NEWS OF THE CITY

RECORD OF THE WEEK

—Miss Mollie Grimes is visiting friends in Pomeroy.

—Mrs. G. B. Wilson was in Moscow Wednesday.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shirley Thursday night.

—Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts returned Monday from Long Beach, Wash.

—Mrs. Mattie Anderson has returned from a visit with friends at Rosalia.

—Mrs. J. C. Hurley, of Spokane, has been visiting Pullman friends this week.

—Don Francis left Thursday for Butte, Montana, where he will work in the mines.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brewink left Wednesday for St. Louis and the world's fair.

—Margaret, the little daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Barry, is suffering with typhoid fever.

—M. C. Gray returned the early part of the week from a business trip to eastern states.

—W. E. Hudson, of the Crescent Studio, was a business visitor to Moscow Wednesday.

—Miss Florence Pearson has returned from a visit to Miss Gladys McCroskey at Garfield.

—Hugh Rogers and family, of Garfield, have been visiting the family of P. W. Lawrence.

—Miss Bertha Ellis has gone to Moscow to accept a position in a millinery store at that place.

—I. B. Ricketts and family of Moscow, spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in this city.

—Geo. Weaver, a barber at Colfax, committed suicide Tuesday afternoon by taking morphine.

—Miss Mildred Waters went to Spokane Thursday to attend Brunot Hall, a school for young ladies.

—A ten pound son was added to the household of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Buckley, Wednesday, Sept. 7th.

Save money by buying your School Books and other supplies from J. D. HOAG, Postoffice Store.

—Wm. Collins, a miner from Orient, is in Pullman, employed in some capacity about the water works.

—Mrs. G. B. Wilson leaves next week for St. Louis and the fair. She goes with a party of Pendleton friends.

—Last Monday was Labor day, but outside of the postoffice observing Sunday hours it was not noticeable in Pullman.

—Harvest will soon be a thing of the past in the Palouse country, several machines having already completed their run.

—At the recent Methodist Conference at the Dalles, Ore., Rev. Gabriel Sykes was retained as pastor of the M. E. church at this place.

—Chas. Pea, a mechanic of Bossburg, is in town. Mr. Pea first went to Kendrick, but says there are seven men for every job in that city now.

—E. M. Sweeley, of Michigan, will coach the W. A. C. football team this year. Mr. Sweeley played end on the University of Michigan team from 1899 to 1902 and is a member of the all-American team. Football practice will begin at the college on Wednesday, Sept. 21.

My purpose in making this early showing so extensive, being a comprehensive collection of the New Fall Millinery that will be given the preference this season, is to give to the early purchasers every advantage they have been accustomed to having two or three weeks later.
(50) MRS. P. E. FULLERTON.

—Miss Faye Allen returned to Pomeroy Thursday to resume her duties as assistant principal of the Pomeroy High School. She was accompanied by Miss Sayde Thompson who has been elected instructor of the sciences in the same school.

—I. P. Hopewell, of Bloomington, Indiana, is visiting friends in this city. Mr. Hopewell is very favorably impressed with the Palouse country, especially Pullman, and will have much to tell his eastern friends of the greatest country on earth.

—The first burglary of the season in Pullman is reported to have occurred last Sunday night, when burglars entered the home of A. M. Akin and appropriated that gentleman's trousers and ten dollars in cash. No clue, as yet.

—Prof. O. L. Waller has returned from central Washington, where he has been engaged the past two months in investigating irrigation problems and doing governmental work in the interest of irrigation.

—The executive committee of the Whitman county Republican central committee announces that the county campaign will be opened with a meeting at Colfax, September 15th.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Buell returned Tuesday from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Will Klepper, at Spokane. Mrs. Klepper left Monday for Golden City, Mo., to visit relatives.

Did you attend Mrs. P. E. Fullerton's Millinery Opening today? If not it will pay you to call at your earliest convenience and inspect her fine line of street, tailored, dress and pattern hats. (50)

—Leon Gustin, of Spokane, spent Sunday and Monday with Pullman relatives. Mr. Gustin is employed in the A. A. Kraft harness shop at Spokane.

—Mrs. Wm. Swain has returned from her trip to England. She was accompanied home by Mr. Swain's niece, Miss Fannie Styan, who will remain here for some time.

—Prof. Elton Fulmer and family have returned from a five months' vacation trip, having visited the world's fair and other points of interest.

A Pullman Boy Weds.

Wednesday, at 9 a. m., at the home of the bride's parents in Waitsburg, the ceremony was performed by Rev. Hawks of the U. P. church which united the lives and fortunes of our genial friend, Gaston Wilson, and Miss Mabel Horner, of Waitsburg. The bridal party returned to Pullman by the evening train and was met at the depot by a merry crowd of friends who emphasized their expressions of good wishes by a shower of rice and old shoes. The newly married people began at once their housekeeping experience, a cozy little home on State street having been made ready for their coming. The HERALD joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson in wishing them a bright and happy future.
