HIGH SCHOOLS WILL COMPETE

Sixth Annual Interscholastic on Rogers Field, Saturday, to be Big Event.

Next Saturday, May 14, is the date of the big interscholastic field meet, when the high schools of the Inland Empire, including eastern Washington, northern Idaho and northwestern Oregon will compete for the championship on Rogers Field, the athletic grounds of Washington State College. Twenty-five high schools will participate.

The track meet will be preceded Friday night by the annual oratorical contest, which will be held in the college auditorium and it is expected that a large crowd will be present, for visitors have been arriving for several days and there will be hundreds of high school students and faculty members come here from the various schools participating, to "root" for the contestants from their respective schools. Medals will be given for the first, second and third best orations delivered.

There are some valuable trophies to be contested for. The R. C. McCroskey cup is the most valuable and goes to the winner of the meet. The high school winning this cup three times in succession, becomes its permanent owner. Spokane has won it twice and if Spokane wins the meet next Saturday the cup belongs to that school. This cup is valued at $60 and is a handsome trophy. Gold, silver and bronze medals will be given for first second and third places in the track events.

The medals were contributed by the following business houses of Pullman: Pullman State Bank, First National Bank, Pullman Hardware Co., A. B. Baker, J. N. Scott, Thorpe's Smoke House, Potlach Lumber Co., Pullman Herald, Clarkson Bros., Dredge & Eastwood, Artopho Studio, Robert Burns, City Shoe Store, J. D. Morton, Dutton's, Palace Hotel, Model Bakery, M. C. Gray, O. D. Mathews, Frank Zalesky, Hamilton's Hardware, Club Barber Shop, Brunswick Pool and Billiards. The banner and place pennants were contributed by the students of the college.

The importance of this event, and its magnitude can be imagined at a list of the entries. There are 150 entries in the event, the largest number ever attempted to run in one event in this state. A number of "heats" will be necessary to get all of the men on the track and give each a chance to run. In the 50 yard dash there are 40 men entered; 100 yard dash, 42; mile run, 31; shot put, 33; Pole vault, 30; hammer, 31; discus, 38; high jump, 41; broad jump, 40; 220 yard dash, 41; quarter mile dash, 47; relay race, 14 teams of four men each, a total of 56 runners in the relay race.

The preliminary events will begin promptly at 9.45 on Saturday morning and will be pulled off in the forenoon. Saturday afternoon will be devoted to the finals, which will begin at 2 o'clock. Following is the list of entries, as reported at this time:

WALTER DAMROSCH.

Walter Damrosch has traveled more extensively through this country with his orchestra than any Symphonic conductor. He is the greatest believer in the musical future of the country, and says that the progress which he has noted in the last twenty-five years is enormous. When he first started conducting, there were only three Symphony Orchestras in the country, his own, the Boston Symphony and the Chicago Symphony. Since then six other orchestras have sprung into existence and others are forming.

The Far West has interested him most of all. He thinks that the people there are temperamentally more alive to music than anywhere else. He considers Symphonic Orchestras to be of far greater importance to a city than opera, as opera is a hybrid form of entertainment, which usually means the glorification of some prima donna, soprano or tenor.

Remember the date, May 27, College Auditorium.

BUSY DAYS IN PULLMAN

HORSE SHOW, MUSICAL FESTIVAL AND NEW YORK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA TO BE HERE.

The last of this month is to be filled with the interesting events in Pullman. The annual May Musical Festival will be held Thursday and Friday, and to add to the attractions, a horse show has been arranged for Friday forenoon. This is expected to draw many farmers and horsemen from the surrounding country, while the musical festival will bring music lovers from neighboring towns as far away as Spokane. This will be the first time that the noted New York Symphony orchestra has been in Pullman and it will be a rare treat, well worth the price of admission and the cost of traveling a long distance.

This big attraction has been secured by the joint efforts of the School of Music and the Commercial Club at a cost of $1,100. It is admittedly the greatest musical organization in the United States today. It is composed exclusively of high priced artists who devote their entire time to music. Some of the world's most noted soloists are with this orchestra, which will be seen for the first time in a town as small as Pullman, Saturday, May 27. Read the posters and programs for full particulars of the big event.

