TOWN AND COUNTY.

Watches at cost, for cash, at the drug store.
—D. C. Munroe is at Tacoma on business.
—Taxes become delinquent March 1st. Pay up now and save the penalty.
—Tickets for the entertainment to-night are on sale at the drug store.
—Mrs. Wm. Newton is reported as somewhat better of her recent illness.
—Work has been commenced on Mrs. Taylor's new house on Sunnyside.
—Jennie C. Winston has been appointed postmistress at Belmont, this county.
—The ice-house for the new creamery has been completed and filled with ice.
Try the chillblain remedy at the drug store.
—Mr. Gus Ferguson, the popular dry goods merchant of Colton, was in town Thursday.
—Rev. Wholly, of Colfax, will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday evening.
—No preaching at M. E. church Sunday on account of quarterly meeting at Moyes' appointment.
—And now it is E. E. Ellsworth who smiles proudly and says, "It's a girl—arrived at our house Thursday."
—We are informed that a new elevator will be built at this place by the O. R. & N. company this season.
—E. W. Downen, postmaster, merchant, real estate agent, etc., etc., made a business trip to Colfax, Wednesday.
—Al. Reaney is about to build himself a handsome residence in his addition. He proposes to make it second to none in town.
White & Jackson's Compound Cough Syrup.
—The market price of wheat is higher at Pullman than any other place in the county. This is owing to our superior shipping facilities.
—A band of genuine gipsies, with the usual fortune-telling and horse-trading attachments, were encamped near the N. P. depot, Tuesday.
—Everybody, anybody, all bodies, call at this office and get free specimen copies of the San Francisco Call. Plenty on hand. THE HERALD and Call one year, only $2.55.
Try Compound Cough Syrup, for sale at the drug store.
—Downen's real estate agency has just closed the sale of 320 acres of fine land, five miles north of town, to J. S. Adams for a consideration of $3,200. Mr. Adams has since refused $1,000 for his bargain.
—The Pullman Land & Improvement Co. met on the 7th inst., it being the regular monthly session. A warrant was ordered drawn to the town of Pullman for the sum of $70, in payment of sidewalk assessments.
—In our Whitman county article last week a typographical error made us say that the "aggregate wealth of our people would reach $20,000, at least." We should remark that it would! The figures should have been $20,000,000.
—E. A. Taylor appeared in the Herald office, Monday, wearing a happy smile and bearing a box of first-class cigars. "A thank-offering from my twins," said he; and our office force has been in high clover ever since. Success to the young pair and their enterprising parents.
A first-class No. 8 cooking stove for $16.00, at Fariss Bros., Pullman.
—John Jack, a sterling old-time actor, who has been a favorite before the public for a good many years, supported by Miss Annie Firman and a stock company, announces an entertainment at the Pullman opera-house next Tuesday evening, 12th inst. The company is now at Lewiston, going thence to Moscow, then to Pullman.
—The following program will be discussed by the teachers of the county on Saturday, Feb. 26, in the public school building at Colfax:
1. Should all pupils be required to study grammar? Paper by S. C. Roberts. Discussion opened by Miss Genevieve Baneroff.
2. How can we make temperance and hygienic teaching effective? Paper by Mr. Nelms. Discussion opened by Miss Alice Higgins.
3. Model class in Pathfinder No. 2. Paper by Miss Theresa Buck. Discussion opened by Mr. Wallace.
4. Discussion. Should the text books be furnished at public expense? Affirmative, J. G. Elliott; negative, J. F. Dillon.
5. Question box. To contain questions concerning school work, also words for pronunciation.
6. The active element against public schools. Paper by A. S. Beach.

—Alf. Windus has few equals as a boot and shoe maker. Consequently he is always busy.

—Don't forget the entertainment to-night by the Pullman dramatic club. Romance, pathos and fun, all combined.

—Capt. M. S. Phillips and Maj. Gen. Reaney were in Colfax, yesterday, and they say they had no trouble as they knew the marshal.

