Excited Citizen-I want a man arrested right away! I've been assaulted, and I wasn't doing a thing but walking along the street in a quiet, orderly and inoffensive manner and whistling. Justice-Um-er-what tune were you whistling?-New York Weekly. It Worried Him. "My wife," said the thoughtful man, "always kisses me very affectionately when I am going away for a trip." "That ought to please you." "Well, I don't know about that. I notice she never kisses me so affectionately when I come back." -Chicago Post. Change. When Tillie used to cross my path Afoot or riding on a wheel, Her passing by an aftermath, A breath of violets would reveal. But in her auto she tonight, So fast that it could not be seen, Rushed by me, and, though failed my sight, I knew she passed-by gasoline. -Life. At the Jungle Party. Miss Jumbo-I wonder what is the matter with Miss Camel? Miss Hippo-Is there anything? Miss Jumbo-Yes; she has her back up about something.-Chicago News. A Warning Note. Johnny-Paw, what does it mean when it says "sound the tocsin"? Mr. Wise-Oh, I reckon it's one of these fights about antitoxin.-Baltimore American. Variety. The weather men tries hard to please; No zool could'er be greater; At early morn it starts to freeze And thaws five minutes later. -Washington Star. The Whole Business. "Will you give me your name, please?" "Yep, if you'll take me hand and heart along wid it." -New York Journal. Mrs. C. E. VanDeusen of Kibourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These Tablets are for sale at F. J. Stone's drug store. Price, 25 cents. WOMAN'S NEW FADS. Business Not Overdone. We again wish to state, as we have many times before in these columns, that the poultry business is not overdone. It is like any other business in that it must be properly conducted. There is always a ready market for poultry and eggs every day in the year, and there is a demand above the market prices for high grade stock and eggs. We are speaking now from the standpoint of the market poultryman. Conditions are the same, however, with the fancier. If you will show us a poultryman who is unable to dispose of his stock at profitable prices, we will show you one who does not take advantage of his opportunities and conduct his business upon a business basis.-Reliable Poultry Journal. Stick to One Breed. If farmers would take one good breed of fowls and carefully study their characteristics, they would make more profit than if they keep trying to originate some new breed. It sounds well to hear yourself spoken of as the originator of some new and valuable breed, but very few ever succeed in starting a variety of fowls that ever amounts to anything. A Printer Greatly Surprised. "I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville, (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette, I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so I bought a bottle of it and before using two thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." Sold by F. J. Stone. Subscribe for your periodicals through The Gazette and save money. C. H. Moore buys hides. Another fad of the season that reformers are already viewing with apprehension is the trailing skirt that is no longer hoisted in alarming fashion over one hip, but now trails its silken or velvet length upon the pavement. One reason for this, says a writer in the New York Sun, is that every woman carries a muff and has no free hand for her skirt. Another reason is that the manner of raising the skirt had grown so remarkably and was carried to such an extreme by many women wishing to be conspicuous that women of taste have chosen to let their skirts trail as they pass to their carriages. Some Smart Millinery. Of these three hats, originally depleted in Vogue, the lower has a soft sable.

GOFF Colfax, Wash. HOUSEWORK. Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition. WINE OF CARDUI is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter: Glendean, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901. I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day. MRS. RICHARD JONES. $1.00 AT DRUGGISTS. For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department", The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. HERE is no loss of time or money at any season of the year, in your farming operations, if you use only first class farm machinery. For example, the Flying Dutchman Gang Monitor Disc Drill Critic Harrow Bain or Mitchell Wagons Call and see them. Colfax Implement Co. Choice Brome Seed in Stock.