Friday forenoon there will be a horse show. This has been arranged by the Commercial Club as a side attraction. Liberal prizes will be given and there is no doubt that a fine lot of horses will be seen here at that time. The show is given in the forenoon so that it will not interfere with the New York Symphony orchestra in the afternoon.

Thursday night will be the annual entertainment of the departments under the auspices of the School of Music. A fine program has been arranged for this occasion. A light opera will be given by the faculty and students of the School of Music. Every one should arrange to attend both these concerts, for they will be well worth the price.

June will be Month of Many Attractions

State Grange Meeting, Encampment of Veterans, W. S. C. Commencement and Summer Science School.

Pullman has, for many years, been known as "The Convention City," and this year will live up to her reputation. May is to be a lively month, with the interscholastic field meet, the horse show and the New York Symphony Orchestra, but June will eclipse May with some big meetings and the gathering of people from all parts of Washington and northern Idaho.

The first thing of importance next month will be the meeting of the Washington State Grange, with several hundred delegates, for a session of four days, beginning on Tuesday, June 7, and closing Friday evening, June 10. All railroads have granted special low rates of one and one-third fare for the round trip and every county in the state will be represented. State Master C. B. Kegley was here last week arranging for the big convention and he feels confident the attendance will break all records in the history of the grange. Many of the delegates will pay their first visit to Pullman on this occasion, and it is up to the citizens to show them a pleasant time. It will be their first visit to the State College and experiment farm. Both men and women delegates will be present and it will be necessary for citizens to throw open their homes to care for the hundreds of visitors who will be present. Arrangements should be made to show the visiting farmers over the country surrounding Pullman and the Commercial Club can do no better than arrange for automobiles and carriages and see to it that the delegates get out and see our rich farms and fine orchards. We may secure a number of these prosperous farmers as citizens to Pullman or vicinity, if we take pains to show them the advantages of living here.

Veterans Encampment.

Beginning Wednesday, June 8, the veterans association of Whitman county, Wash., and Latah county, Idaho, will meet here for a three days encampment. This association includes all who served on either side in the Civil War, the Spanish-American, Philippine or Indian wars, and has a membership numbering many veterans of these four wars. The encampment will be held in Reaney's park, where there is fine shade, plenty of artesian water, and all conveniences. Pullman people will supply tents and camp equipments for those who wish to camp in the park. There will be interesting programs for forenoon, afternoon and evening of each day. K. P. Allen, a Union veteran, and William Priest, a veteran of the Confederate army, are the committee on arrangements and have issued the following proclamation to all members of the association.

Attention! Comrades.

Nearly fifty years of time with its careless march has flitted by since the great and stirring scenes of 1860. We were all young then in the prime of life, buoyant with the ### Engagement is Announced.

The engagement of Miss Audrey Dutton and Mr. James C. Allison, of Fruitland, Wash., was announced an "announcement party" given by Miss Dutton to an even dozen of her young lady friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dutton, Wednesday afternoon. The engagement comes as a surprise to Miss Dutton's many friends in Pullman. The party was a dainty affair and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The Herald joins the many friends of Miss Dutton in congratulations to Mr. Allison upon capturing one of the most popular and highly respected young ladies of Pullman. The wedding will occur on June 8.

hopes of youth. Now, after fifty years our heads are streaked with grey. A few more short years and the race will be run, our places will be taken by others. Time has softened much of the harshness of fifty years ago, and the world has recognized the fact. That the mingled races of blood that forms the American nation, when contending for his rights as he sees them, is about the same whether the individual comes from the sunny hills of Florida, or the bleak shores of Huron lake. Wherever he comes from he and his age have left an indelible impression upon the onward roll of time.

Many of the veterans, some who were the grey who have been meeting with us in the past and attending our veterans association, have answered the last roll call.

