MARRIED.

Dierks—Schroeder.

Walter Dierks, oldest son of Fred G. Dierks, a prosperous farmer living near Colfax, and Miss Elsie Schroeder, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schroeder, living near Dusty, were united in marriage at the Hotel Whitman Wednesday night, Rev. Herbert G. Buss of the Baptist church officiating. Miss Bertha Schroeder, sister of the bride, was a beautiful bridesmaid, while Arthur McNeely acted as best man. Thirty-four friends and relatives were present. The bride was dressed in white silk and carried a bouquet of flowers. Many beautiful presents were given to the young couple. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room of the hotel where a bountiful repast was partaken of. The happy couple left yesterday afternoon on the Inland for Spokane, where they will spend their honeymoon. After February 1 they will be at home at the William McNeely farm, two miles south of town, which Mr. Dierks has leased.

Manning—Chestnut.

Mark Manning, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Manning, and Miss Frances Chestnut, second daughter of Mrs. J. Y. Chestnut of the same place, were married at the home of the bride January 15, Rev. Hawk of Spokane performing the ceremony. They left the same day for Spokane and the lake towns in Northern Idaho, but have returned after enjoying a delightful honeymoon trip. Mark has taken charge of the Ben Manning farm between here and Pullman, which he will manage and cultivate in future.

Will Move to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Manning will leave Wednesday of next week for California to remain, expecting to locate at Marysville, Yuba county. They are old residents of Whitman county, and own one of the fine farms between here and Pullman, which, however, will remain in the family and be in charge of their son, Mark Manning. Marysville, their proposed new home, is one of the beautiful cities of California, situated in the Sacramento valley north of Sacramento, and is the center of a great fruit section. The Mannings will invest in a fruit ranch.

Big Time Ahead.

Bristow Encampment, No. 14, I. O. O. F., will hold a special meeting Wednesday evening, January 29, when a team from Spokane, Canton No. 2, will be here to take part in the initiation of several candidates. Bristow Encampment has between 15 and 20 candidates for initiation. The affair will close with a banquet, in which a general good time may be looked for. W. H. Coffin, G. P., of Tacoma, has been requested to be present to take charge of the work. Judge Stocker of Spokane is also expected to be here.

State League Debate.

On Friday evening, February 21, the third series in the state league debate will take place in Colfax between the Colfax High school and the Walla Walla High school on the initiative and referendum question, Colfax having the affirmative. If possible it is proposed to hold the debate in the Ridgeway theater. Both teams have strong debaters and the event will be looked forward to with much interest.

THE SOCIAL SIDE.

Mrs. Ben Burgunder and Miss Nellie Doolittle tied on winning the prize, and in the cut to decide the matter the former won. A pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies.

The Social Club, recently organized, held its first meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Ericson on Mill street. The royal prize was won by Mrs. H. I. Willis. The next meeting will take place next Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. S. D. Lommasson. At the first meeting of the club the hostess provided an elaborate lunch, a feature which will probably be continued at future meetings. It is understood the membership is confined to 12 in number—just enough to fill three tables and make the playing enjoyable.

RIDGEWAY THEATER.

That popular vehicle of amusement, "The Devil's Auction," will again appear at the Ridgeway Theater on Thursday, February 6. Of the performance the Portland Oregonian of January 20 said in part:

"Harnesses and resplendent in gay new regalia and trappings, that good old wheel horse of theatrical extravaganzas, 'The Devil's Auction,' has returned to Portland for a week at the Marquam. It played to capacity at both performances yesterday, and the house patrons haven't received such a well-heaped measure of fun and entertainment of that character in a good many wanderings of the moon. The first thing, perhaps, that one discovers with the rising of the curtain, is the rising of a bright and shining young soubrette, who is clearly out of her element in a production of 'The Devil's Auction' character.

"Dainty and winsome little Violet Hillson might reasonably bid for fame in a high-class light comedy, her frailty of voice perhaps barring her, for the present, at least, from three-sheet posters in a strictly musical comedy. Still her coquetry in the topical vocal numbers she rendered passed ready muster before the critical gallery gods, who were soon whistling the catchy choruses of her tuneful roundelays, and the high priced seats responded with spontaneity. No more for this talented little maid at this time, lest too much praise turn her head, or other feminine members of the cast attempt to scratch out her eyes."

SAFE INVESTMENT.

Property Units Yield Dividends and Grow in Value.

Something financially new in the northwest is the form of dividend-paying investments described by The Trustee Company of Spokane on the last page of this paper. The plan on which the company operates is to purchase well located city business property, which is divided into parts, or units as they are called, and sold to investors, dividends from the investment, arising from rents, being distributed among the owners of the units every three months. For example, the company buys a piece of business property for $100,000. This amount of investment is divided into 100 units of the value of $1000 each, and for the convenience of investors these units are subdivided into tenths, thus enabling a person to invest, safely and profitably, an amount as small as $100. The company is a strong one with visible assets, operates upon a safe and sane plan, and numbers among its officers and directors successful men who are well known in the business and financial world.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The passenger motor car on the Inland got out of whack Tuesday afternoon, and the passenger train had to be taken to Spokane by the freight motor. There the repair necessary was made, causing neither delay nor serious inconvenience.

Mrs. M. M. Browder is a patient at St. Ignatius hospital, where she had a serious surgical operation performed Wednesday morning. She is now doing nicely.

The young child of Dr. R. J. Skaife has been very sick for the last two weeks, the doctor devoting most of that time to his home, looking after the little one. It is now on the mend and will probably pull through.

The banks of Colfax are now, and have been for some time, paying money out on demand as in former times, and it is noticeable that many of those so anxious to draw out all they had have suddenly lost that desire and are willing to let well enough alone. The money panic, so called, is a reminiscence.

Ed Johnson's automobile arrived this week from Portland. Its cost, so we understand, was $2750. This makes 12 autos owned in Colfax.

The 8th grade examinations have been given and the grading is now in progress in the county school superintendent's office. It will be finished some time next week. The list is larger than usual.

Tekoaites Move In.

The Tekoa High school building was occupied for the first time this week. It is a noble building, standing on College Hill, one of which the people feel justly proud and of which they stood greatly in need. It is plain architecturally, built of stone and brick, roomy and comfortable. Tekoaites are to be congratulated.

New Castle Restaurant.

Melrose & Young have bought the New Castle Restaurant, taking possession this week. Under their management the place will be conducted in a manner to please patrons, the bill of fare covering everything that the market affords, cooked in a manner for which these caterers are famous. They will be pleased to see and serve hungry people at all hours.
