PULLMAN IS THE MECCA.

County Teachers' Institute Will Be Held There in April.

The County Teachers' Institute will be held in Pullman this year. This will extend from the 6th to the 10th of April. These meetings have been held in Colfax in the past, although the county superintendent has a right to call them off anywhere in the county.

In the first place, the Inland Empire Association is to hold meetings at the State College during the same week the Whitman County Institute is held, thus enabling the teachers to hear the lectures of Judge Ben Lindsay of Denver and Dean Russell of Columbia College, New York. In addition, there will be present at that meeting a number of eminent educators, such as David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University, and the presidents of the state institutions from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, whose addresses will be of special value to the teachers of this county.
