

NIMRODS TAKE TO THE HILLS

For Blue Mountains, Pend d'Oreille River and Moses Lake.

J. L. Irwin left Saturday for Dayton, where he, with Judge Miller and several Daytonites, will seek the heart of the Blue Mountains in quest of deer. The Blue Mountains, while not so lofty nor presenting the pinnacle shapes of the Bitter Root and Cascade mountains, are really more adapted to deer, which are plentiful in many secluded places. These places will be invaded by the hunters.

Dr. W. A. Mitchell, Oliver Hall and J. T. Billups left Wednesday evening for Usk, on the Pend d'Oreille river, in the extreme northeastern corner of the state. The party is in quest of deer and will be gone several days.

Four autos, loaded to the gunwales with tents, bedding and camp equipage, floundered out of town yesterday morning bound for the classic shores of Moses Lake in Douglas county in quest of ducks. One car contained Nick Codd and Ben Baker; another Ed Hickman and Bernard Baber; a third A. E. King and George W. Ripley; the fourth Henry Hickman, Jim Hickman, Will Hickman and Dr. Stuht. The quackers will have to fly high to miss this bunch.

COLE BOYS UNDER ARREST.

Believed to Have Stolen $200 From Their Father.

James and Gus C. Cole, sons of Charles Cole, linger in jail for robbing their father of $200. Complaint was sworn to by Cole Sr. The two young men were arrested at Spokane and brought here Wednesday evening. This is the case where Mr. Cole had $200 in a wallet in his pants pocket, putting the pants between the mattresses when he went to bed. The pants were pulled out and the money taken while he was asleep. Cole had saved the money to make payment on his place recently acquired in the north end, intending to make payment the day after the robbery. The robbery occurred on the 19th. There seems little room for doubt that the boys took the money. They are cultus beyond excuse, given to gambling and rowdiness. James admits that they were gambling the night of the robbery. He looks to be 27 or 28 years of age, while Gus is between 19 and 20. Developments are looked for in this case, some side-stepping going on in regard to the matter.

THE SCHEDULE OF DEBATES

Question Selected--Third Friday in December First Debate.

County Superintendent Matton is sending circular letters to principals of schools throughout the county in regard to schedule of debates and the question to be used this year in the Whitman County Debating League. The question selected is:

Resolved, That congress should prohibit the immigration into the United States of persons who cannot read or write some language.

The schedule is as follows:

Affirmative.	Negative.
Palouse	Pullman
Oakesdale	Tekoa
Albion	Johnson
Elberton	Colton
Garfield	Colfax
Farmington	Endicott
LaCrosse	St. John
Rosalia	Thornton

The first debate will be held the third Friday in December. Judging from the past much interest will center in these debates.

A Magnificent Auto.

Morgan D. O'Connell and son, O. E. Logan, Ross Watson and August Shaw, residents of Tekoa, came down Wednesday and registered at the Hotel Colfax. Mr. Logan while here demonstrated the strength and durability of the Jackson automobile which he was driving, and those who saw and rode in the machine were highly pleased with its ease and efficiency. Before leaving Mr. Logan stated to a representative of The Gazette that his 40 horse power machine, fully equipped, cost $2000. As agent for these automobiles he has for sale the 30 horse power machine, costing $1500, and the 50 horse power, costing $2500. The one he was driving was a beaut, greatly admired by those who saw it. The party is taking a "swing around the circle," and returned home yesterday morning, going by way of Pullman and Palouse.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued by the county auditor to the following:

Omer C. Maston of Pullman and Jessie I. Coleman of Palouse.

W. Claude Cox of Rupert, Idaho, and Idelle I. Bonney of Oakesdale.

Harry A. Clingman of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Georgia A. Lisenbury of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

William G. Hoback and Moxie A. Poindexter, both of Farmington.

Anton S. Miller and Mabel M. Harmon, both of Tekoa.

Frederick H. Blood and Anna Katherine Twitmeier, both of Palouse.

Titus Pleaded Guilty--Fined $50.

Joseph Titus, a saloon keeper of Palouse, pleaded guilty in the superior court Wednesday to selling liquor on Sunday and was fined $50. The money was forthcoming and Titus departed in peace.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. M. Hitchings of Sunset was a Colfax visitor Saturday.

I. B. Harris returned from Seattle last Friday morning, where he has been the last five months in charge of the Whitman county exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. From all reports Mr. Harris has worked faithfully in the cause for which he was sent, and we may expect to get results.

J. T. Billups of Winona was a business visitor to Colfax the first of the week.

H. M. Robinson of Spokane, representing the Spokane Asbestos Fire Brick Co., was in Colfax the first of the week. The asbestos deposits belonging to the company are on the Clearwater river, 65 miles above Lewiston, Idaho, where, apparently, are the largest and best deposits of asbestos to be found in the United States.

Miss Gladys Campbell of La Crosse, sister of Dr. F. M. Campbell of that place, was visiting friends in Colfax the first of the week. Miss Campbell's father was a pioneer physician of Roseland, B. C., in the early days of that camp, where Miss Campbell spent a part of her girlhood days. The young lady goes to Spokane next week, where she proposes to graduate as a nurse.

Seymour Manning left Wednesday morning for the Nez Perce country, Idaho, including Grangeville, to be absent several days.

Dr. W. B. Palamountain left Tuesday for Sprague to bring back his auto, which was left there last week on account of the slippery condition of the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Brashear returned from Seattle Saturday, where they have been sojourning for the last three weeks.

