John W. Kern of Indiana takes his defeat as senator from that state very much to heart. He promises to make revelations.

Governor Mead has issued a proclamation calling for a general observance of the centennial of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. This occurs Friday, February 12.

And George E. Chamberlain has at last been elected senator from Oregon. It is safe to say the democrats will not work that Statement No. 1 business the second time.

Wesley L. Jones was elected senator from Washington Tuesday by the legislative assembly, receiving the unanimous vote of republican members. The democrats voted for Mr. Cotterill.

Governor Donaghey of Arkansas refused to be inaugurated the second Wednesday in January because it came on the 13th of the month. Even the governor of a great state is allied with superstition.

Elihu Root the unanimous choice of the republican caucus for United States senator from New York was welcome news received Tuesday morning. He will replace Thomas C. Platt. Root will be a man of influence in the senate.

It was so cold in Garfield last week that the editor of the Enterprise failed to get to church. At least, that was the excuse he gave. There is a horrible suspicion that, like the small boy, almost anything would do for an excuse.

The proposal to place statues in memory of Marcus Whitman and Isaac I. Stevens in the Hall of Fame at the nation's capital is a good one. In his message to the legislature Governor Mead has asked only for the erection of a statue to the memory of Stevens, but in making the appropriation the name of Whitman should also be mentioned. Whitman's name really ranks first in the history making of the state.

Charles A. Conant, in the Atlantic Monthly for January, discussing the meaning of the national election, gives as his opinion that "in the long run, so far as human foresight can foresee, the coming generation is likely to witness the almost uninterrupted ascendancy of the republican party, because it has a definite policy of construction and achievement, while the democratic party is floundering through many counter-currents toward the position of the state socialist parties of Europe." Mr. Conant is, or used to be, a democrat.

Half a million caribou are in the herd beyond the Sixty-Mile river in Alaska, says a report from Dawson. The vast band is trekking toward the Tanana river. Already we read of parties preparing to go out to begin the slaughter. Half a million American bison roaming the plains in the early days was as nothing compared to the actual number. Yet the bison was almost exterminated, and that in a very short time. If hunters would only kill what they actually use little harm would be done. But we also read that the herd is getting too far away to get the carcasses out, so that those who kill do it for sport. And we talk about our enlightenment.

The people of the state of Washington can already see the good results coming from the election of a business man to office. Lieutenant-Governor Hay is the man. Professional lobbyists or persons who take the liberty of lobbying for or against legislation will not this session be allowed on the floor of either house during its session. A rule to this effect was adopted in the senate and house. The rule was adopted at the suggestion of Mr. Hay. This will be a significant change from the practice prevailing during former sessions. There was a time when B. S. Groscup, Will H. Thompson and other railroad lobbyists plied their arts on the floor of both houses during sessions.

To prevent the running of deer with dogs is the main feature of Senator Rydstrom's bill now before the legislature. The section "to prevent the running of deer with dogs" is the result of reports of the wholesale slaughter of the deer in certain parts of the state. A common plan is to send the dogs along the shore of a river while the hunter follows in a gasoline launch. As soon as the dogs drive the deer into the stream or lake the hunter opens fire and has the animal at his mercy. Senator Rydstrom also seeks to prevent the use of swivel guns, repeaters, machine guns, magazine guns and pump guns in killing feathered game. The "game hog" will fight these provisions, but they will certainly meet with the approval of the true sportsman.

Tillman on the Run.
Not all the immense store of vituperation possessed by Senator Tillman can wipe away the stain upon his career. South Carolina may be counted upon to consider a successor with a less flexible code of self-respect when the Tillman term expires four years hence.—Toledo (Ohio) Blade.

Trying to Oregonize California.
Crankers are trying to get Oregon's Statement One into the primary law of California. You just watch how they will be turned down. A legislature in Oregon, five sixths of whose members are republicans, electing a democratic senator, through this fool scheme, will be enough for California, and for all the rest. No other state will be anxious to join "the fool of the family."—Oregonian.

Tillman the Latest to Suffer.
Congress may not like Roosevelt's style but the majority of the people do, and are of the opinion that he generally hits the nail squarely on the head when he is dealing with that body. Tillman is the latest to suffer from the big stick, and the weakness of his reply shows that he has been hit hard. Graft in high places is suffering from exposure just now, and many a man is trying to hide behind the time-worn excuse of having been "indiscreet."—Colton News Letter.

The Pullman Way.
A small boy scientifically bent sought to determine whether or not a tongue, tenatively protruded and touched to a metallic surface, with the mercury around zero, would adhere to the said metal. He tried the experiment on the big brass name plate on the First National Bank corner Tuesday and it worked like a charm. His lusty cries gathered a crowd about him, and with the aid of a little warm water, he was pried loose minus a bit of skin from his tongue.—Pullman Tribune, Jan. 15.

Uncle Sam at Tekoa.
During the year 1908 the amount of money going through the Tekoa post-office in the way of money orders, etc., exceeded $65,000, as against $40,000 for the previous year. The number of domestic money orders issued in 1908 was 5669 and 174 international money orders, an increase in orders over the previous year of 967. The number of letters and parcels registered in 1908 was 1731, an increase of 913. Receipts of the office for the year from stamp sales, box rent, etc., amounted to $5514.51, an increase of $988.11. The increase in postal business makes it look like free mail delivery for Tekoa within a few years.—Tekoa Blade.