—J. D. Urias, from Stockton, Kansas, arrived Thursday with a car-load of stock and household goods, and will permanently locate here.

—We regret very much to have to announce the death of one of the promising twin babies of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Taylor, which occurred on Saturday last.

—We have on hand some very handsome dance programs which will be printed for dancing parties at a low figure. Call and see them, and be "in style."

A. Reaney has 75 tons of grain hay which he will sell for $7 per ton. 1w

—The revival meetings in progress at Moyes' appointment are reported as very interesting and successful. Rev. W. R. Phelps and others are conducting them. Thus far 34 converts have resulted.

—Messrs. Wallace and True went to Palouse City this week to purchase several Jersey cows for the Pullman creamery. This enterprise is moving right along and will soon be under full headway.

—The friends of Conductor Barnes, one of the most popular men on the O. R. & N., are glad to see him at his post once more. He has not yet fully recovered from the injuries received in the Colfax collision.

—Our cornet band mounted to the broad roof of the Stewart block, Sunday last, and for half an hour made the warm, sunny atmosphere echo with sweet sounds. And why not? Sunday is a day for music.

—Chas. M. Mecklem, superintendent of schools, gives notice that the regular quarterly examination of teachers for Whitman county will be held Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 13 and 14, in the public school building at Colfax. Applicants are requested to be present promptly at 9 o'clock.

Say! we are closing out our stock of watches at actual cost. This is a fact. Call and examine our handsome assortment. WHITE & JACKSON. 15t

—Two shots from a revolver, fired in quick succession, apparently in the direction of the Palace Hotel, awakened a large number of our sleeping citizens at about 12 o'clock last Sunday night. These were followed by the sound of footsteps hurrying west on Main-st., thence north on Grand, but as yet no blood has been discovered nor is the "mystery" solved.

—At a meeting of the joint committees of the Board of Trade held Thursday evening, the organization was completed by the adoption of by-laws and the election of officers. E. H. Letterman was elected president and W. V. Windus treasurer. The finance committee consists of the treasurer, N. S. Hunt and Al. Reaney. It was decided to raise funds and prepare printed matter for distribution at once. Let every one do their best to aid, and the result will show that the money was well spent.

—Died: On Jan. 30, 1889, William Hampton, aged 73 years. Mr. Hampton was born in West Liberty, Ky., May 23, 1816. After residing in Illinois, Iowa, California and Oregon, he moved to Washington territory in 1874, near Pullman, and became a member of the Christian church in 1876. Mr. H. was well known for his hospitality, integrity and upright character. He was a sufferer from an incurable disease for the past nine years, and death mercifully ended his sufferings at last, as he often desired.

If you want a good business or residence lot in the thriving young city of Pullman, the trade center of the great grain region, address, or call on Thos. H. Kaylor, Pullman, W. T. He has, also, several dwelling houses in Pullman, and good farms in this vicinity that I can sell cheap. 12w4

Another County-Seat Petition.
A dispatch from Washington, dated the 5th inst., says the following petition was laid before the U. S. senate that day by president pro tem. Ingalls:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives:—Your humble petitioner would respectfully beg that your honorable body pass the bill introduced by Senator Butler, empowering the commissioners of Whitman county, Washington territory, to issue bonds not to exceed $100,000 to build a court-house and jail in the town of Colfax. Now, your petitioner most humbly prays that you double-dose and give them the privilege to raise $200,000. It will take this amount to keep the county-seat down in this hole, and while you are at it give us $50,000 more to build a balloon to get down to the county-seat, and your petitioner will ever pray, etc. (Signed) JOHN SMITH.

The document was actually referred to the committee on territories. "Smith's" head is not far from being level, eh?

FOR SALE OR RENT.
Rev. James Davies offers his beautiful residence for sale, or rent, with five acres of land, a good well of water and a never failing spring. He also offers for sale cheap, a good riding mare with saddle, a new set of harness (never been used), also a good milch cow. 13w3

Pullman in the Past.