Clarence Goff, graduate of the pharmacy department of the State College at Pullman, has accepted a position in the Elk drug store.

William Batty of Wawawai was transacting business in Colfax Wednesday.

Mrs. Bessie Bear left last Saturday for Spokane to enter the Blair Business College, where she will take a full course, consisting of stenography and book-keeping, occupying nine months.

County School Superintendent Mattoon is visiting the schools of Farmington and Oakesdale this week. Deputy Superintendent Mackey is visiting schools at St. John and Endicott.

Ed Johnson came down from Spokane by auto Wednesday, and will remain several days, visiting the farm in the meantime.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Armstrong, who recently bought the McNeilly house on Meadow street, after making extensive repairs moved in Wednesday.

County Commissioner Rully of Pullman returned from Portland the last of last week, where he had been on business.

Miss Clara E. Morse, a vocal teacher of Spokane, will arrive in Colfax today to open a studio.

M. Sommer, wife and daughter left Monday for Palouse, where Mr. Sommer will engage in the jewelry business. He is a brother of Mrs. W. D. Parr.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber L. Cornelius, who were married in Salem, Oregon, several weeks ago, have moved into their house on Meadow street, where they will hereafter reside. Mr. Cornelius is a large holder of Whitman county real estate, and heretofore has been engaged in raising wheat.

Mrs. John Stough of Ponca, Neb., and Mrs. John D. Stough of Hillyard, this state, arrived yesterday morning and are guests of Mrs. Thomas J. Welty.

Mrs. J. R. Good and Miss Ethyle Good returned Wednesday evening after an extended stay at Spokane, Newport and other points.

"Uncle Josh Perkins."

There is a peculiar charm about a rural play when presented with fidelity to nature. Such a one is "Uncle Josh Perkins," the realistic comedy-drama which will hold the boards at the New Ridgeway on Thursday, November 4, for one night only. It is said to contain just enough tragedy, with comedy elements cleverly interwoven, to attract and retain human interest, and funny enough to extract hearty laughter from the most blasé theatergoer. It is said to possess an atmosphere as pure as the scent of new mown hay and tells a pretty love story in a highly original manner. Splendid stage settings depicting rural scenes of life-like simplicity, the well-known landmarks of New York, are used in the four acts of the play, which is given zest by the introduction of splendid specialties thoroughly in harmony with the theme of the story.

Senator La Follette Dines in Colfax.

Senator La Follette was in Colfax several hours last Sunday, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, where he dined. He was brought here from Pullman by his cousin, William L. La Follette, in the latter's auto, leaving on the 7:45 train for Walla Walla. Mr. Hamilton and the senator are related by marriage.

Improvements at Hospital.

Funds are being raised by the Sisters to install a much needed elevator in St. Ignatius hospital. The elevator will run in a shaft erected at the back of the building and will serve all the floors. It is planned to begin work on the improvement early in the spring. The hospital is better patronized now than ever before, having more patients and with more operations performed.

Boxing and Shipping Apples.

T. W. Walters is occupying a room in the Davis Implement Co. building on Main street where a small crew is packing apples. Mr. Walters has contracted for one car of apples to go to Miles City, Montana, next Tuesday, this to be followed by another car to Wallace, Idaho, next week. A car holds 600 boxes. Mr. Walters is not only using the product from his own orchard but is buying from apple raisers who desire to sell. Many beautiful apples are going out.

Bachelors Reorganize.

Members of the Bachelors' Club met Tuesday evening at the home of J. L. and George Neil to reorganize and make plans for the winter. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. I. Barr; vice-president, W. Dietz; secretary and treasurer, E. Jones. After business was disposed of refreshments were served.

Death of a Child.

Theodore, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles B. White, living in North Colfax, died October 21 of inflammation of the stomach and bowels, aged 4 years and 7 months. The child's illness developed suddenly and was of short duration. Funeral service was conducted Saturday by Rev. A. D. Baker at the north end M. E. church.

Fast Time by Autos.

Two autos made fast time from Spokane to Colfax Wednesday, making it in 2 hours and 39 minutes. The distance, by the most direct route, is a little over 60 miles. One was a Franklin D car and the other a 4 cylinder Buick, owned in Spokane. Ed Johnson occupied one of the seats.

Card of Thanks.

The family of Miles B. White extend their thanks and appreciation to neighbors and friends for aid and sympathy in their recent bereavement.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James Bowman, who lives near Pullman, was committed to the Medical Lake asylum last Saturday by Judge Canfield. Bowman is 33 years of age, and, from all accounts, has been mentally unbalanced before, having been in the Oregon insane asylum.

E. L. Searles of Spokane died at St. Ignatius hospital last Friday of pneumonia. The body was taken to Spokane for burial. He was a carpenter by occupation and 53 years of age.

William Lawson has rented his farm three miles east of town and will move into Colfax for the winter.

A young son of Clyde Stevig, living near Almota, sustained a fracture of the knee joint last Sunday by falling from a horse.

MARRIED.

Hoback--Poindexter.

William G. Hoback and Maxie A. Poindexter, both of Farmington, were married October 27 by Rev. J. H. Bainton at the Congregational parsonage. Mr. Hoback is a young farmer living near Farmington, where he and his bride are well known. They will make their home on the farm.

Clingman--Lisenbury.

Harry A. Clingman of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Georgia A. Lisenbury of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, were married by Rev. J. H. Bainton October 27 at the Congregational parsonage.