As we glide down this stream of time, let us do what we can by getting together and showing to the rising generation that while we were foes upon the deadly field of battle in times past that these things are all of the past.

And an impenetrable future awaits and demands our attention. The annual encampment of the veterans association of eastern Washington and northern Idaho will be held in the Reaney Park at Pullman, Washington, on the 8, 9, and 10 of June, 1910. Ample arrangements will be made to accommodate all, both tenting and hotel accommodations. We hope that has many as can of the old veterans will be present to meet one another again at the coming encampment for it is very probable that it will be the last encampment for some. There will be a very liberal program each day and night, including an address by Hon. John L. Wilson of Seattle.

W. S. C. Commencement.

The week following the commencement and State Grange convention the annual commencement exercises of Washington State College will begin. The exercises always bring large crowds of people from all parts of the state. The program this year will be especially interesting. The largest class in the history of the school will be graduated. The exercises will cover almost an entire week, beginning on Sunday and closing Thursday evening with the alumni banquet.

Summer School.

The Monday following the commencement exercises the annual summer Science School for Teachers will open, and from 200 to 400 teachers are expected to be here for a period of six weeks. The summer school closes August 1. Teachers from all parts of this and neighboring states attend this school where they are given special courses at small cost, and the time spent here is really a profitable vacation, for it costs but little, board and lodging being furnished at cost, and teachers are given an opportunity to do special work that is of great benefit to them.

Farm Brings $80 Per Acre.

G. W. Metcalf sold his farm of 200 acres, 4 1-2 miles west of Pullman recently to A. F. Carruthers and A. B. Drinkwater for $80 per acre. The deal was made by D. B. Putman & Son, whose office is in The Herald block. Mr. Carruthers takes 40 acres, adjoining his farm, and Mr. Drinkwater took 160 acres. Mr. Metcalf has gone to Portland to look around and may decide to locate there. He bought the land eight years ago for $25 per acre. It was formerly owned by Milo Hubbard.

J. M. Childers is the father of a 10-pound son, born Thursday morning just in time to be counted in the census of Pullman.

THEIVING DAGO CAUGHT HERE.

Peter Pappas Charges Harris Kakas With Stealing $304 from Three Countrymen.

Harris Kakas, a native of Sunny Italy, is languishing in the county jail because he was unable to give bonds for $500 to insure his presence when needed for trial on a grand larceny charge. Justice Geo. Henry committed him, Tuesday. Kakas is charged with having stolen the savings of three of his countrymen who were employed with him at Seltice Junction on the O. R. & N. railroad.

The testimony showed that Pappas and two other Italian laborers had $304 hidden beneath a pile of ties and that Kakas knew of it. Kakas quit work on Wednesday, April 27, and went to Spokane. He returned on Saturday, April 30, and drew his time check and disappeared. Search was instituted and Kakas was traced to Pullman, where he was found working on the section. He was arrested by Constable Frank Hill and City Marshal Baymiller. After spending the time from Saturday night until Tuesday in the city jail he was given a hearing before Justice Henry and a strong case made out against him. He was held in $500 bonds for trial. The wife of the section foreman at Seltice testified that she saw Kakas remove the pile of ties beneath which the money had been hidden.

Barbecue at Clarkston.

Mayor Maguire has been invited by R. M. Yount, mayor of Clarkston, Wash., to attend the barbecue at Clarkston on June 4. Mayor Maguire is urged to bring as many Pullmanites as possible to assist in celebrating the purchase of the Clarkston townsite and irrigating system by an eastern syndicate which has expended $2,500,000 there. Four fat steers will be roasted, whole, and a feed for thousands will be prepared and served to all visitors.

Sunday Concerts End.

Last Sunday afternoon was the last of the series of concerts given by the School of Music of Washington State College in the college auditorium. The concert was well attended and the work of the college orchestra was shown high appreciation. Professor W. B. Strong, who has had charge of these concerts, delivered a brief address in which he complimented the people of Pullman upon their culture, good taste and knowledge of the higher classes of music.

