

PERSONAL

John H. McCaw, county engineer, was in Pullman from Colfax Thursday.

J. R. Good, of Colfax, the planing mill man, was in town today.

Miss Ella Houck, of Pullman is taking a vacation of three weeks in the country.

Mrs. U. G. Lawler, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Else hospital two weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home. This was done Tuesday and she is getting along nicely.

T. B. Matlock, Mrs. Matlock and their daughter Alice, returned Sunday from Seattle where they spent two weeks in attendance at the exposition.

F. L. Lee, representing the Fairbanks-Morse Company of Spokane, was in Pullman Saturday of last week. Mr. Lee travels over the country in an automobile.

Mr. Homer Lewis, of the City Dye Works, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Colfax. While there he met an old friend of his from Spokane and the two had a fine time renewing old acquaintance.

A fine lot of baled hay is being brought to Pullman this week. Some splendid grain hay and timothy have been baled near here and is being marketed in Pullman. Hay is in demand and high prices are expected before next spring.

W. M. Olmstead shipped seven fine dressed veals to Spokane last Monday. Mr. Olmstead is doing a good business in poultry, dressed veal and other farm produce.

E. A. Stovall is planning to sell off all his personal property and will have one of the largest sales of the season at his farm three miles southwest of town in the near future. Watch for the big bills.

James Ebbett, of Eugene, Oregon, who owns 3800 acres of land in Whitman county and draws from $20,000 to $25,000 per year in rentals, is here looking after the gathering of the crops on his farm. He has 640 acres four miles north of Pullman and land in many parts of Whitman county.

I. R. Hughey, editor of the Albion Independent, was a pleasant caller at The Herald office Tuesday. Mr. Hughey says the receipts of grain at Albion will break all records this year. That station usually receives from 250,000 to 300,000 bushels of grain per year.

Professor Lionel Gittleton, instructor in violin at the School of Music, W. S. C., has the contract for publishing the program for the Pullman Auditorium, and is getting out the nearest and most unique program ever published here. The work is being done at the Herald job department.

Claire Fulmer, oldest son of Professor Elton Fulmer, left Monday afternoon for Salem, Oregon, where he will enter the Willamette University, a school conducted by the Methodist church. Claire has been at work at Kent and Seattle, this summer, and has decided to give up work and complete his education.

J. M. Reid and wife returned Monday from Seattle. Mrs. Reid has spent several weeks in southern Oregon, and Mr. Reid met her at Seattle, where they "took in" the fair. Mr. Reid also went to Portland as a witness before the Interstate Railroad commission in the Astoria grain rate case hearing, in which Astoria asks the same rate on grain that is given Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and other coast terminal points.

G. F. Johnson and son Arthur returned Tuesday evening from Mountain Home, Idaho, near which place each got a desert claim of 160 acres. They have been gone six weeks, during which time they cleared the sage brush off of 75 acres of land and got it leveled off and ready for the water. They are well pleased with the outlook there and believe that water will be turned on the land inside of two years. The Twin Falls ditch is being extended into that country. They drove there and back, taking nine days on the road each way.

W. C. Jarron was in town from his fine farm east of town Wednesday.

A. A. Heidrick, of Seattle, has returned to school.

O. A. White, president of the Johnson Union Warehouse Company, at Johnson, was in town on business Wednesday.

Samuel Ellis, county commissioner from the Third district, living near Colfax, was in town Wednesday.

Miss Elva Deane Smith, who has been absent several weeks owing to the illness of her father, Lillis F. Smith, a farmer living near Endicott, has returned to Pullman and reopened her art studio in the Mott building.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitecher expect to leave for Spokane early next week. They have two residences in Spokane, but will probably not locate there until they have spent some time in traveling.

Cal. Shinner has returned to Pullman after an absence of several weeks and will take a permanent position in the cigar store and pool room formerly conducted by Whitecher & Cleland.

The following bunch of Spokaneites registered this week. They are nearly all athletes. Rex Gardner, basket ball; Merle Monroe, track; Ross McClurg, football; Frank Anderson, Ed. Keinholtz, a brother of the new coach; and Art White. Spokane has a larger representation among the new students than ever before.

Tuesday morning while taking a flash-light picture of the College book store, Robert Burns exploded the flash-light and set the drapery and decorations of the show window on fire. There was considerable excitement for a short time, but the fire was extinguished with no damage, but the consequences might have been serious.

The Yakima Fruit Brokerage Company, of North Yakima, has opened headquarters for the purchase and packing of apples at Pullman. Mr. A. F. Carpenter, a well-known fruit man is in charge of the work. The firm has bought two carloads of apples here and expects to get a number more. The apples will be packed in the corrugated iron building just north of The Herald office.

Steve Davis, formerly a farmer and stockman near Pullman, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Davis is now located near Great Falls, Montana, where he has taken a homestead and is delighted with the country. He went from here to Colfax and left there Thursday with a colony of landseekers who hope to get homesteads in that part of the country. Mr. Davis thinks there is a great future before that part of Montana.

Wheat hauling is at its height this week. The receipts at Pullman have reached 5000 sacks in a single day. It is thought that by the end of this week two-thirds of the grain tributary to Pullman will have been delivered at the warehouses here. The roads are in excellent condition for hauling since the recent showers.

G. W. Frazier, of Colfax, was in town Monday and visited his farm, two and one-half miles southwest of town. Mr. Frazier has decided to not take possession of his farm again this fall, as he had contemplated, but has rented it for another year.

Lovers of music and fun have a treat in store for them when "That Nifty Song Show, The Sunny Side of Broadway" with that funny Hebrew Comedian, Max Bloom, plays here Saturday, September 25. The support is strong, the costumes beautiful, and the novelties and the electrical effects, including "The Pazzaz Plant" number are unsurpassed by any production of its kind.

Professor H. J. Lechner, instructor in agriculture in the Pullman high school, has a class of 16, of whom four are girls, and these are all taking a deep interest in the work. It is Professor Lechner's intention to have the pupils write a thesis on agricultural subjects and these will be published in The Herald and the Pacific Farmers Union. At present the class is studying the potato and the boys and girls are showing much interest in the work. A trip to the college farm is planned for the near future.

A. D. Wexler has gone to the exposition at Seattle.

J. N. Scott visited Spokane the first of the week.

C. H. Pierce, of Spokane, was transacting business in Pullman Monday.

An addition is being built to I. E. Henshaw's residence on Military hill. Professor W. S. Thornber is judging fruit at Spokane this week.

W. T. ...onald, head of the department of animal husbandry in the State College, is judging stock at the Spokane Fair this week.

F. S. Loby is at Seattle again this week.

J. J. Van Brugger, formerly manager of the "Togger" is "papa" to a son born this week.

Fred Gelwick, Jr. has returned from Condon, Okanogan county, and will remain in Pullman this winter.

Professor Collette and bride, nee Miss Jayne, instructor in elocution, were given an ovation by the students of the college Wednesday.

Miss Melissa Vaile has gone to McMinnville, Oregon, to enter the Baptist college at that place.

J. A. Hungate and wife have gone to Cheney to visit their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Sampson.

J. E. Hammond and family have returned from Seattle where they spent two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Scott are in Spokane this week.

Mrs. Bessie Bear, formerly manager of the Pullman telephone exchange, was in Pullman the first of the week.

A. J. Visher has returned from Montana, where he spent two weeks looking over the country.

The family of A. J. Cole, of Colton, is moving to Pullman in order that the sons may attend the college.

W. A. Moss has moved into his new residence on College hill and now boasts one of the finest homes in Pullman.

John Klemgard has been elected delegate to the grand lodge of the Odd Fellows, which meets in Seattle in October.

Mrs. Robert Burns has been enjoying a visit from her brother, R. H. Krebs, of Pomeroy, Wash.

The bakery will move to its new quarters in the building recently vacated by I. E. Henshaw next week.

Dr. J. Earl Else attended the regular quarterly meeting of the Whitman County Medical Society at Colfax Monday night.

Pat Ryan is spending much of his time in town this week. He is sitting up the house he bought from C. H. Buell, on West Main street and will move the family to town next week.

E. A. Stovall is hauling wheat to Pullman at the rate of about 500 sacks per day. He has five teams delivering to the Pullman Union Warehouse Company's warehouse. His wheat is of excellent quality.

More than 350 new students were enrolled between 9 o'clock Wednesday and 11 o'clock Thursday, and when adjournment was taken for chapel services at 11 o'clock Thursday, long lines of waiting students filled the gymnasium to the door.

A. F. Carpenter, one of the pioneer commission merchants of Spokane, formerly of the Herron-Carpenter-Gardon Company, spent several days in Pullman this week, looking after apple buying here.

The Pullman Implement company this week sold to S. J. Palmittier, what is believed to be the first corn binder sold in Pullman. Mr. Palmittier has 25 acres of corn that promises a yield of 35 to 40 bushels per acre. He will bind it.

C. T. Foster is again in the poultry and produce business and will have his office with James Neill, in the Seattle Brewing & Malting Company's building, on Grand street, opposite The Herald office.

The largest crop of potatoes ever grown in the Palouse country will be gathered this fall and complaint is made because no preparations have been made to buy and ship these to the markets of the world. There is a good opening here for a potato buyer.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hickman, living near Almota, died a few days ago, making the second child this family has lost in two weeks. Rev. Dr. W. G. M. Hays conducted the funeral services over both children. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

It is the desire of the Y. M. C. A. to be of service to the public of Pullman in the matter of securing student labor and at the same time to assist students dependent upon their own resources. In order to accomplish this the Y. M. C. A. requests that all calls for student labor be sent to E. A. Kincaid, President, who will give them careful attention.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Van Wye and family left Tuesday morning for Oklahoma where they will spend the winter, returning next spring to take possession of the farm they recently bought from Mr. Clure.

A large crowd witnessed the opening program at the Star theatre Monday night, and all expressed entire satisfaction with the entertainment given. The management has made arrangements for a fine program with frequent changes and will make a specialty of trying to please the public.

The vaudeville and moving picture program at the Ivy theatre draws a large crowd every night and every one goes away satisfied. No better testimonial of the merits of the programs can be given than the fact that the same people are constantly patrons of the house, coming back regularly after they once "get the habit."

J. A. Adams, manager of the Coolidge-McClain ranch, south of Pullman was in town Wednesday. Mr. Adams had hard luck this fall, losing his threshing machine through a "smut explosion" and after he had bought a new machine, had two explosions in it, but managed to put the fire out before the machine was destroyed.

Mrs. L. Borden, of 1405 Opal street, has returned from Spokane where she spent the summer vacation. Her son is in the preparatory department of Washington State College.

George W. Walter has recovered from the injuries he received when a traction engine "turned turtle" with him, sufficiently to be out but his arms are both weak and it will be some time before he is able to work.

W. S. Alsop has finished the season's run with his big thrasher, having ran 27 1-2 days. He made a good average, but no better than last year, owing to the heavy straw.

Ben Bader has finished threshing, and pulled in after running 22 days, in which he averaged more than 1000 sacks a day. Ben expects to engage in the saw mill business in Idaho this winter.

James Hinchliff went to Spokane Thursday to attend the Inter-State Fair and will return tonight or Saturday morning. Mr. Hinchliff lived in and near Spokane for many years and seldom misses an opportunity to attend the annual fair.

Pullman sent fewer people to the Spokane Fair this year than usual. After visiting the Seattle exposition and trying to secure land in three Indian reservations Pullman people are content to remain at home this fall.

Heavy shipments of dressed veal is being made to Spokane from Pullman and neighboring points every day. Thursday 11 large veal calves were sent from here. Eight of these came in on the Genesee branch.

The College Book Store has added four extra clerks this week, owing to the rush of business since college opened.

The old platform on the south side of the Altan hotel is being torn up and the hole beneath it is being filled with earth.

The Potlatch Lumber Company, which has yards in all of the towns of the Inland Empire, reports a larger lumber sale at Pullman than any Palouse country town during this year and last. This shows where the building is being done.

The Burgan-Emerson Company reports the largest two days' business in the history of the store, excepting Saturdays, was last Wednesday and Thursday. This firm now employ 23 clerks and all are kept busy.

Hill & Woodin have received a shipment of fine blackberries from Spokane. The fruit is exceptionally fine and it is unusual to get such good fruit so late in the season.

Peach harvest is nearly over on the Snake river. Few peaches were canned here this fall, owing to the high price, which made them too expensive. The Farmers Union is trying to arrange to secure a carload of canned and dried fruits from the canneries conducted by the Union in California.

Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Allen returned Thursday from Dawson, North Dakota where they spent three weeks visiting relatives and friends at their former home. Mr. Allen had to send for a lot of heads of wheat from Pullman to convince the ranchers of that state that he was telling the truth about the great yields of grain.

Ed. Priest received another carload (218 head) of stock hogs last Saturday night and they were soon sold to the ranchers near Pullman at prices that gave Mr. Priest a nice profit, but it is believed the men who bought them will make much more than he did. The hogs are being turned into the stubble fields to eat the fallen grain.

Mrs. Percy W. Chapman, of Tekeo, is here, visiting her sister, Mrs. W. G. Reed. Mr. Chapman is at present in Oregon but is expected back to Pullman in the near future and will probably locate here and engage in business. Mr. Chapman is a banker, having been connected with the First National Bank here for several years and was manager of a bank at Palouse for seven years since leaving Pullman.

Professor Elton Fulmer, head of the chemistry department of Washington State College, has returned from a brief vacation spent in western Washington. Professor Fulmer's "vacation" was largely taken up with work for the state and for the federal government pure food commission. In addition to being head of the chemistry department in the State College, Professor Fulmer is the only member of the national pure food commission from west of the Mississippi river, and is state chemist for the state of Washington.

PROFESSOR EVANS IS HERE

Professor E. A. Evans, who succeeds Miss Charlotte Malotte as professor of Latin, in Washington State College, is here. Professor Evans is a graduate of the University of Michigan and of the University of Nebraska.

BUYS HOME IN PULLMAN

John H. Matlock, of Oakesdale, has bought Bloor's residence on College hill, near the residence of Walter Davis, and has moved to Pullman with the intention of becoming a permanent resident of the college town. The price paid for the property is $1800. Mr. Matlock is a pioneer of the Palouse country, having settled near Sunset nearly 30 years ago. He is a brother of T. B. Matlock, formerly city marshal, and has a family of children whom he wishes to educate.

TAFT DAY AT SPOKANE

Tuesday, September 28, President Taft will be in Spokane and one of the largest crowds ever gathered in that city is expected at that time. The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company is planning to run a special train leaving Moscow at 7 o'clock and running through to Spokane on record time as a special, returning in the evening. The rate will be one and one-third fare for the round trip. Ask Agent Brownell and watch for the big hand bills for further information.

Your Shoes

Should give you Service, Fit Comfort

WE ARE Shoe Specialists devoting our time, energy and capital to one thing

We Furnish Shoes made by Specialists in their respective lines and we take the time and care to fit you correctly with the proper shoes for your particular need. We enjoy showing our goods.

CITY SHOE STORE

Windus & Ellsworth

She's a good house keeper give her something nice to keep says our little house-maid

KIMBALL & ROTH

Furniture and Undertaking (Successors to Reed & Smith)

Opp. ARTESIAN HOTEL, PULLMAN, Wn.

JUST FOR YOU

That's the secret of good Clothes. They must be made JUST FOR YOU by skilled hand Tailoring.

We announce with pleasure that we have now on display our new Fall Line of Scotch Mixtures--beauties too. Come in to-day and be measured for a new Suit. We Always Please.

Clarkson & Pearce Men's Outfitters

Palace Meat Market

IRA HENSHAW, Proprietor

Choicest Meats for the City Trade

Opposite Palace Hotel. Pullman, Wash.

Take Advantage

It will be to your advantage to purchase one of our fall suits made in the newest models by the best manufacturers in all the latest colors and weaves.

An inspection and you will be convinced

Haskell's

2 doors east of Pullman State Bank