A May Day dance will be held at Howell's hall for the benefit of the baseball team. Davis' orchestra will furnish the music. A delegation of the Order of Knights from Colfax were present here and conducted initiatory proceedings in the Endicott lodge last Thursday evening.

A. S. Hughes was in Colfax Saturday. The residence of Marshall Mullins was entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday evening. It is not known how the fire originated, but presumably it was of incendiary origin. The fire engines arrived in time to save the outbuildings.

Frank Miller, son of H. J. Miller, had his face scratched up the night of the fire, by running into a barbed wire fence. The cuts are not serious.

A subscription of $60 has been raised for the band boys by H. D. Smith. The members heartily thank Mr. Smith and the public for their interest in the band's progress.

ELBERTON ETCHINGS.

The debate to be held at the school building Saturday evening between the Albion and Elberton high schools promises to be an interesting event.

The question is: "Resolved, That aside from constitutional considerations the treatment of the negroes in the southern states is unjust." Albion has the affirmative, and will be represented by Jot Wetzel, Lora Bryan and Minnie Daesh, while Elberton takes the negative and Eloise Morgan, Vernon Hume and Stella Seagle will present that side of the question. The judges chosen are M. P. McCroskey, W. M. Duncan and S. S. Read, all of Colfax.

Mrs. Maria Shelton, aged 72 years, died at her home here Sunday, after a long illness with heart trouble. The funeral was held Monday at the home and the body was taken to Garfield for burial.

At its meeting held Wednesday night of last week, Wilcox Grange, No. 141, decided to have an ice cream social on the night of May 10.

Farmers are about through with spring seeding, and plowing for summer fallow is next in order.

STATE COLLEGE.

Four hundred and twenty high school athletes will participate in the interschool athletic contests, which will be held on Rogers Field, under the auspices of the State College, on May 10-11.

Twenty-six entries are now in for the public speaking contests, and, since the number is so large, it has been definitely decided to give two programs, one including the oratorical selections, the other the dramatic. The oratorical and dramatic speaking contests will be held on the evenings of May 10th and 11th.

All arrangements are now complete for the annual May Festival, which will be given under the auspices of the State College, May 1st, 2d and 3d. As outlined, the festival will be the biggest musical event on record in the history of the State College, or of the Pacific northwest. One of the most unusual attractions of the festival will be the children's chorus, furnished by the public schools of Pullman.

COUNTY CULLINGS.

Several farmers of Rosalia are shipping in beet pulp from Waverly to feed to their dairy cows.

W. F. M. Ricketts has bought the George Henry tract of 10 acres, lying just west of Pullman for $100 per acre. The land is partly in orchard.

T. F. Richard of Rosalia, who has the contract for supplying fresh meat to the railroad camps, has leased a large tract of land from Henry Burrow near Castle Rock, and is hauling lumber to be used in the erection of a slaughter house near the lake.

Spring work is now in full blast around Oakesdale and farmers are working early and late. Spring has been backward, and this, together with scarcity of help, makes the problem of getting in the crop doubly hard. Farm hands are scarce, notwithstanding the fact that wages are the highest ever known.

A. L. Ballaine, a farmer living in Pleasant valley, lost a large machine shed, containing a threshing machine and other farm implements, valued at $5000, by fire one night last week.

Snow at Spokane.

Dr. R. J. Skille returned from Spokane Wednesday evening. He reports the climatic conditions there at that time as somewhat peculiar. The weather was not only cold but a hard hail storm struck the valley, drenching the streets with melted snow and covering the surrounding hills with a white mantle. It was out of the usual. Here in the Palouse, while the atmosphere was chilly and old boreas was making his presence known, nothing like the above was present. The hail at Spokane was local.

Good Roads For Automobiles.

Although since the use of automobiles became widespread in a considerable section of the country a good deal of money has been expended on the improvement of roads, very much more must be devoted to the purpose if long distance traveling is to be promoted, says Harper's Weekly. Under the auspices of the Good Roads league a movement has been started for the construction of a highway suitable for automobiles from the Schuykill river to a provisional terminus at Pittsburg. The distance is nearly 300 miles, and the computed cost of such a structure would be between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000. A more interesting and promising plan was mooted the other day by the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The scheme proposed by that newspaper contemplates the restoration, improvement and extension of the old National road, otherwise known as the Cumberland road, which was built by the federal government during the thirty-three years preceding 1839. Made, as it was, under the supervision of engineers of the regular army, this highway has been compared for solidity with the military thoroughfares created by the Romans, the remains of which are still turned to account in many parts of Europe.

Macadam Road Maintenance.

Neglect to properly maintain a macadam road after it has been built is one of the worst enemies of road reform of which we have knowledge, says Good Roads Magazine. Many a case is on record of where a stone road has gone to pieces within a very short time after its completion owing to negligence in giving the matter of repair due attention. Experience shows that a road once properly built can be maintained indefinitely by making prompt repair as soon as a weak spot is discovered. The practice in European countries could well be followed in this country. A road requires care and attention for its upkeep the same as a railroad track. The original cost of a macadam road is too great to allow it to go to pieces within a year or so and then practically rebuild it. Most failures are due to the fact that no adequate provision for repairs has been made by the county or state. Since roads cannot take care of themselves, they must be looked after constantly if rebuilding is to be avoided.
