PULLMAN, WASHINGTON, SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1905.

NUMBER 31

WHITMAN COLLEGE BADLY DEFEATED

W. S. C. Athletes Proved Too Strong for the Missionaries Yesterday.

The first field meet of the season that between Whitman College and W. S. C., on Rogers field, yesterday, proved the Pullman lads to be fully up to their form of past years, and a score of 74 points to 48 for the visitors tells the tale of the unequal contest.

The local boys started off with a rush when they nailed first and second places in the first two events. The first, the 100 yd dash, went to Ripley in 10 3-5 sec., with Coe second, and Hill, Whitman, 3rd.

—The W. S. C. cadets are now uniformed in the new service suits of khaki and blue flannel, with rough rider hats.

—The company of minstrels that showed here a few nights ago went "broke" in Lewiston, and the Manager has decamped. This company, which was heralded by The subsidized press as the real big thing, was made up in Spokane, and reputable managers should not have allowed it house room. Its running in such outfits as this on the people that makes it difficult to get an audience for a good company when it comes this way.

—At the declamation contest under the auspices of the county league, called for this city last night, Cerena Gannon, Pullman's winner in the preliminary event, was the only contestant appealing, and she will therefore compete in the finals at Colfax. It was expected that contestants would be here from Colton, Uniontown and Johnson.

—The city marshal asks that we notify all owners of cows that the ordinance prohibiting the staking of stocks in the streets, or where it can get across sidewalks or streets, will be enforced, and if you are one of the offenders, you are apt to soon find yourselves in the clutches of the city authorities.

—Arbor Day was observed in the public school Tuesday by the planting of trees on the school yard by the various classes, each student present participating to the extent of depositing a handful of earth. The pupils were also each presented with a tree, either fruit or shade, to take home and plant.

—Department Commander F. M. Davis, of the G. A. R., accompanied by Mrs. Davis, department president of the W. R. C., will be here next Monday to inspect the local post and relief corps. A social session in honor of the occasion is being arranged.

—David Swackhammer, a negro evangelist whose chief concern in life seems to be to make sure of eating at least once in each twenty-four hours, was looking after the white trash of this region during the early part of the week.

—Rev. Wyatt, Mrs. L. C. Richardson and Mrs. Mary Wills attended the 18th annual session of the Washington Sunday School convention, at Spokane, this week, as delegates from the Congregational church.

—Easter Sunday was an ideally perfect day in the Palouse country.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, Sunday.

—Dr. Nelson went to Spokane yesterday.

Youngsters Entertained.

Rex and Neva Murray entertained twenty of their young friends Tuesday evening, in honor of Masters Teddy Richardson and Howard Lindley, who were to leave for new homes in other towns. The young people present were Edward Richardson, Howard Lindley, Helen Quarels, Ruth Quarels, Aliph Keeney, Clinton Keeney, Grace Baker, Henry Baker, Neil Allen, Eric Egge, Laila Egge, Ethel Welty, Walter Moyce, Melissa Green, Sheldon Glover and Phebe Russell.

No Whiskey for Habituals.

An important step has been taken by Prosecuting Attorney Kipp in regard to persons convicted for habitual drunkenness. The law prohibiting the sale of liquor to these unfortunates has been violated with impunity and the prosecuting attorney proposes to stop the practice and punish violators of the law. A list of habitual drunkards has been prepared and sent to every saloonkeeper in the county. Accompanying the list, which is here given, Prosecuting Attorney Kipp sends a letter in which he impresses upon the saloon man the necessity of complying with the law.

The list of habitual drunkards follows:

W. H. Kyle, Charles Martin, Thomas Knox, Isaac Johnson, Nicholas Whelan, C. E. Basson, Joe Behan, V. C. Davenport, Daniel Dunn, William Greenwood, C. W. Herman, C. N. Hubbard, Cyrus Lake, Frank E. Webb, Herman Muhlke, John Striker and T. J. Farris.

