

CITY ELECTION NEAR

Little Interest Is So Far Being Taken By the People.

Mayor, Four Councilmen, Clerk Treasurer and City Attorney To Be Chosen.

The near approach of the city election, to be held Tuesday, December 3, for the election of a mayor, four councilmen, treasurer, clerk and city attorney, the marshal to be chosen by the council, creates scarcely a ripple on the smooth municipal sea.

Of candidates there is a scarcity up to date. Mayor Lippitt will not absolutely decline a renomination, if it is shown him that it is the desire of the people that he continue in office and no others appear who are desirous of the honor. But Mr. Lippitt looks upon the matter of filling municipal offices simply as a duty of good citizens. He has now well served the city for three continuous years, two as councilman and one as mayor, and feels that he has paid his debt of citizenship and is anxious to retire, as he has many troubles of his own to care for. He is not recognized as a politician, in any sense, and has given the city a good business like administration wherever his voice carried weight, and many are anxious to renominate and reelect him.

For city clerk, the present efficient and accommodating officer, Howard Bramwell, is a candidate for renomination, as is also the present capable treasurer, H. G. DePledge, who has well handled the city's financial affairs for the past year.

As to the city attorneyship, with its salary of $1250 a month, City Attorney E. M. Warner absolutely declines to permit the use of his name, and friends of J. G. Combs are advancing his name for the position. Mr. Combs expresses a willingness to stand for the nomination, but only on condition that he is acceptable to the people at large. "I would not," says Mr. Combs, "enter the field and involve myself in a fight for the position."

In the line of councilmen, the terms of four end with this year. They are H. Van Schoick, First ward; W. M. Dumdi, Second ward; E. R. Barroll, Third ward, and H. H. Wheeler, councilman-at-large and a resident of the Third ward. Following the system of rotation which has been in vogue for a number of years the Second ward will this year be entitled to the nomination for councilman-at-large, as well as a successor to Mr. Dumdi, that official having come from the Third ward for the term now ending and from the First ward for the previous year.

For the Second ward, Councilman Dumdi expressed a desire to succeed himself, on the issue of improvement of Main street at the busiest section, at least, the character of the improvement to be determined by the council after being seated. On this issue only, he says, will he consent to enter the field. Mr. Dumdi, as a member of the street committee, will visit Moscow next week in order to view the street improvements there and inform himself as to their character and cost.

Councilmen Barroll and Van Schoick, of the Third and First wards respectively, have not so far expressed themselves publicly as to their willingness to again stand for the council. Mr. Wheeler will of necessity be retired if the old rule of rotation as to councilman-at-large is followed and that official given to the Second ward.

The practice heretofore has been to hold the nominating convention about a week prior to election and make of it a citizens' convention. There are as yet no signs of a partisan campaign, and there probably will not be, as no one seems to care to take the initiative in such a move.

Seven Years for Forgery. W. F. Knowles, who formerly conducted a bowling alley at Pullman, and who last spring forged checks and passed them to the amount of about $300, was sentenced Monday by Judge Chadwick to seven years in the Walla Walla penitentiary, at hard labor. Knowles did not wait for a trial or consult an attorney, but pleaded guilty. It was evident from his actions and remarks that the sentence was a considerably heavier one than he expected. Knowles was captured at Newport News, Virginia, by the police of that city, and returned to the scene of his crime by Deputy Sheriff Davis, who went east after him. He came willingly, without requisition, and made no trouble on the road. It is said his future place of abode for a good long term is no strange place to him, that he has served a previous sentence for the same offense.

Young Man Dead. Harry H. Hill, a young man of 27 years, died Friday morning at the home of George Hill, on Clear creek, after a brief illness of two weeks from typhoid malaria. Deceased was a nephew of George and Dick Hill and unmarried. He was a member of the Colfax lodge of Modern Woodmen of America, in which he carried a life insurance policy of $2000 in favor of his mother. The funeral was held Saturday, burial being in Colfax cemetery at 1 o'clock.

NOW IS THE TIME

Seasons change. We can't change them. We can't prevent the coming of cold and damp airs.

But we can prevent the sore throats, the coughs, colds and lung troubles by taking Scott's Emulsion. Nothing does more to make the tender throat tough. Nothing gives such strength to weak lungs.

Don't take risks—when it's easy to be safe. Now is the season for taking Scott's Emulsion in season.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 429 Pearl street, New York.

From Sunny Tennessee. Mrs. J. P. Hubbard, mother of Mrs. T. D. Ferguson, Mrs. J. D. Ellis and Mrs. S. C. Armstrong, accompanied by her son, W. W. Hubbard, and wife and Guy Hubbard, arrived Sunday evening from Greenville, Tenn. Mrs. W. W. Hubbard is a sister of B. F. Nicholas, manager of the Great Eastern store at Colfax. The members of the party expect to make their homes in Colfax or vicinity.