"I have never been in a town the size of Pullman, where the higher grades of music were appreciated as they are here," he said. "It is very gratifying to notice the applause from the audiences which assemble here. I am pleased to note that the classical works, the work of the best authors, always receive the greatest applause. Speaking for myself and the orchestra, I wish to say that we feel repaid for our efforts to entertain you by the knowledge that our work has been appreciated and that we have, to some extent, contributed to the appreciation of high music in Pullman."

These concerts have been given every alternate Sunday afternoon and have, as a rule, been well attended and appreciated. A week from next Sunday will be too close to the May Music Festival and two weeks later will be in the midst of commencement work. It is hoped the concerts will be resumed when school opens again next September.

Spokane to Send 300 Rooters.

A special train, bearing 300 "rooters" for the Spokane high school team will leave Spokane at 6.56 Saturday morning and run through to Pullman, for the interscholastic field meet. The train is scheduled to make fast time and it is planned to have the Spokane team here in time to begin the preliminaries. A strong team is coming and desperate efforts will be made to win the meet and thus retain the McCroskey cup, which Spokane has won two years in succession and which, if won again this year, will become the permanent property of that school.

Colfax, 14; Pullman, 8. Sunday, May 8. That's all.

TWENTY-ONE GRADUATES

Pullman High School Will Graduate Biggest Class in the County.

This will be the first year that Pullman high school has turned out a graduating class and the occasion is to be celebrated with the biggest class of the year in Whitman county. There are 21 young men and women who will receive diplomas at the commencement exercises which will be held in the Pullman Auditorium on Thursday evening, May 19. The occasion is to be made a memorable one, for these are the first graduates from Pullman's high school.

It is but two years since Pullman was given the full high school course, and the results, as shown by the big class which completes its work next week, prove the step to have been a wise one. The work of the school is highly satisfactory and is a compliment to the directors and the corps of teachers.

The program for commencement week begins next Sunday when the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. C. H. Harrison, pastor of the Congregational church. The exercises will be held in the Methodist church, beginning at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. On Tuesday evening, May 17, the class day exercises will be held in the high school auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock. The class promises a fine program on this occasion.

On Thursday evening the graduating exercises will be held in the Pullman Auditorium and the address to the class will be delivered by Professor W. G. Beach, of Washington State College, one of the most pleasing speakers of that big school. The auditorium is to be decorated with the class colors and a large crowd is expected to be present. All are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

The Graduates.

Following is the list of young men and women who will receive their diplomas, showing they have completed the full term of the high school and have the honor of receiving the first diplomas ever issued by the full high school of Pullman:

Esther Bull, Clara LaFollette, Clifford Folger, Nina Fulton, Anita Gallagher, Samuel Henig, Gladys Sutton, Lelia Moore, Joy Baines, Harry Locklin, Melena LaFollette, Sam Hunt, Elsie Miller, Flossie Klemgard, Gwendolin Wild, Florence Windus, Frank Piper, Gladys Duthie, Ruby Nye, Paul Weeks, Margaret Simmons, Ella Renneke.

Build New Warehouses.

Three new warehouses are being built on the O. R. & N. side tracks in the west part of town. Floyd Hamilton, the hardware merchant, is building a storage warehouse for hardware. This building is 24 by 70 feet, with concrete piers and will stand high enough to be out of the water in case another flood like that of March 1, should occur. The floor of this warehouse is now being laid.

J. P. Duthie has just completed a coal warehouse, just west of Mr. Hamilton's building, and the local Farmers' Union has begun the erection of a coal warehouse 20 by 80 feet on the side track further down the line. All of these buildings are substantial structures, with large capacity. The Farmers' Union proposes handling coal exclusively this year.

Sunday School Delegates.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Brumblay, Dr. and Mrs. J. Earl Else, Mrs. Lulu Downen, Mrs. Dr. Gaw and Mrs. Bruce Lampson were delegates from Pullman to the Inland Empire Sunday school convention held at Moscow this week. They report having had an enjoyable time. The convention was well attended and there were a number of speakers of national and international reputation. The convention covered three days.