It was in 1878 that our pioneer settler, D. G. McKenzie (who is still with us), filed a homestead upon the land here, and what he afterwards platted as the town of Pullman. He had abundant faith, it seems, that the country would develop, and that with its growth a town would naturally be established at this point—"Three Forks," as it was then called, being the junction-place of the South Palouse river and the Dry Fork and Missouri Flat creeks. As all roads once led to Rome, so, owing to the peculiar character of the country hereabouts, nearly all the roads centered at Three Forks by easy gravitation from the hills and mountains. Why shouldn't there be a prosperous trading-point here, under such circumstances, when the country should fill up with farmers and stockmen? On this assumption Pullman was founded, and her subsequent history has established the correctness of the conclusion.

In 1881, Stewart & Lee (Orville Stewart, the senior member, is our present mayor) opened the first store, which, for the time being, supplied the wants of the adjacent country. In '83, however, the Palouse branch of the O. R. & N. railway was surveyed to Pullman, and this gave a considerable impetus to immigration, bringing in other business and professional men. M. S. Phillips opened a furniture store; Kaylor & Webb a drugstore; M. W. Drinkwater and John Benjamin each started a blacksmith shop; Munroe & Oberholzer a hardware store. These with a lively stable, two hotels and two saloons, comprised the business places at the close of the year. Then came the famous Villard collapse, one of the effects of which was to stop all work on the O. R. & N. branch when it was within ten miles of Pullman. This retarded our progress materially until October, 1885, when the railroad was completed to this point. Confidence in the future of the town was now firmly established, and from that time dates the real history of the place. J. W. McConnell bought out the firm of Stewart & Lee and opened up a large general store under the title of McConnell, Chambers & Co. A. T. Fariss purchased the hardware business of Munroe & Oberholzer, and at once enlarged the same. M. C. True made additions to his hotel to accommodate the increasing rush, and the Empire House was continually filled to its utmost capacity. The spring of '86 opened most auspiciously for this embryo city and everything and every one prospered until July 4th of that year, when the fire-demon fell upon the place and reduced to ashes several business houses, with contents, none of which were insured. Nothing daunted, however, the plucky losers at once set about rebuilding, and during the summer and winter following larger and better structures had arisen from the ruins, each containing more extensive stocks of goods than had heretofore been carried. But these, too, were doomed to destruction, it seemed. The town was now well supplied with business firms who were taxed to their utmost financial capacity to handle the trade, as there was but little surplus capital in the country and the merchants, being mostly strangers here, did not have the credit which is now so willingly accorded them. On Sunday, June 26, 1887, a defective chimney in O. Stewart's building started another conflagration—and it was a most disastrous one. Every business house in town, together with the contents (with the exception of the drugstore and the Nodine building, the latter then in course of construction) was totally wiped out. Loss, something over $100,000; insurance, $45,000. It was a heavy blow, but the grit and enterprise of our merchants and their faith in the town was never better exemplified than on this occasion. Three days after the fire, Mr. Stewart had contracted for the two-story brick, 40x100 feet, now occupied by McConnell, Chambers & Co. The Fariss Bros. followed right along, erecting a 30x80 brick, afterwards enlarging it 60x80 feet, making it the largest hardware store in the country. Ellsworth & Hunt put up a one-story brick grocery, and later on John Prentice did likewise. Lumber and building material of all kinds covered the ground in every direction, and workmen were busy, not only upon the brick structures, but upon neat and substantial frame buildings; so that, when winter came on, Pullman had much improved in appearance and was all the better for its fiery baptism.

On July 18, 1887, the Bank of Pullman was organized under the laws of the territory, with J. A. Perkins, president; H. J. Webb, vice-president; W. V. Windus, cashier. In the fall of '87 the Spokane & Palouse branch of the Northern Pacific road arrived at our doors from the north and gave us connection with the markets of the East, and also lower freight rates to the Sound, making it possible for our farmers to compete in wheat-raising with more favored regions as regards markets. Considering all the circumstances and discouragements, the fact that Pullman has already grown to a town of 600 inhabitants demonstrates that her growth is permanent, and that the country surrounding is all that could be desired to insure prosperity and steady advancement to a city of at least 2,000 or 3,000 population within a very few years. Of the many superior advantages which Pullman and vicinity possess we shall hereafter speak more in detail.

