TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Erve. Price's house is nearing completion.
—Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith, Monday, a son.

—A merry Christmas! and how do you like our supplement?

—Wonder where that chop and saw mill is? Doty, please report.

—The Knights of Pythias at Moscow will give a dance Christmas eve.

—Geo. W. Ford is about to erect a farm machinery warehouse at Staley.

—Edward L. Phelps, cousin of Rev.
Phelps, arrived at this place last Monday.

Try the chillblain remedy at the drug store. 6tf

—The protracted meeting at Branham is still in progress, with good results.

—Mrs. W. V. Windus is visiting relatives in the country and enjoying a bit of rural life.

—The Odd Fellows are preparing for their public installation ceremonies and entertainment.

—The HERALD has been waiting to receive the particulars of that recent "surprise" party, but——A new stairway has been added to Reaney's Hall, in the rear, giving two exits in case of fire. Correct.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Henry, Pullman, a girl, Wednesday; weight nine pounds. Congratulations, etc.

—H. K. Moore, of Moscow, and J. H.
Maguire and wife, of Julietta, were in town the other day on a business trip.

Holiday goods in great variety at Mc-Connell, Chambers & Co.

—The Genesee Advertiser has materially improved of late and seems to be prosperous, despite the sneers of would-be dictators.

—D. G. McKenzie, the old original pioneer settler on this town-site and a worthy citizen still, was a caller and subscriber, Tuesday.

—The restaurant recently owned by Chas. McNeil has been purchased by a Mr. Ruble, from Salem, Or., and is now operated by the latter gentleman.

—Better get your vaccination work completed pretty soon. A virus "trust" is the next thing in prospect, when the price will likely go up to $2 a scratch.

—Lauder & Taylor have leased the Pullman brick-yard, and propose to turn out first-class brick next spring.
There will be a great demand for them, here and elsewhere.

A first-class No. 8 cooking stove for $16.00, at Fariss Bros., Pullman.

—Mr. Chas. Dull, a brother-in-law of Munroe, the "lightning" timer, is a recent arrival in town from Chico, Cal.
He will study the fine points of the business at Fariss Bros.' store.

—Mrs. Thomas Duff was a caller, Saturday. She stated that their house near the head of the Almota, which was burned Thanksgiving day, was insured for $1,200. It was reported uninsured.

—W. H. Renfro, the lively manager for Staley Bros., and Richard Smith, one of our well known farmers, were down from Staley this week and made the HERALD a substantial visit. Mr. Smith contemplates a trip to the Sound country.

Christmas presents, unique and elegant in design, at McConnell, Chambers & Co.

—New Year's night will be celebrated in Pullman by a grand masquerade ball, as per announcement elsewhere. You are invited to choose a character, make a costume for it, and come out and have a genuine good time. The HERALD is getting up some handsome programs for this event.

—Supt. Becker, of the Colfax pork-packing house, was a visitor on crutches this week. He has secured M. C. True as a buyer of hogs in this vicinity. See notice elsewhere. Mr. B. reports the packery as flourishing finely. His crutches are the result of a fall by his horse, in which Mr. Becker's left leg was caught beneath the animal and broken.

—Behold the result of judicious advertising, as it were! We now have a good cross-walk leading from Ellsworth & Hunt's store to the Stewart block, as suggested by the HERALD last week.
All honor to Mr. Ellsworth. It is a great convenience. Now, if Bro. True and the Bank will just fix up another between their lots at the end of the block, the public will rise up and call them blessed.

Elegant silverware, warranted triple-plate, in every conceivable design, at bed-rock prices at Fariss Bros. 7w2 —City Marshal Lanning is confined to the house with pneumonia at this writing.

—B. F. McConnell and Miss Grace Phillips visited with Moscow friends last Sunday.

—Dentist Hayes and family, lately from Oregon, have concluded to locate at Genesee.

—Preaching at the M. E. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject, "A glimpse of heaven."

—Hon. E. K. Hanna, of the Seattle law firm of Hanna & Brown, was in Pullman this week on legal business.

—Mason, ye butcher, is wrestling with the measles. Meanwhile, Chas. McNeil is pushing the meat saw for him.

