

THREE TOWNS UNITED

Colfax, Pullman and Moscow Work Together.

Three Principal Towns of the Palouse Appoint Joint Committees—Actual Survey Has Begun.

The committee selected at the mass meeting held in Colfax last Saturday to solicit subscriptions for stock in the Spokane & Inland electric railway, met and organized last Monday.

A meeting between the committee and similar committees of prominent business men of Pullman and Moscow was held yesterday at Pullman. Four of the members of the Colfax committee were present and a joint committee was selected to work for the mutual benefit of these three principal towns of the Palouse country in securing the necessary support for the building of the road by the Colfax route.

The first work on actual survey of the road has been commenced by an engineering party under A. M. Lupton on Moran prairie. The chief engineer of the line is expected to be on the Palouse part of the line, about the middle of February. He will work from the north Whitman county line this way and have two and perhaps three parties, so as to hasten the work through to Moscow by March 10.

COLFAX BEAT W. A. C. GIRLS. Interesting Basket Ball Game at Pullman Last Saturday.

The Colfax high school girls' basket ball team won a notable victory last Saturday night, when they defeated the W. A. C. girls' team on their home ground in Pullman by a score of 8 to 3. The Colfax girls were very fearful of the outcome of the game when they went to Pullman, but the jubilant over the results. The field at Pullman is much larger than the Colfax field; being larger than the rules allow, while the Colfax field is a small one. This difference told seriously upon the Colfax team. The difference in the arrangements of the baskets also seriously handicapped the Colfax team.

The game was a fierce one; both teams entering the game with the full determination of winning. W. A. C. began to show distress early in the second half and then the outcome of the game was no longer in doubt. The Colfax team also relaxed somewhat during the last five minutes of play, the large field and fierce playing beginning to tell upon them. There were nine fouls called on Colfax during the game, of which W. A. C. threw three. There were eight fouls called on W. A. C. and Colfax threw two. Ethel Marsh threw the baskets from the foul line for Colfax. Lucretia Pocock threw two of the three field goals and Maude Smith threw the other.

The Colfax team was accorded fine treatment from the W. A. C. throughout their entire stay. During the game, the best plays were freely cheered. In the afternoon, the W. A. C. team gave them a reception in Stevens hall and entertained them until the game in the evening.

Miss Hoepfner, receptress of the high school, chaperoned the team. Mae Smith and Edna Bryden were substitutes. About 15 friends accompanied the team. The line up was as follows:

- Arnot, Pocock, Vermilye, Marsh, Whitaker, Gilbert, Brown, Thompson, Smith, Refere, Cook of Colfax. Umpire, Palmerston of Pullman. Time of halves; 15 minutes.

Both boys and girls teams expect to go to Cheney next Saturday and play the Normal team there that night. The Colfax girls play by boys rules and the Cheney girls by girls rules; so the two teams have made a compromise. This will make it awkward for both. The field is so poor at Cheney, and with the change in rules, the Colfax girls do not expect to win; but go for the sake of the trip. It is different with the boys, however. The Colfax boys' team was defeated last year at Cheney by a score of 9 to 7 and Colfax intends to have a different ending to the story this year. Colfax has defeated a team from the W. A. C. and the Colfax town team this year. Cheney has defeated Ritzville high school; so a good game is anticipated.

Our Mill Sees the Carnival.

Milton McCoskey, bookkeeper in the First National Bank of this city, who is spending the winter in California, writes that he is having the time of his life and that he is getting so stout that his face is beginning to crack. Mr. McCoskey visited his sister in San Francisco as he went down, and then continued his journey on to southern California, the Italy of America, where he took in the sights of Los Angeles, Riverside, Redlands and Pasadena, at the last named place witnessing the great annual flower carnival held on New Years day. The tournament of roses consists of a parade several miles in length in which only flower decorated equipages are entered. Hundreds of trolley-buses, carriages and automobiles completely hidden under thousands of roses, lilies, carnations and violets and in which are seated fair maids and matrons in white gowns and carrying parasols, pass before one in rapid succession, a veritable scene from the Garden of Eden.

Tekoa Merchants Get Married.

Among the marriage licenses issued last Saturday were two to Messrs. D. Campbell and Aloysius Koeck. Both of these young men are engaged in the grocery business at Tekoa; the former being one of the proprietors of the Tekoa Grocery Co. and the latter a clerk for Edw. Schmidt. Both of the grooms are very popular in their home town as are also their happy brides.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

This office is in receipt of the program of the meeting of the Washington State Beekeepers association which will hold its annual session at North Yakima, February 8, 9 and 10. The session promises to be an interesting one as papers will be read by some of the best known authorities on bees and their care in the state.

