

Crescent Mercantile Co., Inc.

Welcome to the New Store

The Crescent Mercantile Company is the successor to the Dry Goods, Shoes, and Clothing Departments of the Farmers Mercantile Company, and we wish to invite everyone to come in and compare our quality and prices with any store in the country. The big sale we just had left our stock in a condition where it was necessary to buy complete new lines in nearly every department. So when you buy an article here you are sure to get new merchandise as it is impossible to show you an article which has been in the store more than four months. There isn't another store in the state of Washington that can do this if they have been in business one year or more.

We realize that the people of Lynden have been paying the top price for their merchandise and we have adopted the policy of selling at a smaller margin of profit and doing a bigger volume of business. So we are going over the entire stock and marking it down. HERE ARE SOME OF THE CUTS MADE TO STAY:
