ALBION NOTES.

Received too late for last issue.

Mrs. Cable, of Moscow, was a guest of Mrs. Hall and other friends here last week.

The party who left here two weeks ago for an outing at Chatcolet returned last Monday. A good time and fish galore is the report.

Vegetation is growing rapidly since the refreshing showers.

Louis Shroll, a farmer living near Albion, received news of his mother's death at Seat. The funeral is to be held at Colfax Sunday and interment will be at that place.

At Kamiac Butte Thursday occurred a sad event. The farm home of George Tempero was destroyed by fire and a tiny child was burned to death.

The Albion State Bank is assuming vast proportions and is to be ready for business by July 1.

Whooping cough has victimized the greater part of Albion's younger population.

Pine Grove Grange degree team won third prize at the state convention at Spokane.

Walter Corey, son of Engineer Corey, of the Moscow train was in Albion the first of the week. He was in San Francisco during the recent earthquake, and tells some very pathetic stories of those times.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson went to Snake river Thursday on a business trip.

Uncle Billy Canutt is suffering from an attack of la grippe.

Mr. Willoughby has just completed a new wood house and Dr. Crawford a new barn. Other new buildings are going up which add to Albion's improvements.

Mrs. Hartman of Portland visited relatives here last week.

J. B. Armstrong has had the interior of his house painted this week and is giving his out buildings a generous coat also.

Mr. and Mrs. Abi Miller returned to their home at this place last Saturday. They have been in foreign parts since last fall.

Hauling wood from the mountains occupies the traffic just now.

A new kitchen is being added to the M. E. parsonage, a much needed improvement.

Mollie Claus-Short has been laid up with rheumatism following a siege of lagrippe the past week.

REO

REO TOURING CAR
16 HORSE POWER. 1600 POUNDS. FIVE PASSENGERS.
SIDE DOORS. 35 MILES AN HOUR. $1350.

BUILT FOR WHAT HAPPENS

You don't have to make any excuse for the Reo that the road or the weather was worse than expected. That's what the Reo was built for. That's why the price is so Remarkable.

$1350 for a real car that goes up against real difficulties and wins.

ACTUALITIES, NOT DREAMS

In the Pasadena Altadena 3 mile hill climbing contest this Reo, just out of stock, beat every popular $1500 and under car in the west, besides four $2500 cars.

Reo cars won five prizes out of a possible seven in the New York Motor Club's Economy Contest, including the National trophy.

On Paddock hill, Cincinnati, the Reo won three cups in one day, beating twenty cars, including eight cars of nearly double its rating and price.

On Mt. Washington, in the "Climb to the Clouds," Reo cut down its class record 23 minutes. And in the famous Glidden tour two Reo cars each carried four passengers 1050 miles at a total cost of $3.10 per passenger.

One demonstration in this car will show you the absurdity of paying twice the money for no better service.