—Remember, our public school opens next Monday, and that it is important that all intending scholars be on hand.

Big cut in watches and chains, 'way down to cost to close them out. Call and see them at Fariss Bros. 7w2 —And now comes a regular Staley correspondent, from whom we hope to hear often. Thanks, Mr. "Subscriber."

—Land Commissioner Schulte, of the Northern Pacific, was a visitor in this section, the other day, with his handsome private car.

—Attorney Neill was admitted to the bar of Whitman county by the district court at Colfax, Thursday, on certificate of the Dakota courts.

—James McDonald has leased his Grand-st. house to Farmer T. A. Inman, who will occupy it during the winter so that his children may attend our school.

—Photographer Taylor's new building on Main-st. is being rapidly put up. It will embrace all modern improvements and conveniences necessary to a good studio.

Two car-loads blacksmith coal just received by Fariss Bros., Pullman; will be sold 'way DOWN, down, down. 7w2 —It is incumbent upon the legal voters of Pullman to at once elect a member of the Board of Trustees, an assessor, and a city engineer, to fill vacancies in these offices.

—Druggist White has fully recovered from his recent illness, and is once more on duty. Jackson, therefore, breathes easier, notwithstanding the big vaccination sore on his arm.

—"White Cyclone" is the fearful name of the running horse just purchased by Charley Fariss and J. C. Pullerton. The boys are training it to capture the sweepstakes and Missouri cup next season.

—Call and see our new copyrighted letter-heads; imitation engraving, each sheet containing also a genuine steel engraved view of mountain and railway scenery of different kinds, all handsomely printed and tableted in covers, with blotter attached to each tablet. No fancy prices asked for them. tf

Set of good cups and saucers, 40 cents.
Good hand-lamp, 25 cents. Set tumblers, fine glass, 25 cents—at the Fariss Bros. 7w2

—The Knights of Pythias recently elected the following officers for the ensuing year: A. Windus, chancellor commander; E. E. Ellsworth, vice-commander; T. L. Munroe, prelate; J. F.
Fariss, master of exchequer; E. Windus, master of finance; J. M. Hill, knight of records and seals; A. Drinkwater, master at arms; B. Lanning, inside guard; M. C. True, outer guard; Orville Stewart, past C. C.

—What's the matter with the ladies of Pullman getting up a leap-year dance?
The boys have carted the girls around for the past twelve months just like it wasn't leap year, and now the least the girls can do in consideration of past favors is to give the boys a rest and do a little carting themselves. As leap-year is almost gone, we suggest that the ladies take charge of the proposed masquerade ball on New Year's and in their own sweet way see the gentlemen through.

—While returning from a trip to Pa-louise City, the other day, and when 3½ miles north of town, Frank Truax, the liveryman, was severely injured by the breaking of the king-bolt in his buggy.
The front end pitched downward, throwing him against some obstruction and rendering himself senseless for some time. The horses ran away, but were found later at a farm-house about two miles distant. Truax received several bad cuts in the face and bruises upon his arms, but is now able to be around. No serious damage resulted to the team or vehicle.

Make her a handsome and appropriate Christmas present from that beautiful new silverware at Fariss Bros.
Prices are low this year. 7w2 —The condition of the mail service in this territory is simply execrable. Yes, damnable. Five to eight days are consumed in getting a letter, or papers, from Pullman to Tacoma, or Seattle, or most anywhere else. And vice versa. The daily papers of those cities, and of Walla-Walla, are usually five days in transit —that is, if they are traveling at all; and this, too, on supposedly direct mail and rail routes. We do not wonder that the press and people of the territory are howling vigorously. There is no excuse whatever for such mismanagement. Fire the incompetents, not forgetting to begin with the "big bugs."

—The Cheney (Wash.) Sentinel complains because a large number of its business men do not advertise. Just so; and Cheney is known already as the deadest town on the Northern Pacific west of the Rocky mountains. The Sentinel should seek a better field.

I want two dozen more turkeys for the shooting-match. Usual price paid.
Bring them in quick. A. REANEY, Pullman. 7w2

—A good laundry, conducted by a white man, or woman, is one of Pullman's great needs at present. A laundry whose proprietor and employes can distinguish dirt from green cheese, and will take pains to render the washing presentable. And for a reasonable price.
Our Chinese laundrymen are "no good on earth"—or elsewhere, for that matter.
Their work is miserably done, their prices abominably high, and their impudence equal to the gall of Jezebel. We never did have any use for the pagans, any how.

—Three boys who were out later than the curfew ordinance permits, were arrested on Monday night. One paid a fine and the others put in a day's labor for the city on the streets.—Vancouver Independent.

A "curfew" ordinance (an ordinance prohibiting boys under 18 years of age from being on the streets after 7 o'clock p. m., unless with written permission from parents or guardians) is a good law, and one that Pullman should enact and enforce right soon. Boys that are given the run of the streets at night develop into unmitigated nuisances and hoodlums in a short time.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The Sabbath-schools and churches will join in a grand Christmas-tree entertainment at the M. E. church on Monday evening next (24th). Appropriate exercises, such as music, reading, recitations, etc., will mark the occasion, beginning at 7.30 o'clock, prompt. An invitation is extended to everybody, big and little, young and old, rich and poor, to attend and assist in properly observing this festive anniversary. It is requested that all presents for the tree be left at the church Monday before 6 p. m., carefully labeled, and the committee will arrange them and see that each gift is given to the proper person when the distribution takes place.

IMPROVEMENT COMPANY.—The gentlemen composing the "syndicate" of home property-owners, referred to in our last issue, met together Tuesday evening and took the first steps toward organizing as the Pullman Improvement Company.
M. S. Phillips occupied the chair and Thos. Neill acted as secretary. Articles of incorporation had been prepared, and were read and adopted by sections. A board of trustees was then elected, viz: W. V. Windus, A. T. Fariss, M. S. Phillips, W. B. Stephenson and M. C. True.
The executive officers will be chosen at the next meeting, which was fixed for the 26th inst. at 7.30 p. m. The main object of this organization, as we stated last week, is to actively advance the business and manufacturing interests of Pullman (a sort of board of trade or better), and the HERALD will take pleasure "reporting progress" as the company progresses.

TEACHERS' MEETING.—The program for the county teachers' meeting to-day (22d) at Colfax is as follows:
1. Moral and religious training in public schools; J. F. Dillon. Discussion opened by Carrie Young.
2. Model examination in third reader, for promotion to the fourth reader; Emma Lommason. Discussion opened by Jessie L. Potter.
3. Model class in fractions; O. A. Noble.
Discussion opened by A. S. Beach.
4. Model class in Pathfinder No. 2; Anna Pollett. Discussion lead by Miss Baneroff.
5. Study—objects and ends; C. W.
Beas. Discussion lead by M. A. Nelms.
6. What help should a teacher give a pupil in preparing rhetoricals? Paper by S. M. McCrosky. Discussion opened by Maggie Iman.
7. Outline of opening exercises; S.
C. Roberts.
8. Questions pertaining to school work.
It is hoped that all interested will be present.

Staley Gossip.
Regular Correspondence.
Wheat is still coming in at this point.
To Fullerton:—We all send greeting.
John Staley, of Staley Bros. & Co., is quite sick.
Lynn Staley, well known in Pullman, attended court at Colfax this week.
It is a treat to see the large variety of Xmas goods at Staley Bros. & Co.'s new store.

Why does not the butcher come out this way? We are all tired of prairie chickens and venison.
The genial Jerry Cronan is soon to spend a few days in Spokane, looking up old friends. Wherever Jerry goes there is lots of fun.
Mr. Burns, of Pullman, has taken the contract from Mrs. Bendower to build a fine hotel here. The work will commence as soon as lumber can be had.

Joe Allphin, constable-elect of Staleyville, attended court at Colfax one day last week on business. This young man is fast rising into prominence—who can say what the future will bring for him?

There is quite a real estate boom in this place. George Ford is going to erect three handsome buildings in near future—one of two stories intended for an agricultural implement house, with a hall above. (The latter is a "long felt want.") The second will be a dwelling-house, and the last a blacksmith shop.
SUBSCRIBER.

Colton.
From Eagle, 15th inst.
L. P. Berry's Colfax friends talk of securing for him the position as postmaster at that place.
Born—To the wife of Milton Turner, on Dec. 11, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well, and father is too happy to talk about.
A revival meeting has been in progress at the Methodist church this week. Rev.
Holcomb says the young people are waiting till after the masquerade ball to be converted.

Dr. Cutler has notified Mr. Wallace that he must have possession of his house, and as Mr. Wallace has leased his own residence property, he will be without a place to live in Colton this winter. He thinks he may be able to secure a house at Pullman.

Moscow.
From Star, 14th inst.
Born on Dec. 6, to Wm. Batey and wife, a daughter.
The stage office has been moved to the Hotel Del Norte.
Born, on Dec. 8, to Harry Wilson and wife, a daughter.

Prof. D. C. Mitchell will leave next week for a short visit in Chicago and other Illinois points.

Esquire Moore united in marriage on Wednesday, James G. Finson and Olive Areberry, both of Genesee.

J. C. Traverser will leave Sunday for the Sound, and will likely go into business at Whatcom. We wish him complete success.

The report last week that Jim Moore had been shot at Genesee, was a mistake, caused by a misunderstanding of a telegram that was addressed to him, but he being absent his wife read it.

Uniontown.
From Journal, 18th inst.
Alfred Sampson is the proud father of a big boy, born December 4th.
Mr. M. Ferschweiler has sold his livery stable and has rented his Esmond House in Uniontown to a party in Pullman.

Joe Anderhaldung has the contract to build the new residence of Albert Fix, and the building will be on the lot just south of this office.

Charley Spurbach is the proud father of a girl baby, born December 3rd, and James Phillips of a girl baby, born December 8th.

Parties from Dakota and other localities east of the Rocky Mountains are delighted to find away out here in Washington Territory the ground clear of frost, and the hills covered with green grass, and the farmers busily engaged plowing and sowing grain. During the middle of the day a person does not need a coat, and every thing has the appearance of pleasant May weather. Such is the Palouse country.

Colfax.
From Gazette, 14th inst.
Oliver Hall, Seymour Manning, and H. S. Hollingsworth, of this city, started Tuesday for Great Falls, Montana, with a view of investing in mining and other property thereabouts.

The Gazette was somewhat in error last week in stating that creditors had attached E. A. Breyman's stock of general merchandise. It is a temporary transfer in the nature of a voluntary assignment, made to straighten out some kinks in the business.

Skels & Langdon's sawmill at Palouse City was burned to the ground Wednesday evening at a loss of about $6000; insured in the Firemen's Fund Co. for $1000. The fire is supposed to have originated from the furnaces. The owners of the mill are peculiarly unfortunate, having just purchased the property.

In the case of George Dacres vs. the O. R. & N. Co., for killing a bull, on trial at Walla Walla, Judge Langford, on motion of the attorney for the defendants, gave a non-suit, deciding that the company was not liable to pay damages occurring because it had not fenced its track; that under common law the owners of cattle must keep them off the premises of others. In short, that the owner of real estate, even if a railroad company, is not bound to fence against the deprecations of cattle, in the absence of a special statute. This is a very important ruling, by which, if sustained, railways need not fence their tracks.
The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

Attorney C. M. Kincaid has been notified by the Walla Walla land office that the secretary of the interior has decided a batch of lieu land cases in favor of the settlers, among whom are the following who can now file upon their lands: Alexander McKenzie, Oran Burnham, (two cases), Alexander Burnham, Patrick O'- Neill, Frank W. Gano, John W. Pearson, Charles Haywood, Henry Arasmitth, John C. Benton, A. M. Benton, Calvin
M. Bryan, Elmer Burnham, Charles Cole, Isaac Knight, Stephen Betts, John W.
Arasmitth, William Mood, Thomas Rowe, Jesse W. Walling. These are old cases, most of which have been pending since 1833. Official notice of the action of the secretary has not yet been received here.