After Big Game. W. W. Waite, L. C. Read and Arthur Howe left Sunday for the Pend d'Oreille river country, to be absent two or three weeks. They will visit the Best Chance mine, a promising property in which they and a number of other Colfax citizens are interested, the stock, in fact, being entirely held by Colfax people. A big hunt is also on their program.

Unitarian Church. W. G. Elliot, Jr., state superintendent of the American Unitarian Association, with jurisdiction over Oregon, Washington and Idaho, was in the city Monday, inquiring into the advisability of establishing a church of the Unitarian denomination here. He will also visit Moscow and Lewiston.

IMPROVING STOCK GRADES. Good Work is Gradually Going On in the Palouse.

The interest being taken by stockmen and farmers in the improvement of the grades in the Palouse country is highly commendable and augurs well for the future of stockraising, the prosperity and enrichment of the country, those engaged in the industry, and, incidentally all the people. As a stockraising country the Palouse has all the resources necessary to in a few years make it the equal of any of the great states of the Mississippi valley. It has the soil and the area for the support of hundreds of thousands of head of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep. All that is needed is proper utilization of this great gift of the Creator and markets for the products. The first the people are beginning to see and prepare for, and the second is growing with a rapidity not equalled by the production, and will continue to grow, as fast, if not faster, than the supply.

In addition to the half dozen prominent farmers and stockmen who left last week for Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri to buy and ship to the Palouse country, where feed is abundant, a full trainload of cattle, J. R. Ruple, who has a fine farm two miles north of Pullman, returned Saturday from Fairfield, Iowa, bringing with him 119 one and two-year old high grade and thoroughbred shorthorn heifers and one fine young shorthorn bull. He expects to keep at least 100 of the bunch at his farm and may dispose of the remainder to others.

Messrs. A. Reany of Pullman, J. W. Hereford of Colfax, Jas. Walters of Garfield, J. H. McCroskey of Oakesdale, and others composing the buying party who went east last week, are expected to arrive in a few weeks with a fine train of cattle, which will be scattered over the country and grow up with it.

The Agricultural farm at Pullman has recently received two thoroughbred shorthorn heifers from Fairfield, Iowa, and a registered Berkshire boar from the drove of C. T. Ayers at Osceola, Iowa.

These shipments will make splendid additions to the nucleus of good stock already in the Palouse country, and it is hoped the good work will continue until scrub cattle, cayuse horses, razor back hogs and weakling sheep may no more be seen upon the hills.

San Jose Scale Appears. According to the Garfield Enterprise, one of the most dangerous apple pests has found lodgment in the Palouse country. The paper says: Five hundred pounds of apples from the Shorno farm on Dry creek were rejected the other day by C. E. Averill & Co. on account of being infested with the San Jose scale. This is another pest that the orchardists of the Palouse country will have to reckon with. The San Jose scale when it has gained a foothold, will kill an orchard in three years. In any of the books on horticulture will be found remedies. Each one who has an orchard should keep a close watch for this pest, as it is much easier to prevent its spread than to fight it when it is widely scattered. Its presence on apples may be known by the little red specks.

Farm Hand Robbed. A case of theft is reported from Will Fudge's ranch near La Crosse some time during Friday night, in which Arthur Comcent, an employe of the ranch, lost $9.65 in cash, a suit of clothes, revolver, etc., valued at $25 or $30. A young man named Lou Miller is under suspicion. He had been working on the ranch and was paid off the previous day, his announced intention being to go to Spokane on the train passing La Crosse at an early morning hour and return in a few days. He and Comcent worked together in the bunk house. When morning came Miller was gone and so were his companion's valuables.

Rains and Snow. Moderate fall rains, much needed by the plowman, have fallen during the week, that of Sunday being heaviest. Snow fell on Kamia and Steptoe buttes, at Moscow and Spokane, and along the eastern border of the county, but none so far west as Colfax, whose altitude is several hundred feet lower. Before the rains, the farmers were complaining that the ground was too dry for either plowing or seeding.

Will Visit a Mine. John Erford left Tuesday for Spokane, where he will spend several days and attend the annual stockholders meeting of the Eagle Mining Company representing the interests of himself and J. R. Lee. He will then visit the mine, near Chewelah, where he will spend several weeks, hunting and inspecting the workings of the property.

November Strawberries. The Gazette was shown Wednesday a box of strawberries of the first grade, ripe and luscious, picked that morning, November 6, in the garden of L. W. Shearer at Pullman. They were exhibited by W. L. Miles of Farmington, who was on his way home from Pullman.

