

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE

Greatest Baseball Event of Season--The Line Up.

Printing and Newspaper Fraternity of Colfax Against the Court House Aggregation.

"Our favorite gem—the diamond." This is the day we celebrate. There may be occasions like the Fourth of July, the circus may appear in partial eclipse, Bryan may come and La Follette may go, but the event of the season takes place this afternoon when the printing fraternity of Colfax and the court house aggregation cross swords (metaphorically speaking) in baseball park. Business from 2 p. m. till the close of the game will be suspended. The mayor has issued his proclamation and so declares. The slogan has been given out that when business interferes with baseball, stop business. It is the will of the people, and in this glorious land "the voice of the people is the voice of God." Vox populi, vox dei, sans more beer.

The procession will form at court house square at 2:30 p. m., and, headed by the Colfax Band, march to the city hall and then counter-march to the ball grounds. The true lover of the esthetic should not miss seeing this parade. Ratliff will be "thar" in a brand new suit made to order, carrying a baseball club made in Spokane, putting to shame the big club President Roosevelt is said to carry. The costume to be seen would make Uncle Josh Whitecomb and Si Perkins drop dead with envy. But then our citizens will see it. And all the beautiful women and sweet lassies will be on hand to cheer the valiant on to victory. Oh, it will be a great day! Come out, along with your sisters, your cousins and your aunts, and see the biggest game of baseball by the biggest aggregation of big men in the entire Palouse.

Below is the line up of the two teams. A glance at the names is enough to show what is in store. Cast your eagle eye over this list of names and watch your breast swell with patriotic pride.

The Printers.

Charles Bramwell, catcher.
Bill Goodyear, pitcher.
Doc Ratliff, 1st base.
Clint Du Vall, 2d base.
Frank T. Abbott, 3d base.
Charley Bass, short stop.
Bill Snodgrass, left field.
Ivan Chase, center field.
Charley MacKenzie, right field.
Walt Davenport will captain this aggregation.

Subs—C. S. Clarke, Rev. Burnett, Judge Inman, Sid Yelle, H. E. Ricksecker, Bernard Baber, Jack Stinson, Howard Bramwell, Tiv Warner.

Chaperone—Miss Scott Montgomery.
Patronesses—Miss Helen James and Miss Nellie Doolittle.

Mascot—Baby Marion Yelle, and the boys claim they have a mascot that will surely lead to victory.

Court House Line Up.

Chan Woodward, catcher.
Hughie Todd, pitcher.
Fred Ratliff, 1st base and captain.
Milt Davis, 2d base.
Crom Oliver, 3d base.
Olie Harrison, short stop.
Bill Duncan, left field.
Harry Love, center field.
Milt McCroskey, right field.
Subs—Steve Chadwick, N. D. Showalter, Bob Kipp, R. H. Duff, T. J. Welty.
Chaperone—Miss Minnie Oliver.
Patronesses—Miss Stacie Brown, Miss Georgia Hanna.

When Bill Goodyear goes to the bat the band will play, "Lo! the Conquering Hero Comes." Ratliff's 365 pounds avoirdupois will be received with "God Save the Queen."

Mayor Pattison will officiate as umpire and lead the procession. The Mayor was heard to declare that this is the proudest day of his life—that, in face of the fact that he is pater familias to Paul and several beautiful—well, don't miss seeing the game.

P. S.—It is not true that a druggist from a neighboring town has been here and cornered the entire supply of arnica, expecting to get rich in a day by doing business with the baseballists. The Gazette is assured that there will be arnica in plenty for all of the participants at regular prices.

ENGLISH ACORNS PLANTED.

"Great Trees From Little Acorns Grow"—Schools Interested.

A bushel of English acorns which were raised on State College Farm at Pullman were sent out in packages to each school district in the county by Superintendent Showalter several months ago, and results are beginning to come in. Mr. Showalter has received over 100 letters from those who planted the acorns, and in every instance the seed has taken root and young trees show themselves above ground. The county superintendent states that all who will summer fallow in or around school grounds will be given seed or trees this fall, as they may elect, to plant in such places. This is a good work in which we are pleased to note that the schools take deep interest.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Ada Crawford and child of Turner, Oregon, will arrive in Colfax today to remain at least six weeks. Mrs. Crawford is a niece of Mrs. E. W. Weinberg, and will visit with her while here. J. A. Robeson, one of the substantial farmers living near St. John, was in Colfax Monday attending to business.

H. G. Taylor, owner of the Farmington flour mill, was doing business at the county seat Friday.

Mrs. Mollie Claus—Short of Albion visited Colfax friends Friday.

H. G. DePledge was a business visitor to Spokane Monday.

Mrs. A. Coolidge of Spokane arrived in Colfax last Friday and is visiting with relatives and friends. She will remain two weeks.

State Senator Peter McGregor, who passed through a severe spell of sickness, is once more on the streets attending to business. He is somewhat bleached in appearance.

Mrs. F. P. Holbrook of Butte arrived Tuesday evening and is visiting with relatives and friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodin of Spokane arrived Monday night and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woodin for several days this week.

