

THE POULTRY SHOW

Certain to Be a Most Successful Exhibition.

Much Interest Being Manifested By Fanciers and People Generally Over the County.

Active preparations still continue for the big poultry show to be given at Colfax February 7 to 10 by the Whitman County Poultry and Pet Stock association.

Theo. Hewes of Trenton, Mo., who is to judge the show, is an expert who has judged more poultry shows than any other man.

PLATS FOR ASSESSOR.

New System Which Will Improve the Service.

Assessor Siler is hard at work preparing for the assessment of 1900, which begins on the first day of March.

The assessor has put in use a system of land records which has been greatly needed in Whitman county, and which has been in use in almost every other county of the state for a number of years.

The new plats will be made by J. F. Fuller, which insures their correctness and neatness. They will show all roads and ownerships and will be corrected daily from the official records or abstract reports.

Geo. W. Case, Jr., has resigned his position as chief deputy assessor and Arthur Shaw has been appointed.