Sold Bakery Interest. Frank Enos has sold his interest in the Bakery restaurant to his former partner, Thos. Gallagher. Mr. Enos departed Saturday for Seattle, accompanied by his brother, Claude. They expect to winter in the Sound city and will probably return to Colfax in the spring.

COMPANY L WILL PASS

National Guard Inspection Last Monday Night.

There Were No "Immovable Statues," But Good Work Was Done in a Soldierly Way.

Two officers and 40 men of Company L, First regiment National Guard of Washington, passed inspection Monday night before Colonel John Kinzie, inspector of the national guard of the state.

Colonel Kinzie is a retired officer of the United States army, holding the rank of captain in the regular establishment, and a thorough soldier and disciplinarian. The inspection was searching and rigid to the letter of military regulations, and if the company comes up to the high standard required under the vigilant eye of so able an officer, it will speak well for its efficiency as a military organization. There is no doubt in the minds of the officers of the company and those visiting that the boys met every requirement for continuance in the service. Colonel Kinzie himself expressed pleasure in the material and prospects of Company L, though, of course, giving no hint as to what his report to the adjutant general would be.

At the close of the inspection the colonel devoted the remainder of the evening to instruction of the officers and men in military tactics, much to their pleasure and benefit.

The company was commanded at inspection by Captain F. T. Baker. Visiting officers were Lieutenant-Colonel O. E. Hamilton of Colfax and Lieutenant E. H. Bentley of Company G, Garfield.

Colonel Kinzie visited Company G, Garfield, Tuesday night for the purpose of mustering the organization out of the service, it having failed in keeping quite up to the high and efficient standard required.

Colonel Kinzie, in addition to his rank from the regular army, is lieutenant-colonel on the governor's staff and instructor in military tactics at Washington Agricultural college.

Annual Poultry Show. The local chicken fanciers met in F. E. Hawley's office last Saturday evening and set the machinery for the annual poultry show in motion, says the Pullman Herald. It had been agreed previously to last winter's show that the exhibition of the Whitman county association should go to Colfax this year, but the fanciers at the county seat were unable to arouse the enthusiasm necessary, and so turned the exhibition over to Pullman again. At the meeting Saturday evening, F. E. Hawley was elected president for the ensuing year, A. C. Butcher being continued as secretary and T. T. Davis will continue in the control of the association funds. It was decided to hold the show January 15 to 18, inclusive, and F. W. Hitchcock has been engaged to judge the fowls. Our chicken men are enthusiasts this fall, and they propose to hold a record-breaking show, there being a good crop of excellent birds.

Married at Spokane. At the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at Spokane, Wednesday, November 5, at high noon, by Rev. Dr. Lambert, Mr. John King of Colfax was united in marriage to Miss Bertha Finch. The bride was a resident of Seattle and is a niece of Hon. J. W. Arrasmith and brothers of near Colfax. The groom is a former well known school teacher of Whitman county now proprietor of Colfax's new steam laundry.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR. "Something New Under The Sun." All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have named to cure, while paints and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "SNUFFLES THE GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE" and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use. "SNUFFLES" is the only perfect CATARRH CURE ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve HAY FEVER or COLD in the HEAD. CATARRH when neglected often leads to CONSUMPTION—"SNUFFLES" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure CATARRH in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once, and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "SNUFFLES" the "GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE." SCHLEY FINISHED TESTIMONY.

Said the Victory Was Big Enough for All Concerned.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The long ordeal to which Admiral Schley has been subjected since Monday morning ended this afternoon when his cross-examination was concluded, and he was allowed to leave the witness stand. When the judge advocate finished the cross-examination, shortly after 3 o'clock, the court propounded to the admiral thirty-four questions prepared by the members of the court. These questions touched many points of the campaign of the flying squadron, but mainly centered about the difficulties encountered in coaling and the reasons for the retrograde movement. Not one of them related to the battle of Santiago. The judge advocate's cross-examination today covered the retrograde movement, the reconnaissance of May 31, the loop of the Brooklyn and the alleged colloquy with Lieut. Hodgson about the Texas. One of the most interesting features of the day was the development of the fact that the report of the battle written by Admiral Schley on July 6, 1898, was not the original report. The original report never has been published and, in accordance with a previous decision, the court today declined to permit it to go into the record. Admiral Schley was allowed to explain, however, that Admiral Sampson declined to receive the first report because it did not mention the presence of the New York. "I felt that the victory, at that time," said Admiral Schley in explaining the matter, "was big enough for all, and I made this correction out of generosity, and because I knew that if the New York had been present she would have done as good work as anybody else."

Shot at Russian Police. London, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to a news agency here from St. Petersburg says an unknown man gained an interview with Lieutenant Kriget, the prefect of police, under the pretext of presenting a petition, and shot at him twice before he was overpowered. The prefect was not injured.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured. "Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by F. J. Stone.
