where Mr. Oldemeyer will be under a doctors care at the Virginia Mason Hospital.

MODEST SAVING

Small savings, if steadily maintained, eventually become a means of a comfortable income. In order to practice thrift and have a growing Savings Account, one need not be miserly in any sense. There is a happy mean between that and extravagance which anybody can find.

The men who are far from miserly, who today give most to others, are the men who started to save early in life, and are able and ready to give because they saved.

A Savings Account here is a means for you to build a cash capital through modest saving and four per cent compound interest.

E. C. BAXTER REPLIES TO JUDGE HARDIN'S ATTACKS
HOLD FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. A. C. RATHMAN

E. C. Baxter, county commissioner, who is a candidate for reelection, in this issue of The Tribune, is replying to attacks made on the administration of county affairs by Judge Ed Hardin. Judge Hardin has been publishing a series of articles, in which he criticises severely other county officers.

Commissioner Ed Brown reported last evening in the Bellingham Herald and American, asking among other things what law gives superior court judges the right to take a full month's vacation each year on pay, a practice by which Judge Hardin has drawn $4,500 without work in his twelve years of service.

Study Club Entertained
Members of the Woman's Study Club held their first meeting of the season Wednesday at Knapp's Bluff, where they were entertained at the summer homes of Mrs. E. Edson and Mrs. S. H. Lewis.

Following a dainty luncheon, Mrs. D. L. Beckes gave a review of Olive Schreiner's book, "An African Farm," and Mrs. B. V. Mounter told of the life of the author. Mrs. B. W. Loring was a guest of the club.

Mrs. Fennell and daughter Jeanette will leave this week for Seattle to make their home. Miss Jeanette will attend business college there.

Porter Hatley is Principal of the Glendale school this year.