Council Proceedings.

FEB. 5th.—All members present, except J. M. Hill. The committee having in charge the selection of a site for a city jail asked for and were granted further time to report on same.
On motion, the clerk was instructed to collect $5.21 rebate on the Hunt & Buckley bill for unused lumber.
On motion, T. H. Kaylor was appointed to figure up the amount due from each person on account of the sidewalk improvements on Main-st. just completed. His compensation was fixed at $3 per diem.
Bills amounting to $187.88 were audited and allowed.
The petition to vacate a portion of Main-st. was taken up and discussed. It was finally moved and carried that the matter be laid over until the meeting of Feb. 6th, to which date the board then adjourned.
FEB. 6th.—All members present, except J. M. Hill. On motion, the proceedings to vacate that portion of Main-st. prayed for by petition were continued by authorizing the chairman to enter into a contract in behalf of the town with D. G. McKenzie, to the effect that when said street is vacated he will make a deed to the town for 30 feet off the rear ends of lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, in block 16, along the alley, so as to enable the town to open a street up said alley. Contract was made and accepted.
On motion, that portion of Main-st. commencing at the northwest corner of lot 1, in block 16, of original plat of town of Pullman, where Steptoe-st. intersects Main-st., thence running in a northeasterly direction to where said Main-st. intersects the Columbia & Palouse R. R., was ordered vacated, and all right, title and interest held by or owned therein by the town of Pullman by virtue of dedication or otherwise, was released. It was also ordered that said street be attached to, and the title hereon be vested in, the owners of the property on each side of said street in equal proportions.
The street commissioner was instructed to collect the assessments for the sidewalk on Main-st. Board adjourned to the 7th inst.

FEB. 7th.—On the assembling of the board the deed from D. G. McKenzie for 30 feet of each of the lots along the alley in block 16 was reported and accepted.
BOARDS WANTED.
By the day or week. First-class accommodations at $4.00 per week. Apply to Mrs. M. A. Williams, Pullman.
Notes from Guy.
Our snow is fast disappearing, and ere long the chatter of the squirrel will be heard in the land.
Mortie Moulton and the measles have been having quite a combat, but the latest report is that the measles are on top.
Three good subjects for the study of human nature passed through our village the other day en route for Colfax. They were only boys, but seemed to be old in experience as their conversation was of an exciting nature.
Crane Morrison and his father returned from the East last Saturday evening. Crane brought with him a wife, and from appearances we think he is a very good judge. He set 'em up to the boys, and went his way rejoicing. Who is the next? MORE ANON.

Colfax.
Baptisms through a hole in the ice on Cooper lake occur frequently, one taking place on Monday last.
The protracted meeting at the Christian church closed Sunday evening, thirty-five additions having been made during its progress.
The bakery firm of Privett & Manning has been dissolved. Mr. Privett retires. The business will be continued by Seymour Manning.
It is reported that the O. R. & N. Co. will shortly proceed to make permanent location of a route from Riparia to Lewiston, with the idea of extending the same to Camas prairie.
A typographical error caused the Gazette to say last week that Whitman county has a standing debt, while exactly the reverse is the case. It should have read so standing debt.
F. P. Mesick, county surveyor, and R. C. Canfield, late of Colorado, have formed a partnership under the firm name of Mesick & Canfield and will open a branch of the county surveyor's office at Oakesdale about March 1, with Mr. Canfield in charge.
J. B. Holt, the well known Snake river fruit grower, was in the city Thursday and informed the Gazette that the prospects for a bountiful yield of fruit the coming season were better than for ten years past. The weather has been especially favorable, the ground freezing just enough to prevent the upward flow of sap, which sometimes occurs in warm winter weather. Unless some very cold weather should yet be experienced, which is not probable, the crop will be immense.