The city council at its regular meeting held last Monday night decided to discontinue the weekly sessions and will until further notice meet every two weeks. The next meeting will be held February 6th. The most important matter brought before the council last Monday was the subject of building a wall along the river bank at the foot of Spring street. Messrs. Julius Lippitt and E. R. Barroll appeared before the council and urged that the city cooperate with them in their endeavor to wall the banks of the river in the rear of the two blocks from the city hall to Wall street. They offered to donate 15 feet of the property in the rear of their buildings for the purpose of an alley. The matter was referred to the street committee who were instructed to see the other property owners and get them to work to the desired end.

Mrs. Margaret Lomasson who returned last Sunday from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Scott in Portland was on the train which was held up Saturday evening in the outskirts of Portland. She and Mrs. Emory Neal who was returning from Tucson, Arizona, with the body of her husband, were the only two women passengers in the Pullman car. She says that the men passengers were badly frightened and their actions were ridiculously funny. The women passengers were not molested.

One of the heaviest rain falls of the season fell in Colfax last Monday. There was a steady down pour from 8 a.m. on Sunday evening until late in the afternoon of Monday. The Palouse river and tributary streams rose rapidly but as the frost is all out of the ground the water is being absorbed. As there has been but little snowfall no particularly high waters are looked for.

The work of installing the bowling alleys in the building formerly occupied by the Star saloon is progressing rapidly and Mr. Johnston expects to have an opening about the first of February.

A branch house of the Singer Sewing Machine company has been established in Colfax. The store room next to the Bellingier block has been rented and a supply of machines have been placed on exhibition. It is intended to make the Colfax house a sort of headquarters for this section of the Palouse country.

Work on the new water pipe line is progressing as rapidly as the wet weather will permit. A conference was held yesterday between the water committee of the council, and engineers and the officials of the O. R. & N. Co. relative to the crossing of the railroad company's pipe line by the city's new line. The iron pipe ordered from the east has not arrived as yet but is daily expected. "If everything goes smoothly," said Mr. Mastin, "we will be drinking the spring water next June."

A change in the ownership of the Enterprise Implement company was made last Friday, January 20, when Lewis Schmuck purchased the interest of his partner, John L. Corner. Mr. Corner has been connected with the store for four years. It was known first as the Corner & Carter Implement Co. and the name changed two years ago to the Enterprise Implement Company. Mr. Carter sold his interest last October to Mr. Schmuck, who now becomes sole proprietor.

A man giving the name of J. Barton was arrested Sunday at LaCrosse for stealing a roll of blankets belonging to George Bevis, a railroad employe at Winona. Barton was arraigned Tuesday before Judge Chadwick and pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to serve two years in Walla Walla.

During the past two weeks nearly $8000 worth of the new water warrants issued by the city council have been purchased. The names and amounts are as follows: Kate D. Metz, $1000; A. Grob, $250; R. E. Gallick, Walla Walla, $1250; H. Fowler, Diamond, $500; Chas. Platt, San Jose, Cal., $1000; Albert Puske, LaCrosse, $1000; H. Van Schoick, $500; John Furrer, $250; H. G. De Beige, $750; E. N. Beach, Palouse, $2000. In addition to these subscriptions, applications have been made for several thousand dollars more of the warrants and from present indications the entire fund will be taken up in the near future.

In this issue E. K. and R. M. Hanna announce their co-partnership, as attorneys at law, under the firm name of Hanna & Hanna. They will engage in a general law business, both civil and criminal. Their office is in the Bellingier building. They will practice in the state and federal court and the land office.

O. L. Fehler has sold his 250 acre farm to W. W. Hubbard for $38 per acre. There are 170 acres in grain and some improvements. The deal was made by V. B. McDowell.

AN ELEVATOR BURNED

A Hot Fire at Diamond Last Tuesday Night.

Pacific Coast Company's Elevator and Two Warehouses Consumed by Flames.

A fire which consumed the large grain elevator and two grain warehouses belonging to the Pacific Coast Elevator company occurred last Tuesday night at Diamond, nine miles west of Colfax. There were approximately 35,000 bushels of grain in the buildings, most of which is a total loss. In addition to the buildings and grain destroyed, the O. R. & N. railroad company suffered the loss of five box cars and considerable damage to their tracks.

