There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as the child is concerned. It not only cures croup, but when given as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by all druggists.

Stones' Cough Not will stop that cough. 25 and 50c at The Elk Drug Store.

THE SOCIAL SIDE.

Mrs. J. A. Byrns, Mrs. Abell and Mrs. Charles Lusher gave a very pleasant party to their lady friends on Thursday afternoon, February 9, at the home of Mrs. Byrns.

Red was the color adopted for the occasion, and the color scheme was carried out from the beginning, when red invitations summoned their friends to luncheon at 1 o'clock. The feature of the afternoon was a musical romance, Mrs. Lusher reading the romance, while Mrs. Byrns played familiar airs which, when properly named, supplied the gaps in the romance.

Mrs. Doolittle guessed the names of the greatest number of the airs and was given a prize. Afterward, progressive euchre was played, Mrs. Privett receiving a prize for progressions and Mrs. Doolittle for lone hands, while Mrs. Winfree was given the consolation prize.

All the details of the affair were most artistic, and the afternoon was a delightful one to all present.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Chapman gave a very elaborate and most enjoyable whist party to their friends last Wednesday evening, every feature being suggestive of St. Valentine's day. Valentines were distributed to the guests as favors, and each score card was decorated with a large red heart. Hearts were trumps for the evening, and the hands, bands, and other refreshments were heart shaped, while the ices served were in the form of hearts and turtle doves.

In the game Mrs. Winfree and Mr. Doolittle had the highest scores and received prizes, while Miss Mabel Stult and Mr. Geo. Howard were given the consolation prizes. After the game Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Chas. Bramwell given the company with musical selections, and the latter part of the evening was spent in conversation.

Bankrupt's Petition for Discharge. No. 263.

In the matter of James W. Warner, bankrupt, to the Honorable C. H. Hanford, judge of the district court of the United States for the district of Washington, Southern Division, James W. Warner, of Tekoa, in the county of Whitman county, Washington, in said district, respectfully represents that on the 7th day of November, 1899, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the acts of congress relating to bankruptcy, and he has duly surrendered all his property, and rights of property, and has fully complied with all of the requirements of said acts and the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be discharged by the court to have full discharge from all debts of the said court, and the said court, under said bankruptcy acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.