Robert Hanna, Sr., and Robert Hanna, Jr., left for San Francisco Sunday evening on business.

Mrs. Niles M. Champlin of near Almoda left Colfax Tuesday for Red Wing, Minnesota, to visit her aged parents, who are in failing health.

A. J. Smith, A. H. Gustin and P. A. Carlon drove over Tuesday from Pine City, returning home next day.

W. A. Moss of Pullman was in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Mary Bryden, who has been at St. Maries, Idaho, during the winter, spent Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. R. Brashear. Miss Bryden is en route to Superior, Wis., to remain.

Newton V. Rowe, who has been sojourning in the vicinity of Northport, Wash., for several months, returned to Colfax Wednesday to look after property interests here and will go soon to Montana.

William Greer of Vashon Island, who has been visiting his brother, John Greer of this city, left Tuesday for his home. He was accompanied by his son, W. G. Greer, until recently connected with the government revenue service on Puget Sound.

W. P. Finch and family, who arrived from Kennett, Mo., about two weeks ago, have decided to remain in Colfax and now occupy the Mrs. Morgan house on Thorn street hill.

Mrs. E. P. Smith of New York city is visiting with old friends, Rev. and Mrs. Charles P. Burnett, for a few days.

Mrs. L. E. Abrams returned to Colfax Friday from Spokane and will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker.

J. N. Pickrell returned home Monday from his trip to the sunny clime of California.

County School Superintendent Showalter, who has been confined to his home by sickness, was able to appear on the streets for a brief period Wednesday.

George Case and Harley Owens were over from St. John this week attending the W. O. W. convention.

Judge Chadwick and Prosecuting Attorney Kipp went to La Crosse yesterday to attend the funeral of Asa Rathburn, a well-known pioneer citizen of that town, who was buried under Masonic auspices.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Doolittle and Miss Nellie Doolittle will leave Sunday evening for Portland. Mr. Doolittle goes as Great Sannat to the Great Council of Red Men to be held at Vancouver, Wn., May 14, 15 and 16.

A. R. Metz, Elberton's bustling banker and postmaster, was in Colfax Thursday.

AN OPINION FILED.

Status of Fruit Inspector, Game Warden, Physician, Etc.

The board of county commissioners at its session this week asked an opinion from Prosecuting Attorney Kipp as to their powers to appoint a county fruit inspector, county game warden, county physician and road supervisors. Wednesday he filed his opinion, which, briefly stated, declares that the commissioners have no power to appoint a fruit inspector under the recent decision of the supreme court, the law providing for filling the office by appointment being unconstitutional.

The same holds good in regard to game warden, but Mr. Kipp suggests that if the office of game warden is deemed necessary a person could be appointed deputy sheriff and perform the same duties. This is what might be called whipping the devil around the bush.

With reference to county physician, the law makes the commissioners a board of health, and as such the board would have a legal right to appoint a qualified physician to assist the board and be ex-officio a member of the board of health, but they would not have power to appoint a physician in any other capacity than to act with them as a board of health.

The same applies with regard to road supervisors. Each commissioner being ex-officio road commissioner in his district has the right to appoint road supervisors, but it cannot be an independent office. The road supervisors would be under the control of the commissioners, with no fixed terms, subject to removal at will and their pay fixed at will. Their appointment is not compulsory.

Such, in brief, is the opinion rendered, which is ably written and is quite interesting.

WOODMEN OF WORLD

The Second District Convention Held Here Wednesday.

Every Section of Eastern Washington Represented--126 Delegates in Attendance.

The 2nd district convention of Woodmen of the World assembled in Colfax last Wednesday, represented by 126 delegates. They came from every section of Eastern Washington. When it is stated that these delegates represented a membership of about 6000 it can be more readily understood how the order is spreading throughout the confines of the state. While the convention, as such, was in session but one day, still the presence of many delegates one and even two days previous to that time lent the impression that the convention was proceeding for two or three days. They came, however, to see and to visit, and were well taken care of by the local membership. A steamer under electric lights was stretched across Main street opposite the Armory, bearing the words in large letters, "Welcome W. O. W.," and at night was seen like a beacon light in the distance. The Armory had been decorated for the occasion, and the visiting delegates were made to feel at home by all our citizens.

Hon. S. G. Cosgrove of Pomeroy was chairman of the convention, and Dr. C. H. Bentley of Garfield secretary.

The following named were elected delegates to the head camp session, which meets in Seattle on the 24th of July: John Pattison of Colfax, O. W. Blenner of Spokane, Charles O'Neil of Prescott, S. C. Baker of Ellensburg, T. W. Maxwell of Wilbur, E. Anderson of Palouse. Alternates: E. J. Byrne of Garfield, W. W. Foley of Wilbur, H. C. Eitel of Elberton, George T. Hause of Goldendale, J. D. Barnes of Dayton, H. W. Bliss of Spokane.

The convention unanimously indorsed John Pattison of Colfax for head manager.

