County and City Official Paper. O. R. & N. Time Card.

H. Van Schoick is mayor-elect. "It should be the policy of the United States to leave no place on earth where a corrupt man fleeing from his country can rest in peace."

The legislature of the state of Montana is being asked to pass a "fair trial bill." The mountain state does not need such a measure nearly so bad as it needs to be delivered from the greedy hands of the Amalgamated Copper Company.

President Roosevelt's message to congress delivered Tuesday is a most comprehensive state paper and should be read by every citizen of the United States.

The democratic press is most persistent in its attacks upon President Roosevelt. It is willing to play to the trust magnates' hand in order to secure a campaign fund next year.

The Chicago preachers who have asked the Zion City receivers for the privilege of establishing missions in Dowie's holy city must have the impression that the Dowie religion is also in the bankruptcy court.

It is announced that the war department at Washington has adopted and put into operation the idea prevalent in European nations of preparing plans for the guidance of armies in other countries in the event of hostilities.

The Gazette prints this week a letter from a subscriber at Endicott, who expresses, incidentally, a desire to have the paper open a department for communications upon different subjects.

Judge E. C. Million of Mount Vernon, while in Spokane last week, was interviewed by the Spokesman Review.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the attempt of the department of agriculture to develop the manufacture of raw silk from native cocoons.

The United States consul at Frankfurt, Germany, reports that radium can be manufactured in a liquid state from sodium at a cost of only $5 a quart.

An Idaho woman is suing for divorce because her husband before retiring at night lined the inside of his pockets with pins.

"The Parting of the Ways."

The bitterness and extent of Canada's anger toward the mother country over the outcome of the Alaskan boundary negotiations are apparent in the expressions of representative Canadian newspapers of all political parties.

This Alaskan episode has made it clear that our existing relation to the empire cannot be continued much longer.

The Chronicle adds that there are now only two courses open for Canada—complete legislative independence within the empire.

There seems to be no good reason why Canada should not break away from the mother country and govern herself if she so desires.

War Department's New Policy. It is announced that the war department at Washington has adopted and put into operation the idea prevalent in European nations of preparing plans for the guidance of armies in other countries in the event of hostilities.

The desirability of possessing such information is apparent if it should be needed. When it became necessary to send United States troops to China during the outbreak of 1900 this government found itself lamentably deficient in information concerning even the most commonplace details.

SIRENS AND SONS.

Senator Matthew Stanley Quay is seventy years old. Captain Lafont of the French army is to explore the Niger basin.

The Earl of Dudley, viceroy of Ireland, rarely visits England, remaining at his post of duty almost constantly.

James T. Bailey of the Barnum & Bailey circus will erect a $150,000 mansion and a $40,000 stable at Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Major William H. Hammer of Omaha, a retired army officer, is one of the few survivors of the force at Fort Sumner under Major Anderson.

John Crump, a mulatto who served with distinction under Farragut and was severely wounded during the battle in Mobile bay, has been obliged, at the age of 102 years, to seek a home in the Denver poorhouse.

Since he returned from Manila with Admiral Dewey in November, 1899, Rear Admiral Lambertson has not been at sea. He will succeed Rear Admiral George W. Sumner in command of the south Atlantic station in December next.

A Frightened Horse. Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy.

Modern residence in South Colfax, good location, ample grounds, with fine lawn and plenty of shade and fruit trees. J. G. Elliot, Phone Red 315.

Hold Your Breath. The average editor secretly hopes that sometime, somewhere, somehow, somebody may come to him and unselfishly commend him for something he has said or done.

Echo Answers "How?" Portland Oregonian. The public has barely recovered from nervous prostration induced by the question "How old is Ann?"

Democratic Warning to Democrats. The Plain Dealer does not stand alone in assuring democrats in congress that the democratic party is not disposed to support them in a policy of hostility to the Panama canal.
