

AROUND THE COUNTY

ALBION AFFAIRS.

The ladies of the Eastern Star met Tuesday at their hall, where the order entertained, and were instructed and interested by Mrs. Mellie Guernsey, grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star of Washington.

Under the leadership of Evangelist McCarty and wife, assisted by local pastors, a revival full of vigor and enthusiasm is being held in the M. E. church at this place. The singing is a special feature of the meetings. Evangelist McCarty's magnificent voice, with which the rich contralto of his wife blends so nicely, makes a marked success and fills the church to overflowing.

Representatives of the Salvation Army—a people filled with the Christly desire to rescue the perishing—gave a moving picture entertainment at the hall Monday evening.

The saints are holding an assembly meeting at their home on Union Flat. Several from this place are attending the meeting this week.

William Canutt, an old man whose home is here, has just returned from a visit among relatives in Oregon.

Ben Clark, who is badly crippled and has been so from infancy, was kicked by a horse while in Viola, Idaho, last week, causing a greater lameness, necessitating the use of crutches.

The Rice boys, Chester and Fred, are about recovered from the wounds received last week by the accidental discharge of a gun while shooting muskrats on the banks of the South Palouse river.

The Albion flouring mills which burned last Friday night are to be rebuilt. The loss to the town will be a great one should it prove otherwise. The insurance is being adjusted and will in a measure cover the loss. There were a good many who had their year's flour stored in the mill and others had stored wheat. Their loss bears heavy upon them.

Mrs. J. C. Lawrence, teacher in the high school, was ill last week and her place in the school room was supplied by a severe attack of rheumatism Monday.

Mrs. Stella Haxton was summoned to St. John Moudy by the serious illness of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keith, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Eliza Jennings, left this week for the Alberta country, where Mr. Keith went some time ago and located a home. Bert Jennings accompanied the family to their new home with the intention of locating a ranch for himself and will then send for his mother, who will live with him.

American Supplies for England.

What England would do, and how her people would subsist, if suddenly deprived of her American source of supplies, is difficult to imagine. It is also difficult to imagine how the American people would keep so healthy if they were suddenly deprived of the famous Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, for in this sore remedy they have their only hope of being cured of stomach, liver and bowel disorders. It has been subjected to the severe test of over 50 years and has always given complete satisfaction. Its record of cures of such ailments as poor appetite, insomnia, sick headache, nervousness, liver and kidney troubles, general debility, indigestion, dyspepsia, colds and malaria, fever and ague, catarrhs of the bowels, and all other ailments that afflict the human system, is a record of which no other remedy can boast. One bottle will convince you of its wonderful merit. Try it today.

At the Ridgeway.

"Why Women Sin" is the misleading title of the play produced at the Ridgeway last Wednesday night by Bernice Howard and a fairly capable company. The title is misleading to those who attended expecting racy sensationalism. The play demonstrates that women sin through the neglect of their husbands, who are too much wrapped up in business to attend to the social side of life. Miss Howard, as Fifi, is strong and wou much applause. Will H. Fields gave a good specialty in act 3, and Little Margie's juvenile specialties were well received.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the county auditor during the past week at Colfax: Robert Prather of Spokane, and Addie Owens of Pocatello, Idaho; Arthur J. M. Matlock. The men pleaded not guilty and their cases were set for Nov. 21, for trial.

Bilious Attack Quickly Cured.

A few weeks ago I had a bilious attack that was so severe I was not able to go to the office for two days. Failing to get relief from my family physician's treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man.—H. C. Bailey, Editor of the News, Chapin, S. C. These Tablets are for sale by the Elk Drug Store.

THE GROUND CUCKOO.

Remarkable Cunnning It Displays In Catching Rattlers.

One of the most interesting zoological oddities is the California ground cuckoo. He usually is from twenty to twenty-five inches long, including his tail, which measures one-half of his whole length. On account of his small wings he is a poor flier, but what he lacks in aerial dexterity he makes up in pedestrian velocity. With his four yard jumps he can outrun the swiftest race horse. His geographical range is confined to southern California, Mexico and some parts of Texas. As a bird of prey the ground cuckoo outwits his most avidious fellow creatures. Snails and large worms constitute his principal food, which he is busy all day in digging out of the ground. But he does not hesitate to attack larger animals. It is no trouble for him to get the better of small snakes, and when domesticated he beats any cat or dog in the extermination of mice and small house pests.

Most curiously interesting is the strategic sagacity he displays in the capture of large rattlesnakes. These he dare not meet in fair and open combat. As soon as he spies a rattlesnake sleeping in the sun near a cactus hedge he surrounds his victim with a heap of the prickly leaves until he is well hemmed in. He then pricks at the reptile a few times with his sharp bill, which causes a sudden commotion in the cactus heap. In his attempt to disentangle himself from the leaves he wounds his tender flesh, and it takes but an hour or two for the average rattler to die of sheer exhaustion and furnish a much coveted tidbit for the sly cuckoo. His method with his prey resembles that of the cat with the mouse.

Influence of Red Hair.

"There never has been an important revolutionary movement without a red haired person intimately concerned, if not the leader," says a writer. "Nearly all the great reformers or founders of religions had red hair. History mentions that Mohammed was a red haired man. King David was ruddy. Louis XIV. was a sandy haired man, with many of the characteristic peculiarities of the type. Cleopatra is called the red haired Greek. Mary, queen of Scots, had red hair, and Prince Charles resembled her in coloring. Lucrezia Borgia looks in her portraits somewhat auburn. Queen Elizabeth was of decidedly red coloring, which will suit both her admirers and her detractors."

Had One Too Many Himself.

"Serves him right!" murmured Mrs. Henpeck, looking up from the paper in which she had been reading of the arrest of a bigamist. "Serves who right?" asked Henpeck. "Oh, a man who took one wife too many." "My! Maybe they'll be after me next."—Philadelphia Ledger.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder PURE-WHOLESOME-RELIABLE

MADE FROM CREAM OF TARTAR DERIVED SOLELY FROM GRAPES, THE MOST DELICIOUS AND WHOLESOME OF ALL FRUIT ACIDS

Its superiority is unquestioned Its fame world-wide Its use a protection and a guarantee against alum food

Alum baking powders are detrimental to health. Many consumers use alum baking powders in perfect ignorance. They are allured to the danger by the cry of cheapness, and the false and flippant advertisements in the newspapers. Alum baking powders do not make a "pure, wholesome and delicious food" any more than two and two make ten. Their manufacturers are deceiving the public. If you wish to avoid this danger to your food, LOOK UPON THE LABEL and decline to buy or use any baking powder that is not plainly designated as a cream of tartar powder.

Two Pretty Operettas.

One of the most successful entertainments ever given in Colfax was the double bill presented Monday and Tuesday at the Ridgeway theater under the auspices of the Guild of the Episcopal church. Two operettas, "Babes in the Woods" and "Red Riding Hood" were presented with local casts in which the participants covered themselves with glory.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simpson, of Walla Walla had entire charge of the entertainments and it was to their skill and untiring efforts that they were so successfully given. The Guild realized a nice little sum to be applied toward the payment of the rectory which the parish recently purchased.