A Hint to Wheat Raisers.
The farmers and wheat raisers of Whitman county will soon be compelled to raise bluestem, club and other varieties of milling wheat. For the past month red wheat has been a drug on the market at 70 and 73 cents with no demand, while bluestem has been strong at 89 and 90 cents. The club varieties and bluestem wheats are sought after with increasing demand by millers and exporters, while red wheats are reluctantly purchased. Millers and exporters are already compelled to seek elsewhere for wheat to supply the demand, while the Palouse farmer continues to raise wheat that is unfit for milling purposes. How long this will continue is conjecture, but it is a noticeable fact that the demand for red wheat is decreasing with each succeeding year.—Farmington Independent.

Unsettled.
Skinner—Good morning, ma'am. Did you ever see anything so unsettled as the weather has been lately? Mrs. Hashley—Well, there's your board bill, Mr. Skinner.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

In a Bad Way.
"Here is a doctor who says you mustn't eat when you're worried."
"But suppose you're always worried for fear you ain't goin' to get anything to eat?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Couldn't Scream.
"I was afraid you'd scream when I kissed you."
"I didn't dare. Mamma was in the next room and would have heard me."—Houston Post.

The power of necessity is irresistible.—Aeschylus.

Stomach Trouble Cured.
If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. P. Klote of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used." For sale by W. J. Hamilton.

How to Make a Room Look Larger.
To increase the apparent size of a room there is nothing better than the judicious use of mirrors.

Suppose that you have a glass about five feet high and two wide, in a wooden frame, you may employ it most decoratively in a sitting room.

Mount it about a couple of feet from the floor and arrange in front of it a row of ferns, palms or other foliage plants, concealing the pots with a handsome box filled at the top with fresh moss.

The mirror should be placed either where it will reflect the view from the window or else opposite the entrance of the room, so that when the door is opened one may see the hall or passage beyond reflected in it. Of course the room will not be any larger really, but the fact that it will appear so is a great point, for, as a friend of my own says, "If we cannot have a pleasant reality at least let us have a pleasant illusion."

I know one house where the dining room is long and dark, and the only window gives a very insufficient light. Here an immense improvement was effected by placing a good mirror over the sideboard at the end of the room opposite the window.

This reflected the light and the landscape seen from the window, with the result that one was almost deluded into the belief that the room had two windows, and one certainly was not conscious of the want of an outlet.

How to Make Boiled Apple Pudding.

Half a loaf of breadcrumbs, to which add a little salt. Pare, core and cut into thin slices two greening apples, four ounces of chopped suet, half a cupful of boiling water sufficient to moisten the mixture. Rub a little salt on the inside of the mold to make it smooth. Pack the mixture firmly as tightly as possible into the mold. Fasten the lid down securely and place in a boiler with only sufficient water in the bottom to make a steam. Let it boil this way for one hour, turn out and eat with the following sauce:

One cup of granulated sugar, quarter of a cup of water. Put together on the fire and allow to melt quickly, to which add the rind of half a lemon chopped fine, not grated. One minute after the sirup begins to boil (keep any longer it turns to candy) remove it and add the juice of half a lemon. Serve hot.

How to Mark Your Linen.

The most satisfactory method of marking clothes that go to the laundry is with a rubber stamp bearing your name. Each separate article may thus be stamped with the least possible trouble, and the result will be a legible marking. The name need not be put in a conspicuous place. In fact, it might be tucked away in some odd corner where it will not show, yet is sure proof of ownership. The stamp is inexpensive, and one may buy a pad and indelible ink at small cost. It is a very economical idea.

How to Clean a Sewing Machine.

To keep a sewing machine in good condition it needs an occasional cleaning with kerosene. Saturate the machine with kerosene and then run the machine briskly for several minutes without thread, of course. This will loosen all old oil and dust, which should be wiped away with a soft cloth until the machine is perfectly clean. Then oil it with machine oil.

How to Make Pumpkin Pie.

Boil and press through a sieve a quart of pumpkin. Add two quarts of rich milk. Sweeten to taste, adding spice and a little nutmeg. A piece of butter the size of an egg may be added while the pumpkin is still hot. Last, add six eggs well beaten and pour the mixture into the prepared crust and bake rather slowly. This will make two large pies.

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are selected from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for preserving and preserving the medicinal principles used in them than the ordinary refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its nicotinic stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal Passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hanging coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

Lumbermen's Mutual Society
Buys Hyde Block Units
"Who are some of your Unit Owners, and how many Units do they own?" is a question oftentimes asked.
A letter dated December 15th, addressed to the Executive Committee, Lumbermen's Mutual Society, and signed by Mr. A. L. Porter, Secretary, reads as follows:
"Some time ago you asked me to find a safe investment in which we could place our surplus funds. Inasmuch as whatever surplus our association has can only be treated as trust funds, I could not readily find an investment which would have the element of perfect safety and yet bear a satisfactory rate of interest. It is very gratifying to me, however, to report to you that after giving the matter very thorough and careful consideration I have invested $15,000 of our funds in 15 Units of Central Business Property.
"I am thoroughly convinced that the security is perfect, and, taking into consideration the rate of interest together with the future increase in value of downtown business property, makes this one of the best investments that I could possibly find."
This society is one of our Unit Owners, and fifteen is the number of Units they own. Many other orders, associations and individuals have invested $12,000, $10,000 and $5000; scores of individuals have invested $3000, $2000 and $1000, and hundreds of others have invested $500, $200, and even $100, in Units of Spokane Business Property.
This fact is more convincing than much argument. Now, what about investing your money in Units of Business Property?
