PALOUSE STANDS PAT.

Does Not Want Her Cmp Sweetened With County Division.

The citizens of Palouse and vicinity are becoming aroused over the attempts of Okesdale and Pullman to slice Whitman county into three ragged parts and are almost unanimously in arms against the move, says the Palouse Republic. Remonstrances for presentation to the legislature are being vigorously circulated and generally signed. The proposed division is opposed here for the sufficient reasons that future taxation would be inevitably higher, the growing influence now commanded by grand old Whitman be lost, and detriment rather than good to all concerned certain to be the penalty.

For the purpose of contributing to the defeat of a proposition so unwise and unfeared, in order that two burgo may become county seats of a township or two, a meeting of Palouse business men was held Thursday afternoon at the council chambers, with a large attendance. An important step in the fight was the authorization of a committee composed of W. A. White and G. D. Kincaid, to raise an expense fund for the purpose of sending former representative C. W. Waters to Olympia to lay the objections of the people here before the members and committees of the legislature.

Mr. Waters departed this morning on his mission. It was also determined to vigorously circulate remonstrances. A general meeting was called, to be held at Powers' hall, Saturday afternoon, January 17, at 2 o'clock, for a full, fair and free discussion of the proposal, to which both sides are invited and expected to participate. Delegations from nearly every town in the county will be present, among them being J. C. Lawrence and H. C. McCroskey of Garfield, A. Cookidge and others of Colfax, F. J. Hayfield of Farmington, and representatives from Tekoa, Uniontown and possibly Pullman.

A new phase in the scheme is the recent activity displayed by Pullman to secure a third county, with the fond hope that the seat of government may be secured for that town. Though the scheme is pretty generally favored about Pullman, some opposition has arisen in their own ranks, notably among the Agricultural college faculty, where county division is strenuously opposed for the good of the college. The lines of this proposed county are from a point on the Idaho line between Palouse and Garfield west six miles, thence south and west in zig-zag fashion to Almota and embracing all territory between that and the state line.

As proposed, Garfield is to be left in the present county, in a strip three miles wide, wedged in between the two new counties.

A Movable Fort.

One of the latest inventions for service in war times is called the war motor. Being built on wheels it can be operated by a very few men, and is strongly recommended for seacoast defense. The only medicine that is strongly recommended by thousands of grateful people, who have used it as a defense against all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It cured them and will not fail in your case. Try it, if you are a sufferer from loss of appetite, headache, insomnia, indigestion, dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipated bowels, or kidney troubles, and you will not be disappointed. ANKENY IN THE LEAD

Combination Between Preston and John L. Wilson.

Whitman Delegation is Solid as a Rock for the Railway Commission Bill.

Olympia, Jan. 22.—(Special Correspondence.—The old adage "that politics makes strange bedfellows" found its exemplification in the reported action of the Preston forces taking John L. Wilson into their camp. This alliance, if true as reported, whether as a defensive or offensive measure, will be viewed with disgust by the friends of Preston, and "offensive" it will be to the avowed enemies of John L. in Whitman and other counties in Eastern Washington where "Wilsonism" became a stench in the nostrils of the good people thereof and who rose up in their wrath in past election and through his candidates read him out of the party. Even should the Preston-McBrade forces offer the excuse that by combining forces with Wilson and deferring the matter of a senatorial caucus until the commission bill was out of danger, the well known tactics of former Senator Wilson would be resented by the governor's friends in this permitting Wilson to become a member of this unholy alliance.

Mr. Ankeny, reinforced by scores of old time business associates and prominent business men of Eastern and Western Washington, pursues the quiet dignified course of campaign expected of a man who has been identified with the interests of Washington for so many years. The pioneer successful business man and champion of an open river to tide water is gaining votes daily. After a great deal of skirmishing on the part of the candidates and managers, the line of battle was drawn up in solid front in the session in the house and senate of Tuesday when the informal ballot showed the following result: Levi Ankeny 48, Harold Preston 41, John L. Wilson 12, George Turner 22, Judge Carol Graves 6, John B. Allen 3, W. L. Jones 1, F. W. Cushman 1, Ira Engalhart 1. Senator Hailey voted for Ankeny and Dr. Wilson for J. B. Allen. Dr. Dix voted for Preston, Jones and Mackenzie for George Turner. Of course, this ballot means practically nothing as there were many scattering votes complimentary.

Ex-Senator Oliver Hall, who enjoys a large acquaintance among members of the house and senate, has been here in the interests of the commission bill, and keeping an open eye on division matters. U. L. Ettinger has been circulating among members working for the commission bill with his characteristic energy.

It is the consensus of opinion of those best posted, who have interviewed members composing the committees on counties and county boundaries in both the house and senate, that there will be no division of Whitman county at this session.

The vote in joint ballot today stood: Ankeny 22, Preston 41, Wilson 12, and Turner 22, with a few complimentary votes scattering. Ankeny gained four votes over Tuesday's ballot.

The house and senate delegation from Whitman stand as "solid as a rock" on the commission bill.

Death of Jacob Van Tine.

Jacob Van Tine, a pioneer of this state, died of heart disease at his home southwest of Elberton, January 16. Mr. Van Tine was born in New Brunswick, New Jersey, January 25, 1824. He came to Whitman county in 1878, where he has since resided. The deceased, whose wife preceded him to her reward some eight months ago, leaves six children to mourn their loss. Their names are: Mrs. Elinor Inman of Pullman; Mrs. Addie Hamilton of Kendrick, Idaho; J. W. Van Tine of Grangeville, Idaho; J. H. Van Tine and A. L. Van Tine, both of Elberton. Twenty grand children and one great-grand child came to brighten the declining years of the departed one. Mr. Van Tine was a member of the United Brethren church. The funeral was held from the family residence and interment made in the Elberton cemetery.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. Stuart's Cash Drug Store.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D., Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle at Elk Drug Store, Colfax.

Simple Colds.