The cause of the fire is unknown. When questioned concerning the probable cause, Mr. Armstrong, manager of the grain company's business in the Palouse country said: "We do not know the cause. It might have been incendiary origin or it might have been spontaneous combustion, but we do not know and have no explanations to offer the public."

The Pacific Coast company had stored in the warehouses about 25,000 bushels of grain, mostly wheat, of their own, besides which there were between ten and fifteen thousand bushels belonging to other parties. The Northwestern Warehouse company lost about 6200 bushels. One car of 50 tons capacity had just been loaded by the latter company the day previous and was one of the five cars burned. The buildings and most of the grain were fully covered by insurance. E. L. Cornelius sustained the loss of 900 sacks of barley upon which there was no insurance.

One of the warehouses was a new structure erected only last season. It was 110 feet long by 40 feet wide. The other warehouse was 60x40. The elevator was 30x32. The fire started about 6 o'clock in the evening and burned fiercely until about 10 o'clock that night. So hot was the fire that the Portland passenger train due there shortly after eight o'clock was held at Colfax for two hours. There are no facilities for fighting fire at Diamond and about all the bystanders could do was to stand off and watch the flames leap into the air and save the adjoining buildings.

THE SOCIAL SIDE.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Kennedy were the guests of honor at a very delightful five hundred party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cairns Friday evening. The gathering was in the nature of a farewell as Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left early in the week for their future home in Portland. In the game of cards the prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Dean Chandler Woodward. Following the game a dainty collation was served from the card tables. There were forty guests present.

Mrs. F. T. Abbott, Miss Emma Kallisher, Miss Stella Perkins and Miss Newland made a party and went to Moscow last Friday where they attended the concert given by Madame Berg de Logren, the vocal instructor assisted by her pupils and Miss Lucy Hogan of this city.

The ladies of the M. E. church gave a farewell reception Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors to Mrs. M. E. Carley who leaves soon for her new home on the Columbia river near Arlington. A large number of friends were present. The tables were prettily decorated and dainty refreshments were served. The program consisted of toasts and recitations by Mrs. Theresa Colvin, Mrs. L. E. Westling, Mrs. Flora Ferguson, Mrs. W. D. Ellis and Miss Julia Corner.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Fogle, the teacher of English, is sick at her home in Moscow. Mrs. H. M. Cook is filling her place during her absence.

As we have had several additions to our sophomore class a new class organization was thought necessary at the beginning of the new semester. Accordingly a class meeting was called and the following officers elected: Piema Tomkins, president; Mary Codd, vice president; Clinton Duvall, secretary and treasurer.

Our freshmen class, consisting of about thirty-four members, also had a meeting called by the sisters of Charity, officers and the following were chosen: Harry Hinchliff, president; Eva Berry, vice president; Katie Ryan, secretary; Gus Hess, treasurer and William Clark, sergeant at arms.

The high school athletic association also had an election of new officers last week. Bert Bragg again holds the position of president. Sam Kimbrough was elected vice president and Lucretia Pocock, secretary.

LATEST FROM ST. PETERSBURG.

The City is Filled With Sensational Rumors.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Jan. 25, '05—Emperor Nicholas was prostrated by grip this morning and called his cabinet to his support. The cabinet decided after an all night session to order at once a supply of the new export bottled beer, manufactured by the Colfax Brewing Company, to maintain the strength and vigor of the czar.

To Prevent the Entire Collapse of Russian Autocracy.

Our special correspondent considers this order of the cabinet very significant in view of the critical situation, as in his personal opinion, only such bottles could benefit the czar. AT THE RIDGEWAY.

Chas. B. Hanford. The coming of Chas. B. Hanford and his excellent company to the Ridgeway on Saturday evening, February 11th in the great play of "Don Cesar De Bazan" is being hailed with delight among Colfax theater goers and the indications point to an audience that will test the capacity of the house. The Hanford Company is top well known here to need any special comment, and about the most forefearful thing we can say is, that those who enjoy strictly first-class drama will miss a genuine treat if they do not attend this performance.

Paul Gilmore.

The management of the Ridgeway have arranged for the appearance of Mr. Paul Gilmore in "The Mummy and the Hummingbird" for Friday, March 3. Mr. Gilmore is carrying an excellent company and is phenomenally successful wherever he appears. Mr. Gilmore will be remembered for the dainty, high class production of "The Tyranny of Tears" he gave here two years ago. There was not a very large audience present from the fact that Mr. Gilmore was an utter stranger to the patrons of the house, but those who witnessed the performance, were more than well pleased.