The letter to saloonmen reads: "I am writing this letter to call your attention to an important law in this state that has been overlooked far too much in the past. It is the section that requires that all retail liquor dealers in the county shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in his place of business, a list of all habitual drunkards; the names of said drunkards to be furnished from time to time by the court. This is section 6493, Vol. 2, Ballinger's Code, and provides a penalty for failure to comply therewith.

"I am enclosing you a list that I have had prepared especially, and wish to inform you that hereafter I will prosecute any dealer who fails to comply with this section of the law.

"When a new name is sent you I will expect you to print that name upon this sheet, or an additional sheet, in letters of equal size with those used in this list.

"No exceptions or excuses will be allowed. This law must be lived up to without evasion.

"Conspicuous means posted in a place where every person entering your place of business can not fail to see the same."

IT WAS A FAST BASE BALL GAME

U. of I. Taken into Camp to the Tune of 3 to 2 by the W. S. C.

The first scrap of the season between those old time rivals, the U. of I. and W. S. C. base ball teams, was one that made the hair of the rooter raise with every play, for it was a fierce contest from start to finish, and great joy filled the Pullman camp when the close of the 9th inning showed a score of 3 to 2 in the farmers' favor.

The game was played in Moscow Wednesday afternoon, and was witnessed by a large attendance from Pullman and Moscow. Both teams are evenly matched. Brilliant playing gave the rooters an opportunity to keep up the excitement with college yells. The greatest sensation of the game was the last score for the university by Holohan in the ninth inning. Holohan in leaving first base never stopped running until he safely crossed the home plate, although he was repeatedly chased back and forth, between second and third and between third and home. Washington college made one earned run, and the other two scores were made on errors.

Waller pitched for Washington and was hit on the head by a ball thrown by Holohan to first base and was knocked down, but soon revived and stayed in the game. Middleton, the pitcher for the university, was easily the star player, and in three different innings struck out two batters in each while two college players were on bases each time. Washington summary: Errors 4, hits 7, runs 2. University summary: Errors 5, hits 7, runs 2. Barteries—College, Waller and Moffat; university, Middleton and Holohan. Umpire, Coe.

—An 11-pound son was an Easter arrival at the home of city clerk S. A. Small.

—Blair Business College and W. S. C. meet today on the Rogers field diamond.

—The latest arrival is a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ferrier—the little one appearing this morning.

—U. of I. and the State College play the second game of the series on Rogers field next Wednesday afternoon. This will be the warmest scrap of the season and no one should miss it.

Whitman County has 35,000 People

Whitman county has enjoyed a steady and rapid growth during the past five years and there is a strong probability that this county will be advanced to a higher class when the census now being taken is completed. In 1900 the county had a population of 25,360, as shown by the federal census taken that year. The county commissioners ordered a census taken by the county assessor and his deputies this year. The work is not nearly completed, but if the entire county has kept pace with several of the towns, it is thought the population of the county will reach 35,000, which will advance the classification of the county and raise the salaries of all county officers.

The census of only a few towns has been completed, but these show marked growth in population in the five years since the federal census was taken. The census of Colfax has not been completed but it is so nearly done that a close estimate of the population can be made. In round numbers the town has 2900 population, as compared with 2121 in 1900. This is a gain of 779, or more than 40 per cent in 5 years.

Tekoa shows a splendid growth. The census of Tekoa has been completed and shows that the town has a population of 1310, as compared with 717 in 1900. This is an increase of 293, or more than 75 per cent in five years.

St. John has a population of 575. This town was not incorporated in 1900, but was a little village of probably 150 inhabitants. The increase there has been almost 400 per cent. St. John is located in the midst of what was considered a grazing section until a few years ago. Recently it has been known that the country surrounding the town is one of the best wheat growing sections in the state, and the town has made no more rapid improvement than the surrounding country.

A complete census of Colton has been returned by W. R. Simpson, the field deputy assessor. This shows a population of 325, as against 251 in 1900. This is an increase of 74, or almost 30 per cent in five years.

Garfield has 917 inhabitants, as compared with 697 in 1900. This is an increase of 220, or nearly 30 per cent.

The census of Pullman has not yet been completed, but the figures will show a more rapid growth than in any other portion of the county.