Wednesday night the doors were thrown open to the public and a general good time was had by members of the order and laymen as well, fully 400 people being present. Speeches and music enlivened the occasion, and an elaborate lunch was served, provided by Women of Woodcraft. Later dancing was commenced, which continued till the wee sma' hours appeared.

Many men prominent in business, in the professions, as well as in the politics of the state were delegates to this convention, showing that the order is representative in character. Colfax will be only too pleased to extend the glad hand should they elect to assemble here again.

WITH THE FANS.

Palouse and Colfax Each Take a Game Here.

In the presence of about 550 people who paid admission, and probably as many more who enjoy the immunities of youth when facing the ball park gate-keeper, the Colfax Cardinals, in a fast game with Palouse on the home grounds last Sunday downed the Giants by a score of 3 to 2, thereby gaining a foothold in the percentage table and giving an exhibition of ball playing that caused the fans to yell themselves hoarse. Following the game of the day before between the same teams, when Palouse won, 7 to 2, the result was all the more gratifying to the supporters of the local team. Palouse was first at bat scoring one run each in the first and fourth innings. For seven straight innings Colfax plucked goose eggs, but in the eighth piled up three runs on two hits, two stolen bases, and two errors by Palouse. Palouse failed to score in the ninth and a great game was over.

Colfax plays at Moscow next Saturday and Sunday and on the following Saturday and Sunday Moscow plays here.

Tuesday the John W. Graham team of Spokane tried conclusions with the Cardinals on the home grounds and were defeated 19 to 3.

Last Saturday the Colfax K. O. K. A. team played a return game with the Amateurs at Pullman, the latter winning by a score of 11 to 10.

BRUISED AND MANGLED.

J. W. Denney Thrown Over Precipice Near Palouse.

Coroner Crawford was called to Palouse Monday in answer to a telephone that a man had been found dead near the track of the Palouse branch of the Northern Pacific, about two miles north of town. The only thing to identify the man was a small notebook on which was written: "J. W. Denney, address Spokane. In case of accident or illness please notify S. F. Denney, Greenacres, Wash." He evidently was walking on the track, and it was thought that he was killed by the 1:18 passenger train Saturday, as he had been seen at noon that day by the section foreman. His left leg was broken just above the ankle and the left side of his face was completely crushed and the left side badly bruised. The body was thrown over a precipice, landing below about 40 feet among rocks. He had a quilt tied in a roll and the usual bag, containing a few clothes. On his person was found 35 cents in money, a comb, razor and pocket knife and two plugs of tobacco. Two small ear tubes were also found which leads to the belief that he was deaf, or partially so, and did not hear the train when it approached. He was evidently a laborer and appeared to be about 45 years of age.

Greenacres was communicated with to locate S. F. Denney, the reply coming that no one by that name lived there. Later it was learned that such a man lived in the country near there, and the officials were authorized to hunt him up and communicate with the coroner here.

LATER.—Since the above was in type S. F. Denney was found, who came to Palouse Tuesday and recognized the dead man as his brother. He confirmed the belief entertained that the unfortunate man was deaf. The body was buried at Palouse Tuesday evening.

Death of Young Kenedy.

Fred Kenedy, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kenedy, died at 2:30 a. m. Thursday. His was a peculiar case. Last January he was kicked on the left leg by a horse, bruising the flesh badly. A month later, the wound refusing to heal and blood poisoning having set in, he was taken to the hospital, and on February 28 the leg was taken off above the knee. He has remained on his back ever since, not seeming to know that his leg was amputated, although his mind was clear on everything else. Two weeks ago he was stricken with pneumonia, and in his weakened condition was unable to rally, and died as above stated. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church.

"Swastika."

The word "Swastika" is derived from the Sanscrit, meaning of good fortune, well being, welfare. It is the oldest known symbol in the world and is found in prehistoric graves and mines in all quarters of the globe. It is carved upon the solid rock in the mountains of India and painted on the walls of the canyons of Arizona. It is dug out of the mines of ancient Greece, and from the graves of the Mound Builders Indians in Ohio.

It is found on the Cliff Dwellers' pottery in North America and on prehistoric pottery in Brazil. It is common in China and Japan. It appears on the forehead of gods in the temples and on the walls of the rock cut and carved temples of the Buddhas, and also on Brahmin monuments. It is placed on the breast of the dead in Tibet and ornaments the petticoats of the women of that country. It is shown in the ruins of Algeria and on the bronze incense of aborigines in Ashantee. Many specimens have been obtained from the Indian burial mounds of the Mississippi valley and mounds of Tennessee and Georgia. At the present time some of the American Indians use the Swastika as a sacred symbol, as well as in ornament or ceremony; among them are the Kansas or Soc Indians and particularly the Navajos, Pimas and Pueblos. The Navajos weave it into their blankets and manufacture it from silver. Thus it is shown that in far as well as near countries, in modern as well as ancient times, the "Swastika" stood for blessing, as a charm or amulet, as a sign of benediction, long life, good fortune and good luck. A complete line of "Swastika" goods in brooches, scarf pins, belt pins, fobs, lockets, match safes and spoons, "at the sign of the street clock."
